NAVAL PLAN LEAKS OUT

Mystery Cruiser Being Designed

Proposed New American Ship to Carry More Than Twenty Planes

England and Japan Stirred and Protests May be Sent Washington

WASHINGTON, July 25. (Exclusive)—A mystery cruiser that may revolutionize American defense policy is being designed by the Bureau of Aeronautics of the Navy Department to take advantage of the provisions of the London naval limitation treaty.

The cruiser is a six-inch-gun ship of between 9000 and 10,000 tons displacement designed to carry airplanes in the manner of an aircraft carrier. The designers have not reached a final decision on the number of airplanes that it will be possible for such a ship to carry, but it is known that it will be in excess of twenty.

OTHER NATIONS STIRRED

The designing of the ship has been carried on in secret and it was hoped that its adoption by the Navy Department could be brought about before the first of the type completed without the admiralties of other nations learning of the departure from conventional types of fighting ships planned by the United States. Some hint of what was afoot leaked out, however, with the result of stirring considerable excitement in the admiralties of Great Britain and Japan. So great is the interest aroused in the American plan that some naval officers hazarded the prediction that there will be competition among the naval powers in building the airplane-carrying cruisers as there was in battleships until the Washington conference, and in eight-inch-gun cruisers until the London conference.

There is also a hint in the reaction of London to the American plan that if the new type of ship should prove to be more aircraft carrier than cruiser, but still classed as a cruiser, the United States will be accused of violation of the terms of the London treaty.

MOFFETT'S IDEA

Rear-Admiral William A. Moffet, chief of the Bureau of Aeronautics, is the progenitor of the mystery ship. He has had it in mind ever since he went to the London conference as a technical adviser to the American delegation. At first he sought to obtain an increase in the limitation on aircraft carriers fixed by the Washington treaty at 135,000 tons. He failed in this but succeeded in preventing the reduction to 100,000 tons sought by the British. Then he tried to obtain a provision in the treaty allowing the installation of airplane landing decks on battleships and cruisers. The outcome was a provision allowing such platforms on 25 per cent of cruiser tonnage.

Inasmuch as the United States is allowed 323,500 tons of cruisers by the treaty, landing decks can be installed for more than 80,000 tons. Admiral Moffett immediately de-

Will Rogers Remarks:

SANTA MONICA, July 25. [To the Editor of The Times:] Well, the big news in the papers today was Congress appropriated some money for foreign embassies to entertain on, but for no liquid entertainment. Meat and bread and cigars up to 10 cents, and also flowers sent to dead countrymen, was allowable as a deduction. But if the ambassador has a little extra "embassing" he wants to put over and decides the fermented grape will be an asset, he has to make out his monthly swindle sheet as follows "Floral wreath sent to funeral of American who lost his life overestimating his capacity to celebrate the Fourth of July."

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

DEPRESSION CHARGED TO PESSIMISM

R.C.A.-Victor Company Puts 7000 to Work on Huge Production Program

CAMDEN (N. J.) July 25. (Exclusive)—Holding that the present depression is psychological and a false indication of the American public's buying power officials of the R.C.A.-Victor Company announced today that the corporation has added 7000 employees to its Camden plant force.

"If the pessimists will go back to work," President E. E. Shumaker said, in making the announcement, "they will realize that there is nothing fundamentally wrong with business or the country. People will spend more. We are going to proceed on that basis until we are convinced we are wrong."

A daily production of 9000 radio sets is the goal the company has set itself for sometime in August. The 7000 additional employees, 60 to 70 per cent of whom will be on a piece-work basis, will be divided among the various departments and will work the five-day, forty-hour week introduced at the plant four years ago.

Another prosperity note was supplied today by A. A. Masterson, treasurer of the American Chicle Company, who said that increasing orders have caused the company to engage a night force in its Long Island City (N. Y.) factory.

Ice Plant Yields Frozen Body

OAKLAND, July 25. (AP)—The frozen body of George H. Albadie, 26 years of age, was found today in one of the vats of an Oakland ice plant.

It is believed he fell into an ice container while filling it with water and drowned.

Eighty-five Per Cent Sign Up and Farm Board Now Will Finance Rehabilitation

Efforts Will be Continued to Enlist Remaining Group; Fresno Celebrates

FRESNO, July 25. (Exclusive)—The campaign to obtain contracts covering 85 per cent of the annual production of California vineyards, contingent on which the Federal Farm Board will finance a rehabilitation program for the fresh grape and raisin growers, has been successfully consummated, it was announced tonight by Wylie M. Giffen, chairman of the committee of fifty, which directed the campaign.

Giffen explained that his announcement is purely unofficial as a formal report of the results of the campaign must be made to C. C. Teague, Federal Farm Board member and sponsor of the program, after Mr. Teague arrives in San Francisco Monday from Washington. The decision as to the acceptance or rejection of the acreage signed and the putting into effect of the program, to purchase and remove from the markets surplus grapes will not be made until that time, he said.

DATA COMPILED

The auditing committee appointed by the Federal Farm Board, and consisting of H. R. Tolley of the University of California, E. E. Kaufman, statistician for the State Department of Agriculture, and Dr. Alonzo B. Taylor of Stanford University, is checking contracts and compiling data on the tonnage under contract for submission to Mr. Teague.

"The campaign is officially over and our objective of 85 per cent has been reached," Mr. Giffen said, "but we expect to pursue with a relentless purpose the people who have not yet signed contracts, because we believe it unfair for 15 per cent of the growers to profit by the efforts of the 85 per cent."

In view of the announcement that the campaign was successful, Fresno tonight engaged in a big celebration on the downtown streets that has been equaled only once before.

PLANS TO BE LAID

While details remain to be worked out, it is expected that the California Grape Control Board which will direct the new grape program will work through the five co-operative agencies which are part of the program, the California Fruit Exchange, the California Vineyardists' Association, Fruit Products, Inc., Sun-Maid Raisin Growers and the San Joaquin Valley Grower-Shipper Association.

The plan calls for the purchase of surplus grapes and raisins and their removal from the market.

Money to purchase the surplus will be loaned to the control board by the Federal Farm Board and will be paid back by grower members at the rate of $1.50 a ton fresh and $5.50 a ton dried.

Raisin packers including Sun-Maid will buy their sweat box raisin stocks from the California raisin pool, which will handle the dried tonnage.

LITHUANIAN EX-PREMIER BANISHED

Waldemaras Consigned to State-Owned Domain for Year as Dangerous Man

KOVNO (Lithuania) July 25. (AP) Augustine Waldemaras, former Premier and dictator, has been banished for one year to Krottingen, a state-owned domain, or large estate, because the Lithuanian government considered the former chief of government a "danger to public order and safety."

His wife, a French-born woman, and his nephew accompanied him into exile. The nephew is the young man who was wounded at Kovno in May, 1929, by a bomb intended for the then Premier.

The former dictator and "enfant terrible" of the League of Nations will be kept under close public supervision during his exile.

The government headed by Premier Juozas Tubelis wavered, it is understood, between interning Prof. Waldemaras and arresting him for high treason. It finally decided on banishing him because it concluded he is "physically abnormal."

Color was lent to the claim of abnormality by the former dictator's insistence he himself must sign the protocol of his banishment as "rightful Premier and Minister of Foreign Affairs."

HEAT WAVE IN ENCORE

Midwest Reports Six Deaths

Broiling Sun Starts Blaze That Razes Hangar in Airport at Elgin

CHICAGO, July 25. (Exclusive)—A fresh heat wave swelled across the Central States today. Temperatures ran between 90 and 100 deg. generally from Kansas to Illinois and as far north as Minnesota.

In Chicago the official thermometer at the University of Chicago soared to 96 at 4 p.m. One death in Chicago and two in East Chicago, Ind., were attributed to heart disease aggravated by the high temperatures. Oscar Johnson, 40 years of age, a waiter, died in his room at the Ironsides Hotel. The East Chicago victims were Victor Carrette, 47, former street commissioner of East Chicago, and Ira B. McMillan, 60, who dropped dead as he entered the plant of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company.

Spontaneous combustion generated by the broiling sun is believed to have started a fire which leveled the hangar of the Midwestern Aircraft Company just west of Elgin. One plane was destroyed and two were saved by Charles McBrian, manager of the hangar, assisted by two pilots. The blaze originated in a heap of greasy waste.

With a noon reading of 90 deg. in Milwaukee three deaths there were attributed partially to the heat. The mercury jumped above 90 in the Twin Cities and hovered around 90 over most of Iowa and Nebraska. Missouri enjoyed somewhat more moderate temperatures.

MISHAP CUTS WATER SUPPLY IN BALTIMORE

BALTIMORE, July 25. (AP)—In the midst of a drought said to be the greatest the city and much of the State have experienced in thirty years, the main pump of one city water station was out of commission today. Residents of the section affected were warned to conserve water until repairs are made, probably late today.

The temporary emergency occurred as five names were added to those whose deaths have been attributed by health authorities to the present heat wave. The total number of deaths from heat in the last week was listed as eleven.

Garment Retailers' Head Says Extreme Lengths Only for Paris Faddists

NEW YORK, July 25. (Exclusive) American women may set their minds at rest regarding the subject of skirt lengths. The present youthful lengths will remain throughout the fall and winter at least, according to Franklin Simon of New York. As president of the Garment Retailers of America Simon issued a statement today on behalf of the retail trade in the United States.

"Much misleading information has been coming from Paris correspondents recently," Mr. Simon declared. "This is due largely to the fact that at the various races a number of actresses and mannikins, as well as a few society women, have appeared in long skirts. Extremes of fashion always are paraded at the races, and also formal afternoon clothes are worn.

"But such styles in no way can be considered anything but an extreme fashion not at all suitable for daytime wear. They correspond to our idea of garden party clothes. There will be no radical changes during the summer from the fashions which American women have found so becoming, comfortable and graceful, as well as youthful. And even if Paris does launch a few extreme models, as is always the case, you will find that the majority of models will be wearable, with skirt lengths remaining exactly as they are now. These are the models which the American woman has found best suited to her needs."

Simon added that the leading New York and Chicago fashion shops and retail merchants as well as the leading Paris designers are absolutely agreed in this matter.

Rubber Growers May Limit Crop

BELASCO SNEERS AT TALKIES

Dean of Producers Celebrates Birthday With Defense of Stage Plays Against Theatrical Fads

ATLANTIC CITY (N. J.) July 25. (Exclusive)—Seventy-first, or seventy-seventh—whatever the number may be—David Belasco, dean of American stage producers, celebrated his birthday here today. With "Who's Who" setting forth his natal day as July 25, 1859, and other biographers putting the event anywhere from four to six years before that "Mr. David," as his intimates know him, merely twinkled his eyes when asked which date is right.

As in former years, the occasion was marked by an "old-fashioned" birthday party. Between spells of reading the scores of congratulatory messages, Belasco found time to comment on the present situation of the theater, the motion-picture industry in general and "talkies" in particular.

"Ever since I have been on or off the stage, and that is all my life," he said, "I have heard every so often that the theater was going to, if it hadn't already reached, the bow-wows," he said. "Such foolishness! The stage holds a greater interest now than it ever did. True, the play must have appeal, but a good play, well produced and presented, is drawing, has and always will, draw well.

"The talkies—they are impasse and will be a thing of the past, like other fads, freaks and curiosities within a few years. The silent picture had a rosy future, but the squawkies are doomed for the discard. Who ever preferred canned peas to nice fresh ones? It's the same way with talkies."

Belasco also emphasized that he does not contemplate retiring. "That will happen," he said, "when they carry me out of the theater feet first. I have too many dreams, too many ambitions, to even think of it."

United States Ranks Second in Shipbuilding

WASHINGTON, July 25. (AP)—Marked gains in shipbuilding in the United States during the second quarter of this year have resulted in ranking this country second only to Great Britain in merchant vessels under construction.

A compilation announced by the Commerce Department today fixed the total gross tonnage of merchant shipping under construction in the United States the 1st inst. at 238,163 tons, against 119,000 tons at the same time last year. Estimates are that the construction under way in the United States then was 7.8 per cent of all the shipbuilding going on in the world.

Britain's Budget Bill Goes to King

LONDON, July 25. (AP)—Great Britain's budget bill calling for expenditures of almost $4,000,000,000 passed third reading in the House of Commons today by a vote of 223 to 185 and now goes to the King for his signature.

Sir L. Worthington-Evans, Conservative, led the opposition by moving rejection of the bill, saying it imposes heavy additional taxation at a time when lightening the burden is necessary for the recovery of industry.

FIVE KILLED IN MEXICAN AIR CRASH

Army Planes Collide and Four Flyers and Civilian, Latter on Ground, Die

MEXICO CITY, July 25. (AP)—Less than a mile from the crowded center of Mexico City, two army airplanes collided today and crashed to the ground. Four military aviators and a civilian, who was playing handball below, were killed. One of the aviators jumped with a parachute, but it failed to open. His body was buried in the soil.

Both planes, colliding as one was descending and the other going up from Valbuena Field, fell on the cement handball court of the Carranza Athletic Field. Their wreckage ripped off a foot of thick cement wall between two adjacent courts.

An unidentified peon who was playing handball as the plane fell had no chance to escape, but the man with whom he was playing miraculously got from under the falling wreckage.

The accident occurred near the end of the morning's practice in flying formation at the field.

The dead aviators were Capt. Paul Mujica and Lieuts. Humberto Enrique Salcedos, Napoleon Fernandez Rojo and Pablo Caso Lopa.

Indian Women Just Sit and Sit

CALCUTTA (India) July 26. (Saturday) (AP)—Sixty women volunteers of the civil disobedience campaign this morning were emulating in the main streets of Calcutta the "endurance sitters" in the United States.

In defiance of the police, who had refused them permission to parade, they sat down in the street at 5 p.m. Friday and had not budged an inch at 3 o'clock this morning. During their ten-hour vigil they were surrounded by police.

NEW SHOCKS ROCK ITALY

No Casualties Reported

Buildings Weakened Earlier Damaged by Temblors; Five Registered

Government's Official List Places Disaster Toll as 1883 Dead, 4264 Hurt

POTENZA (Italy) July 25. (AP)—Five new earthquake shocks were felt today in the zone devastated by Wednesday's upheaval. They damaged many weakened buildings, but no injuries or loss of life from them were reported.

Two shocks occurred about 10 a.m., and three other brief ones followed at about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. They were felt throughout the whole wasted district.

In Melfi, one of the communities that suffered worst, the Pacchioli Palace crumbled. Many houses developed large and dangerous fissures.

KING MAKES TOUR OF DEVASTATED AREA

ROME, July 25. (AP)—Help for the stricken population of quake-torn Southern Italy was pouring into the devastated region today as the Italian government threw every resource into relief measures.

King Victor Emmanuel himself, who had started for the scene as soon as the gravity of Wednesday's shocks was realized, reached Rochetta in the Province of Avellino, which suffered heaviest of all in the earth convulsions.

The Monarch went to inspect the relief work in progress and to take comfort to his subjects. With him were various officials who are actively engaged in the work of aiding the injured and sheltering the thousands of homeless. He traveled over the area by automobile and planned to visit other stricken towns.

POPE'S ENVOY TOURS

Mgr. Spirito Chiapetta, a special envoy of the Pope, started a tour of the region and reached Benevento, which also suffered heavily in the disaster.

The exact number of dead in the great quake was still somewhat obscure tonight and the government was compiling a detailed account which will be made public as soon as possible.

The latest government figures place the number of dead at 1883 with the injured at 4264.

Of these by far the largest number of victims were in the Province of Avellino where the government reported 1607 lives lost.

Reports were received quoting Gen. Baistrocchi, commanding the Neapolitan zone, as placing the number of dead in Avellino at 2573, but this was denied tonight in a communique issued by the Stefani News Agency.

DEATH LISTS INCOMPLETE

The communique stated the Ministry of the Interior was announcing "with scrupulous precision the number of assured dead which is reported to the ministry by the authorities on the spot who have the general direction of and responsibility for relief service. There is no motive for not telling the exact truth about the number of dead."

The government's figures of 1883 dead were qualified by the statement they might undergo change as the final reports were received. When a complete list of victims is possible, it will be communicated complete.

HOOVER CABLES MESSAGE OF SYMPATHY

WASHINGTON, July 25. (AP)—President Hoover today cabled King Victor Emmanuel of Italy his personal sympathy and that of the American people for the losses suffered in the earthquake in Italy.

"The people of the United States join me in extending to Your Majesty and to the people of Italy sincerest sympathy in the great losses suffered in the earthquake which has brought such widespread destruction in the vicinity of Naples," the President's message said.

PRIEST SAYS FORD AIDS REDS

Congressional Committee Told Auto Magnate's Actions Set Workers Against Capitalists

DETROIT, July 25. (AP)—A Detroit priest characterized Henry Ford as an unconscious cause of the spread of Communism, in testimony given here today before the Congressional committee investigating Communistic activity in the United States. The statement was made by Rev. Father Charles E. Coughlin, pastor of the Shrine of the Little Flower, who was called before the committee because of his series of radio addresses on Communism.

The Congressional committee arrived here from New York today and opened its hearings. It is taking up Communistic activities in Michigan.

Representative Fish of New York, chairman of the committee, asked Father Coughlin for an explanation of his statement.

Father Coughlin said Ford is "the greatest force in the movement to internationalize labor throughout the world."

"A year ago, on the eve of the automobile show in New York," the witness continued, "Mr. Ford issued a statement that was printed on the front page of every daily newspaper in the United States that he required 30,000 more workers at his plant in Detroit.

"As a result of that statement more than 30,000 men, who were out of work, flocked to Detroit from Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, Texas and other southern States, and while the weather was at zero stood in front of the Ford plant trying to get those jobs. There were no jobs for them and the only redress they had was to have the fire hose turned on them to drive them away."

Father Coughlin stated he believes actions such as this at the manufacturing plant of a leading capitalist tend to embitter laborers against all capitalists and causes them to listen to the teachings of Communists.

"Getting all those men here in that manner was not done on purpose, was it?" Chairman Fish asked.

"No. It was done through ignorance," Father Coughlin replied, "just as the peace ship was sent to Europe through ignorance."

Father Coughlin added that Ford's money is helping the soviet government in Russia, and referred

Scientists' and Physicians' Verdicts Fruitless

Chicago Couple Remain in Doubt About Babes

Health Official Throws Up Hands in Despair

CHICAGO, July 25. (AP)—The Bamberger-Watkins baby case is more mixed up today than ever.

Yesterday a jury of scientists decreed the two 3-weeks-old infants had been correctly tagged at birth but confused in the hospital and that the Charles Bamberger heir was in the William Watkins home and vice versa.

Watkins accepted the verdict but Bamberger did not.

Later a jury of physicians declared the offspring were in the right homes but with their labels confused. Later the Watkins and the Bambergers were reported to have agreed. Each couple took back home the youngster they had been caring for all along.

But today Watkins, haggard and unshaven, asserted the Watkins household has not agreed to anything—either the scientists' decision that they have the wrong baby or the physicians' that they have the right one.

The Bambergers, however, are right where they were from the beginning when this thing came up—they are certain they have a young Bamberger.

City Health Commissioner Kegel, who undertook to play the role of a modern Solomon in this matter, and called in fingerprint experts, university professors and doctors, announced he is through with the whole thing.

John Loughnane, attorney for both the Bambergers and Watkins, announced he will get out a writ of injunction against the health commissioner if the latter should take any steps to force the parents to switch youngsters.

NURSE SAYS TITLED FLYER INCOMPETENT

Lady Mary Heath

AIR MISHAP DIMS MIND OF AVIATRIX

Nurse Asks Court Order Appointing Her Guardian of Lady Mary Heath

CLEVELAND, July 25. (AP)—Lady Mary Heath, celebrated Irish aviatrix who was seriously injured in an airplane crash here eleven months ago, was asserted today to be "incompetent by reason of mental disorders" in an application for appointment as her guardian filed in Probate Court by her nurse and companion, Miss Florence Madden.

The application revealed that Lady Mary entered the Delhurst Sanatorium at Mentor Thursday for treatment. Members of the sanatorium staff said she is suffering chiefly from a nervous condition which appeared to be the result of her injuries in the accident.

Lady Mary suffered a fractured skull when her plane crashed into the top of a building while she was testing it to enter the National Air Races. An unusually delicate operation saved her life but she was unconscious several weeks.

The petition filed by Miss Madden said Lady Mary is no longer able properly to take care of herself and her property, consisting of a trust fund from which she receives an annual income of $3500.

Since her release from a hospital here last October Lady Mary and Miss Madden have been living together, part of the time in Reno, Nev., where Lady Mary obtained a divorce from her 76-year-old husband, Sir James Heath. The decree was granted May 4.

BROMLEY'S SHIP BEING DISMANTLED

Tokio-Flight Plane in Padlocked Seattle Hangar and Mystery Unexplained

TACOMA (Wash.) July 25. (AP)—The City of Tacoma, monoplane purchased by John Buffelen, Tacoma financier, in which Lieut. Harold Bromley was planning a flight from Tacoma to Tokio was flown to Seattle tonight, placed in a hangar at Boeing Field and work of dismantling it was begun.

The hangar was under padlock and heavy guard. Deputy sheriffs strode around the hangar, denying everyone entrance.

Bromley, Harold Gatty, who was to be his navigator; Charles F. Rocheville, designer of the plane in the Emsco factory in California, and L. W. Paxton, motor expert, flew the plane to Seattle. All refused to explain the move.

Buffelen, although asserting he was unaware of what the four were doing with the plane, said he does not believe Bromley or anyone else can make a flight to Tokio in it, or can fly from Tokio to Tacoma in it.

"The plane was supposed to make a certain speed," he said. "It did not do so. I told the designer that it would have to make the necessary speed or I would not let anybody make a flight to Tokio in it."

MEXICO CITY, July 25. (AP)—Mark S. Lulinsky of New York, an American citizen representing the Amtorg Trading Corporation, was held in a hotel under heavy guard today while officials examined confiscated papers seized in his room a week ago.

Authorities said they suspect Lulinsky of being in the pay of the soviet government to spread Communist propaganda in Mexico but Lulinsky replied he is not a Communist and is here to clean up business affairs for Amtorg following the recent closing of the soviet legation and commercial relations after the Russian representative had been expelled from Mexico.

TEXANS CASTING BALLOTS TODAY

Bolting Democrats to Have Chance for Vindication

Eleven Names in Primary Gubernatorial Line-up

'Ma' Ferguson Among Them, Attempting 'Comeback'

DALLAS (Tex.) July 25. (AP)—Texas Democrats who left the party two years ago to vote for Herbert Hoover for President tomorrow will be given a chance to return to the fold or vindicate the bolt that gave the State's electoral votes to a Republican Presidential nominee for the first time in history.

Senator Love of Dallas, one of the eleven candidates for the party's nomination for Governor, pitched his campaign for favor in tomorrow's primary on his leading a revolt within the party in 1928 against the Democratic nominee, former Gov. Smith of New York. He designated himself the only "anti-Tammany" candidate in the race.

"MA" FERGUSON RUNNING

Texas's first woman Governor, Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, defeated for re-election four years ago, also is attempting a "comeback."

Jim Young of Kaufman, former Representative, leader of the regular Democrats in the memorable Smith-Hoover controversy, is one of Love's opponents.

Although he has two opponents for renomination, United States Senator Shephard has not made an active campaign. He returned to Texas a few days ago, after adjournment of the Senate. He is opposed by R. L. Henry of Houston, former Representative, advocating repeal of the prohibition amendment, and C. A. Mitchner of Sherwood, farmer.

RUN-OFF PRIMARY LIKELY

It seems to be a foregone conclusion the Democrats will be required to hold a run-off primary August 23, next, to choose between the two highest candidates for the principal State offices.

In addition to Love, Mrs. Ferguson and Young, the candidates for Governor are Ross S. Sterling of Houston, chairman of the State Highway Commission; Barry Miller of Dallas, three times Lieutenant-Governor; Earle B. Mayfield of Austin, former United States Senator; Clint C. Small of Wellington, State Senator; Frank Putnam of Houston, C. E. Walker of Grapevine, C. C. Moody of Fort Worth, a laundry wagon driver, and Paul Loven of New Braunfels.

ANOTHER OF PIONEER AIR GROUP GONE

Chance Vought, Dead at 42 Years of Age, Among Curtiss Associates

NEW YORK, July 25. (AP)—Chance Vought, aircraft manufacturer and designer, died today in the Southampton (Long Island) Hospital after a long illness. He was 42 years of age.

Vought was one of the "early birds" of aviation, a contemporary of Glenn Curtiss, who died two days ago, of the Wright brothers, Lieut. Thomas Selfridge and other pioneers who flew the old "box kites" of twenty years ago.

He was the designer of many fighting planes and developer of the first standardized planes capable of withstanding the stresses of "shooting" from catapults on floating aircraft carriers. At the time of his death he was president of the Lewis & Vought Corporation, which he organized and which became this year a division of the United Aircraft and Transportation Company.

His wife, the former Ena Lewis of Pittsburgh, and their two sons, Chance, Jr., and Peter, were at the bedside when he died. The funeral probably will be conducted Monday.

Every business activity in this village was halted during the funeral.

Louisville Motorman Has to Get Doctor's Help In Closing Jaws

LOUISVILLE (Ky.) July 25. (AP)—Motorman William A. Ellingsworth of the street-car company here today claims the yawning endurance championship of something or other.

Motorman Ellingsworth yawned while piloting a street car yesterday, and held up traffic for eight minutes. Surprised passengers watched the motorman stop the car, dismount and go galloping into a drug store, his mouth wide open.

It took a doctor and volunteer helpers several minutes to get Mr. Ellingsworth's jaws together.

German Aviatrix Had Just Taken Off at Templehof When Plane Crashes

BERLIN, July 25. (AP)—Thea Rasche, Germany's flying fraulein, was injured today when her plane crashed en route from Templehof to Warnemuende. The plane fell from a height of 120 feet and was wrecked.

The aviatrix had just taken off when something went wrong with her plane.

Observers on the Templehof field said the girl flyer probably went into a sudden gust of wind which threw the plane off balance while it was rising. Her injuries are said to be slight.

NAVY PLANNING MYSTERY SHIP

cided to ask the general board to approve the construction of eight six-inch gun cruisers carrying airplanes and set his draftsmen at work on designs.

GUNS TO BE FEWER

Under the treaty the United States can build at least seven or eight more six-inch gun ships of nearly 10,000 tons displacement each. If each were a conventional cruiser it would carry twelve six-inch guns. It will be necessary to reduce the number of guns to accommodate the airplane landing deck and the present intention is to provide six or nine guns. If there were less than six guns other nations doubtless would claim that the ship was an aircraft carrier, not a cruiser and therefore chargeable to the aircraft carrier allowance.

It will be urged in behalf of the Moffett plan that the aircraft carrying cruiser would be a formidable commerce raider. It could keep out of gun range of even eight-inch gun convoy cruisers and dispatch airplanes to bomb the merchantmen. The power to launch such long-distance attacks, it is argued, would go far to offset the lack of outlying naval bases by the United States.

The Navy also is undertaking tests to ascertain the feasibility of equipping destroyers and submarines with aircraft, which, if successful, will mean that every fighting ship will carry at least one airplane.

An airplane to be folded and stowed away inside a submarine is under construction.

EGYPT FACED BY NEW CRISIS

Wafdists Announce Refusal to Pay Taxes

Nonco-operation Movement to be Like Gandhi's

Nationalist Deputies Have Secret Session

CAIRO (Egypt) July 26 (Saturday) (AP)—The Egyptian government faced a new crisis today when Nahas Pasha, Wafdist (Nationalist) leader, announced a non-co-operation movement to start immediately with the nonpayment of taxes.

Nationalist Deputies early this morning conducted a secret so-called "session of Parliament" and passed a motion of nonconfidence in the government of Premier Ismail Sidky Pasha.

KING DEFIED

The meeting was convened in defiance of King Fuad and the government. They met under the presidency of Abdel Salaam Fahmy, vice-president of the Chamber of Deputies, which has been adjourned by order of the King.

It was after the meeting that Nahas Pasha, former Premier, announced the Nationalists will start a nonco-operation movement, beginning with refusal to pay taxes, much in the same fashion as Mahatma Gandhi did in the Indian civil disobedience campaign.

PETITION TO KING

The Deputies read and approved a petition to King Fuad asking him to convene a special session of Parliament.

The Wafdist executive announced that no further demonstrations will be held today. They regard their secret session, held shortly after midnight, as carrying out their threat to hold a session of Parliament in defiance of King and Cabinet, and have abandoned their project of holding a session in the Parliament buildings.

As King Fuad had not replied to their petition for a session, this morning's meeting will almost certainly be regarded as illegal and defiant.

PULPWOOD BAN BLOW TO REDS

Treasury Prohibits Import of Russian Product

Convict Labor Employed in Loading of Vessels

Purchase by International Paper Company Hit

WASHINGTON, July 25. (AP)—The Treasury today prohibited importation from Russia of pulpwood purchased by the International Paper Company on the ground that convict labor had entered into its production.

Assistant Secretary Lowman said evidence in the hands of the Treasury is that convict labor had been used in loading the pulpwood on ships at Archangel. The reports, he said, describe the condition of the convicts and the shooting of three of them because they stole bread from one of the pulpwood ships.

The action was taken under a tariff law provision which prohibits the entry of goods produced wholly or in part by convict labor. The customs service recently denied entry to two shiploads of Russian lumber, but Lowman admitted it after the government failed to show it had been produced by convict labor.

Lowman said general orders have been wired to customs collectors along the Atlantic seaboard to prevent the entry of pulpwood from Russia.

He said so far the reports on convict labor deal only with pulpwood.

HOOVER'S GRIP DEMONSTRATED

Huston's Plan to Quit Hailed as Presidential Victory

Way Now Cleared to Revise Committee's Make-up

Fess to be Nominal Head and Lucas to Do Work

BY LAURENCE M. BENEDICT
"Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 25. (Exclusive)—Claudius H. Huston's announcement that he will resign August 7, next, as chairman of the Republican National Committee today cleared the Republican party atmosphere and paved the way for reorganization of the national committee along the lines desired by President Hoover.

The development marks another victory for the President and supplies fresh proof that when the necessity arises Mr. Hoover can take party matters in hand and direct them to his liking. There is scarcely any doubt but that at last night's White House conference he made a straight out request, tantamount to a demand, that Mr. Huston relinquish the post to which he has been clinging with such tenacity in the face of an almost universal feeling among national Republican leaders that he ought to retire for the good of the party.

ACTION IMPERATIVE

From all indications, President Hoover, who had been extremely loath to ask his old friend to resign, saw at last that he would have to do that if Huston was ever to be pried loose, and, having come to that conclusion, lost no time to exercising his authority under which he made Huston chairman and could fire him.

The call for a meeting of the executive committee of the national committee to receive Huston's resignation was issued from national headquarters today over Huston's signature. It made no mention of the Congressional elections and expressed the hope there will be a full attendance of the twenty-one members.

Unless present plans are changed Senator Fess of Ohio will be chosen national chairman at the meeting two weeks hence, with the understanding he will serve in a sort of figure-head or advisory capacity and that the real work of directing party affairs will fall on Robert H. Lucas of Kentucky, present Commissioner of Internal Revenue, as executive secretary.

SALARY TO BE SAME

Lucas is expected to resign shortly from the government service and in recognition of the fact he is not a wealthy man, the new job being created in the party organization will carry a salary of $15,000, the same as his present salary. He will function for the Republicans in much the same manner as Jouett Shouse is looking after the Democratic campaign machinery.

A new secretary of the Republican National Committee will be named to take the place of Representative Fort of New Jersey, and there are several candidates for this post. Senator Baird of New Jersey has been strongly boomed, and another aspirant is J. J. Hopkins of New York, who in 1928 managed the Ettinger gubernatorial campaign in New York State and the Vice-Presidential movement of Representative Tilson at the Kansas City convention.

Joseph R. Nutt of Cleveland will retain his position as treasurer and after the August 7 meeting will immediately set about financing the coming Congressional campaign. His task at gathering funds has been difficult to date because of the Huston mess, but with a new chairman coming in he anticipates no trouble in getting a sufficient war chest to see the party through the critical contest for control of Congress.

PRESIDENT APPROVES MIDSHIPMEN'S OUSTER

WASHINGTON, July 25. (AP)—President Hoover today approved the recommendations for the dismissal from the Naval Academy of L. L. Myatt of Quincy, Mass., and Miller S. Burgin of San Antonio, Tex., and the bureau of navigation forwarded the necessary orders to the academy. The dismissal was recommended by Admiral Robison, superintendent of the academy, after they had taken two girls into the dormitories and mess hall at the academy.

Miss Stourton's Noble Kin Expected to Turn Thumbs Down on Match

LONDON, July 25. (Exclusive)—The Stourton family of England is expected to turn thumbs down on the proposed marriage of Miss Gytha Stourton to Fiorvanti Del-Agnese, former butler at the British Embassy in Washington, when she arrives to plead for her family's blessing on the match.

The romance, which sprouted when Miss Stourton was social secretary to Lady Isabella Howard, wife of the former British Ambassador, and Del-Agnese was major-domo of the Embassy, became known to the public a few days ago when Miss Stourton sailed from New York on the Samaria for England.

Miss Stourton, being descended from a long line of distinguished nobility, including the Dukes of Norfolk, and her family being a member of the oldest surviving barony in England, news of the romance created a stir in social circles here. The decision of her father, Maj. Herbert Stourton, and other members of the family, is awaited with interest. They are known to be strongly opposed to the alliance.

PRESIDENT FACES NEW PROBLEMS

Hoover Drops Old Woes to Take Up Questions of District of Columbia

ORANGE (Va.) July 25. (AP)—The tariff, the naval treaty and other national and international affairs that have occupied the mind of President Hoover for many months were temporarily laid aside today as he studied District of Columbia problems at his lodge in the Blue Ridge Mountains.

Taking with him four leaders in the district government, the Chief Executive expected to inquire into matters pertaining to the district, with particular stress upon the budget for 1931.

For months he has been unable to give more than passing attention to these questions and before leaving for his summer vacation next month he wished to acquaint himself with them.

Seventeen guests accompanied President and Mrs. Hoover, including Senator and Mrs. Baird of New Jersey, who returned this week from a wedding trip abroad, and Mrs. Stark McMullin of Palo Alto, Cal.

TOADSTOOLS FATAL TO TWO STARVING GIRLS

ROCHESTER (N. Y.) July 25. (AP)—Toadstools gathered to supplement the slender food supply of the almost penniless family of a disabled and unemployed World War veteran today caused the death of two girls. The father, Patsy Purno, the only other member of the family of six to partake of the poisonous fungi, is recovering.

ELEVEN SUITORS BATTLE AS DAMSEL EGGS 'EM ON

HAMMOND (Ind.) July 25. (AP) The swains of pretty Charlotte Seidenstopp, 18 years of age, and red-headed, turned out to be a riot.

Either Charlotte got her dates mixed or her eleven suitors did, for they all showed up to escort her home from work. The young woman, desiring to be absolutely fair and impartial, hit upon the idea of having the eleven young men fight it out for her favor. She suggested something along the line of a battle royal, with swains fighting en masse, the survivor to see her home.

The swains went to work, biff, bing, crash.

Police Captain Carlson heard the telephone ring at his elbow at police headquarters. An excited voice informed him a grand riot was in progress.

The captain and two squads of trusty aides got there in a hurry. The swains were mixing it fast and furious. In a minute night sticks were tapping youthful heads.

Twelve persons were taken to jail, the twelfth being Miss Charlotte.

Nine of the eleven suitors were fined $1 and costs each in court today, while Charlotte and her other two admirers were dismissed.

MEXICO'S DEBT FUNDING SIGNED

Agreement Made at Office of J. P. Morgan & Co.

Total Federal and Railway Obligation $513,000,000

Reorganization of National Lines Provided For

NEW YORK, July 25. (AP)—An agreement for the refunding of Mexico's foreign debt, both government and railway, was signed today at the offices of J. P. Morgan & Co. It was subject to the approval of the Mexican Congress and the bondholders.

The plan calls for the refunding of the present total debts of about $513,000,000 into $492,000,000 in obligations bearing 5 per cent interest. It also provides for a substantial reduction in interest arrears which in the case of the direct debt now amount to roughly $200,000,000. The extent of this reduction was not announced. In addition, the railways, now insolvent, would be reorganized.

The present principal of the government's debt is $274,000,000, which would be cut to $267,000,000. The railways' obligations total about $239,000,000 and would be pared to $225,000,000.

The government would guarantee the new funded debt, for which the old bonds would be exchanged, with a lien on customs revenues.

LONG DISCUSSION

Discussions of the agreement had been in progress for several weeks among Luis Montes De Oca, Mexican Finance Minister, and an international committee of bankers, headed by Thomas W. Lamont of the Morgan firm, representing Great Britain, France, Germany, Switzerland and Belgium.

A statement issued by Mr. De Oca and Mr. Lamont, who signed the agreement, said that both the minister and the members of the committee "have no hesitation in declaring that the settlement is one that, all circumstances considered, is creditable to the government and fair to the bondholders."

The statement continued that the international committee had "taken adequate account of Mexico's present and future economy, of its capacity of payment and of the other obligations which make up the national public debt; that is to say, of internal obligations, to the fulfillment of which the government attaches as much importance as that of foreign obligations."

TERM EXTENDED

The agreement recommends facilities be extended to Mexico for the resumption of service on its foreign debt through the reduction of arrears in interest and the extension of the term of payment to forty-five years. Payment to cover both sinking fund and interest charges on the new refunding 5 per cent bonds will amount to $15,000,000, beginning in 1936, although from 1931 to that date the amount will be $12,500,000. The sinking fund will be operative next year.

The statement declared the status of the National Railways Company may be considered "as one of insolvency." It was deemed advisable, it said, to accept the plan proposed by the Mexican government of reorganizing the present company through the formation of a new one in accordance with Mexican laws.

It has been considered necessary, the statement went on, to reduce the company's obligations through the reduction of the arrears of interest, according to the same method adopted for the direct debt.

DEVELOPMENT FUND

"Through the renunciation by the bond-holders of part of the interest payable during the next five years there will be made available a sum of more than $25,000,000 for additions and betterments which are important in order to enable the company to operate with economy.

"The existing debt will be consolidated in a new issue secured by a general mortgage to bear interest at a rate of 5 per cent and payable in forty-five years, regular amortization to begin in 1931.

"It is planned to refund all indebtedness now existing, such as floating obligations."

All claims and demands between the government and the company will be canceled.

The plan provides that both the government and the railways may make new bond issues in the future provided interest in the debt covered by the agreement is being maintained.

Fifteen issues of government bonds are now outstanding, the oldest dating back to 1885 and the youngest to 1913. The bonds are held largely in the United States, France, Switzerland, Germany, Belgium, Holland and Great Britain.

RADIO ORATOR'S BIER ENSHRINED

Thousands in Detroit Pay Buckley Tribute

Man and Woman Held in Shooting Inquiry

Prosecutor Says Slaying of Victim Predicted

DETROIT, July 25. (AP)—Thousands of men, women and children today and tonight paid their tribute to Jerry Buckley, slain radio orator, walking past his bier in the living-room of his home.

This spontaneous procession, which started last night, grew throughout the day and showed no signs of diminishing as the hour for closing the home approached. Police estimated the crowd at 50,000 or more. The family announced no visitors would be received after midnight, when preparations begin for the funeral tomorrow morning at St. Gregory's Catholic Church.

In the meanwhile police were holding a man and a woman whom they consider important figures in the investigation of the killing. The man is Jack Klein, motion-picture operator, who was sitting beside Buckley in the lobby of the La Salle Hotel when he was killed by gunmen early Wednesday morning a short time after he had completed announcing the results of the mayoralty recall election over station WMBC, where he was political commentator.

The woman's name was not revealed. County Prosecutor Chenot, said that he is seeking through her a man she said intimated to her in advance that Buckley would be killed.

Another woman, Miss Jeanne Alexander, a singer, was questioned briefly.

In the crowd that visited Buckley's home were many persons who had been aided by him during an extensive radio campaign last winter on behalf of the unemployed.

BOWLES REGIME'S "BACKBONE" RESIGNS

DETROIT, July 25. (AP)—The man who was regarded as the backbone of the repudiated administration of Mayor Charles Bowles eliminated himself from the political affairs of the city today with a frank admission that it was impossible for him to win the confidence of the people.

This development—the resignation from office and from political activity of John Gillespie, Commissioner of Public Works—came during a tense week which had seen the voters recall their Mayor from office and had seen one of the administration's bitterest critics, Jerry Buckley, radio orator, shot to death by gunmen.

Gillespie went out of office twenty-four hours after another member of the Mayor's cabinet, Police Commissioner Wilcox, had junked the Bowles policy of dealing with vice, restored responsibility to precinct inspectors and sent out squads with axes to wreck dozens of speakeasies and resorts.

HISTORIC CRUISERS TO BE SOLD

Huntington and St. Louis, Which Convoyed Troops During War, Now Obsolete

WASHINGTON, July 25. (AP)—Two obsolete cruisers which convoyed American soldiers overseas and one of which prevented the war-time destruction of port facilities in Honolulu are to be sold to the highest bidders.

The Navy announced today bids will be received August 7, next, for the historic cruisers, the Huntington, formerly the West Virginia, and the St. Louis.

Both vessels safely escorted merchantmen and troop transports through many miles of dangerous waters during the war, but the 10,500-ton St. Louis, which, with others of its type, is being replaced by more modern and faster cruisers of about the same size, figured in a more spectacular affair.

The German gunboat Geier was interned in Honolulu. The crew of the St. Louis saw smoke billowing from the hold of the gunboat and a boarding party from the cruiser found shrapnel fuses scattered about and a fire of oil-soaked waste and wood underneath a dry boiler.

Within a few minutes the boiler would have burst, exploding ammunition aboard and spreading fire, shells and splinters of metal about the harbor.

The crew of the St. Louis threw lines across the gunboat and warped her to a pier, where chemicals extinguished the blaze after an all-day fight.

GRAIN RATES CUT ORDERED

I.C.C. Edict to be Effective Throughout West

Reduction Will Lower Rail Earnings $15,000,000

New Schedules to Go Into Force on October 1

WASHINGTON, July 25. (AP)—A general reduction in grain rates throughout western territory and to principal seaports was ordered today by the Interstate Commerce Commission, to become effective October 1.

Members of the commission estimated the application of the new schedules will reduce earnings of western railroads by $15,000,000 or more per year, but that some of this had been compensated for by recently granted increases in classified freight rates.

A new method of making schedules, described as "the ratebreak basis," was prescribed for the railroads to follow. This rate form was sought by the business interests of nearly all the great western primary grain market cities.

HOW SYSTEM WORKS

Under the new system one rate will apply on wheat and other grain and grain products such as flour and meal. The commisison considered proposals to establish a system of export rates definitely lower than the schedules applying to domestic shipments but rejected it and left the present relationship between export and domestic rates substantially unchanged.

While on the whole substantial reductions are expected to result from the application of the decision, some wheat rates from North Dakota were increased as were rates on other types of grain from North Dakota and Minnesota to principal markets.

SPECIAL INQUIRY

The findings were entered at the conclusion of a special investigation instituted after the adoption of the Hoch-Smith Congressional resolution ordering the commission to apply the lowest rates to products of agriculture affected by depression, but the decision was careful to state that its findings resulted from an endeavor to perform its general duty of prescribing reasonable rates.

It added that the exact consequences of its new schedules are impossible to foretell in advance and that "in the light of increased revenues already granted in certain other cases" to western railroads the grain reductions "will not threaten the maintenance of an adequate system of transportation."

CALIFORNIA RATES

Among specific new rates in more important wheat producing and handling territory as compared with existing schedules are:

From California producing points to San Francisco reductions were ordered ranging up to 25 per cent and similar changes were indicated to Los Angeles.

To the Pacific Coast from Eastern Colorado the wheat rate will become 53 cents against 59.

MARRIAGE RIGHT DEFENDED

Wish of Princess Amadee to Wed Alfonso's Cousin Argued Before French Court

PARIS, July 25. (AP)—The desire of 72-year-old Princess Amadee De Broglie to marry 42-year-old Don Luis De Bourbon, son of the Infanta Eulalia of Spain and cousin of King Alfonso, was the subject of pleading before the tribunal of the Seine today.

Henri Torres, specialist in defending Communist agitators, appeared for the aristocratic Princess. He pleaded that she be granted the same right possessed by others; namely, to seek happiness wherever she sees it, no matter what her age.

Maitre Aubepin, head of the Order of Advocates of Paris, defended the suit of the Princess's family, represented by her nephew, the Duke of Brissac, and pleaded the Princess was mentally unsound and asked the court to name a council of three doctors to examine her.

Aubepin argued that the fact that the Princess considers marriage with Don Lius, a discredited Prince who was barred from France for misconduct, is enough to show she is unbalanced.

The decision of the court will be handed down tomorrow afternoon.

A statement of the Princess, made through her attorney in response to the charges of her family, created a considerable stir. It said: "I realize that many persons think my marriage with this much-younger man ridiculous, but I want to spend a few happy years before I die."

Attorney Torres in his argument asserted the Princess had known Don Luis for eighteen years. Twelve years ago, when her husband died, he said, Paris society gossiped a great deal about the two, but the Princess decided then her duty was to devote herself to raising her two orphaned grandchildren properly.

He argued Princess Amadee now feels justified in seeking to be happy in her own way during the last years of her life.

It developed during the trial that the administrator appointed by the court after a family council held July 7 had recently seized the Princess's jewels, which were valued at $120,000.

HEAVIER PENALTIES ADVOCATED

Fresno Courts Urged to be Stricter With Traffic Act Violators

FRESNO, July 25. (Exclusive)—Urging that Fresno courts impose heavier penalties upon violators of the Motor Vehicle Act as one step in a campaign to reduce automobile accidents, the Fresno Citizens' Safety Committee today recommended that the City Commission conduct a campaign to educate all motorists concerning State and local traffic regulations.

The local courts are too lenient with motor-law violators, with the result that the violators do not receive the lesson they should from their arrest for infractions, members of the committee said.

The session was devoted to discussion of penal action, education, establishment of pedestrian lanes and safety zones, and standardization of automatic traffic control devices, as some of the means of reducing the traffic toll in death, injury and property damage.

It was suggested that standardization of automatic traffic-control devices throughout the State would aid materially in reducing traffic hazards in that it would obviate confusion of motorists in passing through communities where they are not acquainted with the traffic regulations.

Bootleggers in Bakersfield Pay for Activities

BAKERSFIELD, July 25.—Local bootleggers paid heavily for their efforts to quench the thirst of an arid populace during the twelve months' period ending June 30, last, according to the annual report of Police Judge John W. Frye.

Prohibition enforcement fines levied in the city magistrate's court during the fiscal year enriched the treasury by $12,425, a sum approximating 45 per cent of the entire revenue derived through the Police Court.

The total fines collected during the year reached $25,335.60 and an additional $3168 was paid by city prisoners who served portions of jail sentences, then paid out the balance of their days in dollars.

INJUNCTION ORDERS HOTEL TO BAR RUM

NEW YORK, July 25. (AP)—An injunction restraining the management and employees of the Paramount Hotel from violation of the prohibition laws was issued today by Federal Judge Knox, but he declined to order the dining-rooms padlocked. The judge denied the padlock request, he said, in the interests of creditors, to whom approximately $1,000,000 is due. The hotel has passed through receivership since the asserted violations in 1929.

RANCH DEAL ANNOUNCED IN DISPATCH

Adohr Stock Farms Buys 1500 Acres from Miller & Lux at Buttonwillow

BAKERSFIELD, July 25.—One of the largest real-estate transactions in this county in recent years is reported today, involving the sale of large portions of the Buttonwillow ranch of the Miller & Lux Co. to the Adohr Stock Farms. The dispatch, from San Francisco, reports the sale of 1500 acres of land for $250,000. Miller & Lux representative in this city, Lester Houchin, replied that he could neither affirm nor deny it.

The area purchased by the Adohr stock farms will be improved immediately, a sum of $50,000 having been designated for this purpose, according to the dispatch.

A water storage district has been created for land in the territory containing the Buttonwillow ranch, and extensive improvements in the way of irrigation ditches and laterals are contained in the development plan of the directors.

Varied farming on small acreages has been a recent development of the Buttonwillow district with the creation of the water storage district.

Extensive grain plantings in the territory, cotton fields and onion production, have been major crops in the area during recent years.

Move to Merge Fire and Police Forces Backed

TAFT, July 25.—Members of the board of directors of the West Side Business Men's Club have approved a plan submitted by Mayor Clarence Williams for the consolidation of the police and fire departments of the city. The plan in its approved form will be submitted to the club membership next week for its adoption.

According to Mayor Williams, consolidation of the two departments will entail an expense of approximately $2300 which can be cared for by an increase of 5 cents in the tax rate for the coming year.

The plans call for the construction of a fireproof police headquarters and dormitory for women and juveniles adjoining the present fire department, as well as the construction of a fireproof room for the alarm system.

The present City Jail will be retained for the incarceration of male prisoners only.

Officers Hunt Slayer Suspect

BAKERSFIELD, July 25. — Kern deputy sheriffs and District Attorney's office attaches today continued their search for Alphonse Beltern, 20-year-old Mexican, asserted slayer of Francisco Lopez, during a quarrel over religion near Shafter Wednesday night.

Confident that the asserted killer has not moved since he first went into hiding immediately after the shooting, and convinced that he is being hidden by friends, searchers are ransacking every nook and corner of Shafter's "Little Mexico City," where the killing occurred.

Not a single clew as to his whereabouts has rewarded their efforts, they reported at a late hour.

BAKERSFIELD, July 25. (Exclusive)—A front of flames two miles long is sweeping into pine timber in the Sequoia Forest area about three miles north of Onyx and near the northern boundary of this county, according to reports received here late today from the fire front.

Today twenty-five men were sent from this city to the fire area, but the majority of the crew at the fire was recruited in the mountain district of the county.

This is the first fire to cause appreciable damage in timber this year in Kern county.

California Man Held as Spy on Wrong Identity

PARIS, July 26. (Saturday) (AP)—The Paris edition of the New York Herald Tribune says that a singular case of mistaken identity led to the arrest recently at Nordheim, Alsace, of Charles Leopold Hartman, 75-year-old hotel man of Hollister, Cal.

The paper says Hartman was suspected as a person who had been court-martialed by default on an espionage charge in France in 1919 and given a death sentence. The net of circumstantial evidence was so closely knit that authorities held Hartman while the American Embassy investigated.

The Embassy obtained cabled proof that the hotel man had lived in the United States since 1872 and had not left the country until he sailed the 3rd inst. to visit his old home at Nordheim for the first time in a half century.

Injunction Suit Against Water Company Heard

BAKERSFIELD, July 25.—Hearing on a complaint for an injunction asking that the Glen Oaks Water Company be restrained from interfering with irrigation water for the John A. Evans Corporation, is scheduled for tomorrow in Superior Court before Judge R. B. Lambert.

The hearing involves water supply for thousands of pear and apple trees of the Evans corporation in the Tehachapi district. The plaintiff corporation asserts in its complaint that threats and gun play were employed in cutting off a water supply from a pump on Sec. 30, 32-31. It is further asserted in the complaint that Otto Grind, one of the defendants, disconnected the pump and threw it into the road, cutting off the plaintiff's water supply.

The plaintiff asserts that if the water is cut off great damage will be done to the trees and fruit. A permanent injunction is asked to bar the defendants from interfering in any manner with the plaintiff's pumping action.

CLOSED BANK'S HEAD ACCUSED

President Isaac Irwin May Face Grand Jury Quiz

Supt. Will C. Wood Asserts $200,000 Taken

Reason Given for Condition of San Diego Institution

SAN DIEGO, July 25.—Conversion to his own use of approximately $200,000 of the funds of the California Savings and Commercial Bank by Isaac Irwin, president of the institution, is blamed for the bank's failure to open, by information turned over to the District Attorney's office today by Will C. Wood, State Superintendent of Banks.

Dist.-Atty. Stephen Connell was given the information when he paid a visit to Wood's room at a local hotel today, the bank superintendent stated.

A special session of the grand jury is expected to be called to investigate the asserted shortage. The information, as given to Connell, stated that Irwin violated the State Banking Act by obtaining approximately $100,000 through a series of irregular notes and that he converted to his own use approximately $104,000 given him by the bank to be paid on a $150,000 note, secured by a trust deed, which had been given as part of the original purchase price of the bank building at Fifth avenue and B street.

Other amounts, it is said, came through what appeared to be regular notes from bank customers on loans, while still other sums are asserted to have been paid directly to Irwin by himself without the formality of notes.

All claims of depositors against the bank, will be paid directly and without cost, by the State Banking Department which is protecting every depositor, Wood announces in a signed statement.

Wood again emphasized the fact that difficulties leading to the bank's closing do not apply to any other bank in this city. He predicts that depositors in the savings department will receive dollar for dollar and that loss, if any, in the commercial department, will be negligible. Wood's statement, based on a personal examination of the bank's condition, follows:

"Information has come to me that depositors of California Savings and Commercial Bank of San Diego are being solicited to assign their claims for collection, with the understanding that the assignee will get 20 per cent of the amount recovered," he said.

"Such an assignment is absolutely unnecessary and any amount paid for collection will be practically a gift to the assignee.

"The State Banking Department will protect every depositor and will pay his claim directly without any cost whatever to him. I am making this statement so that depositors will not be under any expense in presenting and collecting their claims."

Suit Brought to Recover on Realty Deal

VENTURA, July 25.—Charging that F. W. Matthiessen and his wife, Kitty M. Matthiessen, fraudulently sold him a fifty-acre tract of land in the Thousand Oaks district near Sherwood Lake, Neil S. McCarthy today filed suit against the couple seeking to recover $20,000 he assertedly paid for the land.

McCarthy says he bought the land August 8, 1928, under the impression that there were no easements, rights of way or other incumbrances on the property, and on May 1, last, he found there was a right of way fifty feet wide over the property.

He asks that the contract be rescinded and that he recover the $20,000 plus 7 per cent interest from the date of sale.

BOND-ISSUE RALLY TUESDAY AT REDONDO

REDONDO Beach, July 25.—Sponsors of the $30,000 bond issue for the proposed pier extension here, which will be before the voters next Tuesday, will hold a rally at the municipal band stand tomorrow night. City Councilman J. Russell Shea will speak. The issue has been indorsed by the Chamber of Commerce, the Redondo Boosters' Association and several other organizations.

WOMAN DIES IN ANTIPODES

Mrs. William Laidlaw of Ontario, Ordained Minister, Succumbs on Visit to Mother in Australia

ONTARIO, July 25.—Mrs. William Laidlaw, wife of one of the community's leading orange growers, died Monday in Australia, according to word received here today by relatives.

Mrs. Laidlaw, an ordained minister, was founder of Narod church in West Ontario, was a coworker with "Brother Tom" Liddicoat in the Midnight Mission of Los Angeles, and was otherwise prominently identified with religious work in Southern California.

Last year Mrs. Laidlaw visited her mother in Australia, and while there launched a Bible teaching school, which grew to such popularity she was requested to return this summer to continue her work. While there she became ill, and death resulted.

Mr. Laidlaw and daughter, Miss Alice, were at Vancouver waiting for a ship to sail for Australia, having been notified of the serious illness of Mrs. Laidlaw. A cable was received today by Mr. Laidlaw telling of his wife's death, and the trip to Australia was canceled. It is presumed the body will be sent back here for burial.

The greatest monument to the memory of Mrs. Laidlaw is Narod Union church. This was started by her and a handful of followers several years ago in a small shed. The flock increased in enthusiasm and membership, and larger quarters were sought with the result that Narod church was ultimately built.

Mrs. Laidlaw was ordained a minister a few years ago and filled the pulpit of her church until her evangelistic work became so heavy she tendered her resignation. The congregation prevailed upon her to continue in the pulpit, however, which she did as temporary pastor. In addition to her regular church work Mrs. Laidlaw found time to hold a Bible class each Thursday afternoon in this city. She was identified with several other community enterprises.

THEY DON T WAIT FOR WAITERS

When Negro Servitors Fail to Show Up at Foothill Breakfast Organization, Members Take Their Places, But Prove Inept at Serving

ARCADIA, July 25.—A good judge or successful business man is not necessarily adept at waiting on table, it was proved when Negro waiters of the Foothill Breakfast Club failed to appear at the last meeting, and distinguished guests and members donned their aprons.

Those who attempted to balance trays with fair or indifferent success were Judge Elliot Gibbs of Pasadena, former Mayor A. N. Multer of this city, Henry Show, Glendale business man, and Howard Vose, breakfast club secretary.

Show is asserted to have been "fired" after breaking two glasses while pouring water, and Judge Gibbs was "cited for contempt" for "passing on the right side."

The club secretary, Vose, distributed the iced melons without slipping on any of the cracked ice which found its way to the ground, and Mayor Multer received praise for his feat in pouring two gallons of "Java" without spilling more than one pint.

The tardy waiters finally arrived and were given a standing ovation which gave their volunteer substitutes an opportunity to slink back to their chairs.

Maj. N. J. Shupe, Pasadena City Director, was drafted for tray duty, but he declined to serve on the ground that as a former army officer he could not do "kitchen police."

PARK IN DESERT PLANNED

Gov. Tapia of Baja California Promises Tract in His Territory, at International League Request

SAN DIEGO, July 25.—Somewhere in the northern part of Baja California, possibly in an easily accessible place on the new road between Tia Juana and Ensenada, is to be established a good-sized desert park where the typical beauty of desert topography, flora and general landscape will be permanently preserved as such for coming generations. Announcement to this effect was made by Mrs. A. Sherman Hoyt of Pasadena, president of International Desert Conservation League.

Officials of the league, in conference here Tuesday, made a general request to Gov. Tapia of Baja California, who is a member of the league's advisory board, bearing on the project. In that section are said to be some of the most typical of desert beauty spots with rare cacti and other arid land flora.

Dr. Walter Sylvester Hertzog of Los Angeles, league trustee, said he received a telephone call yesterday from the Mexican Governor's summer capital at Ensenada stating that the Governor would set aside a tract and that he has forwarded to the Mexican Federal government at Mexico City a request for allocation of territory. Dr. Hertzog said Gov. Tapis has dispatched a letter to him setting forth details of the move.

Mrs. Hoyt will leave tomorrow for Cambridge, Eng., to attend a conference of old world league leaders.

FRUIT MEN URGED TO HOLD OUT

Plea Made to Apricot Growers to Unite in Move to Secure Better Prices

SANTA PAULA, July 25.—Pleas for a solid united band of apricot growers in this district to meet the markets and buyers with the demand for prices to which they are entitled were advanced last night by O. A. Harlan of San Jose, general manager of the California Prune and Apricot Growers' Association, to a gathering of about eighty growers of Ventura and Los Angeles counties at the City Hall here.

The meeting was informal and in the nature of an open forum. A. L. Shively of this city, first vice-president of the association, presided.

The State will probably produce about 20,000 tons of dried apricots this year, Harlan said. Ventura county will show about 20,000 tons. The price, which has dropped from 15 cents to 11 cents per pound, should come up within the next week, he stated.

The association, although it is not soliciting members, is opening its doors to new members in order that a strong fight can be made to bring up the prices. Both members and nonmembers of the association were present last night.

ONTARIO-CHINO PEACH GROWERS WILL SIT TIGHT

ONTARIO, July 25.—Two thousand tons of the best peaches raised in Ontario-Chino district may rot on the ground this year instead of going into canneries. This was the sentiment of members of the Ontario-Chino peach pool, who held a closed meeting last night, in which they rejected the bid of canneries to buy the fruit at $20 per ton.

The growers feel they should get at least $30 per ton for their fruit and, rather than sacrifice it at $20 per ton, will let it fall from the trees and rot on the ground, one of the members announced today.

The canneries went together on the $20 bid, it was said. The green fruit committee is continuing to seek other markets for the fruit and if the fresh fruit market and other markets are closed to them they will not bother to pick their peaches.

ROTARY CLUB ELECTS

HUNTINGTON PARK, July 25.—The Rotary Club has chosen John Sculler as president, Sculler having returned recently from the Chicago Rotary International convention and also a trip into the East. Charles E. Howar has been selected as vice-president for three months and Frederic Groton becomes secretary for the year. William Payne takes the place of Charles Burbank on the board of directors, Burbank, who is employed by the Southern California Edison Company, having been transferred by the company from the offices here to the main offices in Los Angeles.

Motorist Says Burbank Police Tactics Unfair

BURBANK, July 25.—Burbank police officials are doing their best to make motorists strictly observe the boulevard stops in the Burbank section of San Fernando Valley. During the week $228 was paid in fines by various offenders. The fine is $2.50. The fine money taken in is used by the police to help maintain the department. Some of the motorists who have been fined assert that the police are too zealous, and that unfair methods have been used in imposing many of the violation tickets.

"Many of these boulevard-stop intersections," said John H. Soemers, a motorist, "are at wide-open and sparsely settled places. Instead of the police stationing themselves at these intersections as a warning to the touring public, they hide on the roadside a block away, and pounce on all offenders who fail to come to full halt.

"Not one motorist in 100 fails to observe these boulevard stops. Ever so often some driver will slow down to almost a full halt and then proceed again in low. It is then the hiding policeman pounces out from his ambush and serves his ticket. While the motorist, of course, has broken the traffic law in a way, the method used to catch him is unfair, and more or less comment on the tactics used is being made.

"Some residents here have been courageous enough to say that the local police go out ever so often to 'see how many fines they can clean up at the suburban boulevard stops.'"

KIWANIS PRESIDENT RETURNS FROM EAST

HUNTINGTON PARK, July 25.—Returning from a month's trip into the East and Middle West, Louis H. Hamilton, president of the City National Bank, and lieutenant-governor of division one of the California-Nevada Kiwanis district, returned home yesterday. Hamilton, who attended the Kiwanis International convention at Atlantic City recently, visited a number of other eastern cities following the convention sessions, and then spent a week in Indiana. He stated that business conditions in that section of the country are not as good as they might be; that on his return to California he found that this section, especially Los Angeles, Huntington Park and the southeast district the livest section in the way of prosperous conditions, and he believes that this continues to be the "white spot" of the entire nation in a business way.

FIVE SPRAYING RIGS FIGHT PUNCTURE VINE

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, July 25. In an effort to stamp out the puncture vine from San Fernando Valley highways five huge spray rigs, of which three are new, are being used by county workmen on the job, it is announced by Lorne S. Neville, chief deputy agriculture commissioner. Infested areas are being sprayed for the second time this season. Up to the 15th inst. 250 miles of infested streets had been sprayed against the puncture vine for the second time. About 23,000 gallons of oil have been used in the work in the valley so far. Infestation has been lighter in most places this year, but more general, workers report. Although work was started later this year than last, progress is far ahead of last year at the same period.

DRIVER DIES IN BURNING TRUCK

R. E. Moore Pinned Down by Shifting Cargo of Tuna

Fierce Flames and Exploding Fish Cans Delay Rescue

Dozing at Wheel Believed Cause of Crash

SANTA ANA, July 25.—A pitiful heap of charred flesh and bones that had been R. E. Moore, 44-year-old truck driver of 4800 East Eighth street, Long Beach, excavated from a smoking mass of twisted wreckage west of Westminster, today represented the penalty for a moment's relaxed vigilance which sent Moore's truck and trailer hurtling off the highway shortly before daylight today.

Moore was pinned in his cab and crushed beneath a shifting cargo of canned tuna, which spilled forward into the cab and trapped him. It is believed that Moore was killed instantly and spared the torture of the flames which consumed the wreckage.

Officers were summoned to the wreck but were helpless to render aid to the trapped driver because of the blazing wreckage, and the rapid-fire explosions of the cans of fish. They expressed the opinion that Moore had fallen asleep at the wheel of his big truck while on a monotonous night journey from San Diego to San Pedro. The wreck occurred at about 3 a.m. at a point three miles west of Westminster on Seventeenth street.

It was nearly 11 a.m. before Moore's identity was established. In fact, the presence of a human being in the wreckage could only be surmised, since no view of the driver was obtained until 10 a.m., when workers uncovered with shovels a portion of his body. Volunteers had worked frantically to empty the cab, being convinced that there were one, and possibly two, bodies under the burning cargo.

TWO BABIES RESCUED AT NEWPORT

Prompt Action of F. W. Anderson Saves Brother and Sister from Drowning

NEWPORT BEACH, July 25.—Leaping into Newport Bay at Corral and North Bay street, Balboa, F. W. Anderson of 3452 La Rosso Drive Los Angeles, and the quick response of the rescue squad saved the lives of two babies here yesterday. The children were playing in the edge of the water and ventured too far when Anderson saw them and snatched them to safety. He then gave the alarm to the rescue squad and they worked over the children for an hour and twenty minutes before reviving them.

Janice Carpenter, 2½-year-old girl, and her brother, Morris, 4, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Carpenter of San Gabriel, were the children rescued.

The rescue squad responding to the call are Herschell Teter, head life guard; Blanchard Beatty, B. D. Eldridge and P. Pellet.

Woman Charges Delay by Fire Department

PASADENA, July 25.—Charges of delay by the local fire department in answering a call to the scene of a blaze which destroyed the old Henry T. Staats residence at 1125 South Pasadena avenue, today, were placed before City Manager R. V. Orbison this afternoon by Mrs. Fairfax Walkup, a next-door neighbor who turned in the alarm.

The home, which was purchased last month by John C. Calhoun, vice-president of the Alpha Ironing Board Company of Alhambra, was valued, including the contents, at $8000.

Mrs. Walkup reported that it took the fire department fifteen minutes to make the run from a station less than six blocks away. The loss of time, she said, was caused by an argument as to whether or not the South Pasadena-avenue address actually was in the city limits. Having lived next door for many years, she was positive as to the location of the city limits, but could not convince the fire operator, according to her statement, until the home was past saving. A complete investigation will be made, Orbison reported.

WRITERS VIEW ASISTENCIA

Authors Charged With Compilation of Nonfiction History of California's Romance Visit There

REDLANDS, July 25.—Several well-known writers who are charged with the compilation of a nonfiction history of the romance of California were visitors here today and were guests of George W. Beattie, spending some time at the Asistencia of San Gabriel Mission on Barton Road.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Rensch, librarians at Stanford University, were in the inspection party. It was their first opportunity to see any of the California missions in actual process of reconstruction, they said, so they obtained first-hand information on how the Spanish padres directed their Indian neophytes in the building of the Asistencia, which was an outpost of Mission San Gabriel.

Daughters of the American Revolution plan a historical volume for each State of the Union and in each locality experts on regional history will be consulted, said Mr. and Mrs. Rensch. Beattie, author of several pamphlets on California in the mission era, is accepted as the foremost authority in this locality.

Having visited this city the historians planned to cover the entire chain of California missions and also view ghost cities on the desert, reminders of the prosperity that existed there during the mining days of yore.

Beattie stated that restoration of the east end of the Asistencia will be continued until funds of the San Bernardino County Historical Society are exhausted. He hopes to see the walls completed before a cessation in work is found necessary. Eventually the room will have a tile roof similar to the one placed over another portion of the Asistencia.

The walls have been raised already to a height of several feet. Although concrete has been used to give permanence to the foundations, the walls themselves are of the same adobe that was built into the original structure.

CHARLES A. EDWARDS DIES

Pioneer Banker and Civic Leader of Santa Barbara Succumbs; Third of Family in Recent Weeks

SANTA BARBARA, July 25.—Charles Edwards, pioneer banker, civic worker, and former city official, died this afternoon at St. Francis Hospital, where he had been in a critical condition for two weeks following his return from Australia. He is the third of the Edwards family to die within recent weeks. His sister Annie died three months ago and his brother George died last week.

He was president of the County National Bank and Trust Company of this city at the time of his death, and had been affiliated with the bank for twenty-five years. News of his death spread rapidly and flags were lowered to half-mast throughout the city in token of respect to his memory.

Edwards was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards, who were prominent early day residents of the community. He was born in Ione, March 1, 1861, and came with his parents to this city when a youth. He received his early education in the public schools here and graduated from the University of California with the class of 1882.

In his young manhood he took as his bride Miss Annie Dennis, a niece of Judge and Mrs. William A. White, who were prominently identified with the early days here. The marriage took place at Mattapoisett, Mass., Miss Dennis having returned to her eastern home for the wedding.

LEAVES LARGE FAMILY

Edwards leaves a widow and six children, Miss Miriam B. Edwards of this city; William A. Edwards, architect, also a local resident; Charles A. Edwards, Jr., of San Diego; Archie M. Edwards of this city; Mrs. Abby E. Randall of Berkeley, and Miss Dorothy Edwards of this city.

Edwards was a man of many civic activities. For forty-five years he had been connected with the County National Bank, starting when a youth as a bookkeeper. He was president of the bank for many years, then was chairman of the board of directors, and two years ago he returned to the presidency.

In addition to being president of the County National Bank, he also was president of the Santa Barbara Mutual Building and Loan Association, a charter member and former president of the old Potter Country Club, now La Cumbre Golf and Country Club; a member of the Santa Barbara Club, the University Club and other organizations, and has been a member of the Santa Barbara Foundation since its inception.

ON BOARD OF SCHOOL

He was a member of the board of trustees of the California Junior Republic, a boys' school located at Chino in San Bernardino county. Edwards was one of a small group who organized a boys' school some years ago, this eventually developing into the present recreation center.

Edwards, a lover of birds, was one of a group of leading men who gave to the city the bird refuge at the eastern end of Cabrillo Boulevard, and he was chiefly responsible for the building of Mountain Drive, which has become one of the famous scenic drives of the State.

He was for many years prominent in Presbyterian Church circles, was a devoted husband and father, and honored by a host of friends.

MAYWOOD SETS DATE FOR RECALL VOTING

MAYWOOD, July 25.—A special election for the recall of Mayor William E. Heath and Councilman Fred H. Brewer has been set for Tuesday, September 2, by the City Council, the recall petitions having been checked and found sufficient by the City Clerk. There is considerable speculation as to whom the candidates will be to enter the race for the two Councilmanic offices, providing Heath and Brewer are recalled. Among those mentioned are Alvin A. Larkey, former City Clerk; Earl G. Horton, who was a candidate at the last election for Council and was defeated, and Oscar Johnson, former City Councilman.

LARGER CARS' NOISE ANNOYS RESIDENTS

HUNTINGTON PARK, July 25. For three or four weeks the Los Angeles Street Railway Company has put in operation a number of larger street cars operating through the city. The noise, as compared with that made by the smaller and lighter cars has increased. This subject was one under discussion by both the City Council and the Southeast Realty Board at their meetings this week. City Attorney Arch G. McLay was instructed to confer with the street-car officials as to whether the noise can be reduced. The realty board secretary is to write a letter to the street-car officials on the same subject.

FEDERAL BUILDING ASSURED

High Government Officials Visit Glendale and Promise Aid in Securing Structure

GLENDALE, July 25.—Assurance that Glendale will receive an appropriation for a new Federal building was given a group of local business leaders today by John W. Philp, fourth assistant Postmaster-General, after an inspection of the present office here today. Maj. Perry Heath, who accompanied Philp on his visit here, joined his assurances to those of Philp. Heath is Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

Congressman W. E. Evans, who attended today's conference, pledged his aid in the move to secure an appropriation for Glendale out of the funds that have been allocated by Congress for Federal buildings.

Postmaster Edwin F. Heisser explained the workings of the office to the officials from Washington and showed that the local office is now overtaxed to keep pace with the growth in the city's postal business.

The appeal for funds for the proposed Glendale office will be presented at the next Congress, and the chances for success are regarded as encouraging, according to Philp, who declared the present equipment as inadequate.

POSTOFFICE NEEDS OF POMONA TOLD OFFICIALS

POMONA, July 25.—Pomona was host to a party of Federal officials from Washington today, when the party composed of Arch Coleman, first assistant Postmaster-General; John Phip, fourth assistant Postmaster-General; Maj. Perry K. Heath, assistant Secretary of the Treasury; Congressman W. E. Evans and others entertained at a noon luncheon at the Mountain Meadows Country Club. Merrill E. Fellows, president of the Chamber of Commerce, welcomed the officials to the city, and then presented State Senator Cadet Taylor, chairman of the local postoffice committee, who outlined the needs of the locality concerning the new structure to be built in the near future in this city.

Following the luncheon, the distinguished guests were conducted through the Los Angeles County Fair Grounds and also inspected the site that has been purchased by the government for the local Federal structure. As a result of the visit, speedy action is expected on the erection of the building.

Women Declare Their Vote Will Guard Dry Law

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, July 25. The San Fernando Valley branch of the W.C.T.U. conducted an all-day session today at the North Hollywood Community Church, under the direction of Mrs. Zella Hunt of Van Nuys, president of the valley body.

Among the speakers were Baroness Otilly De Ropp of Glendale, who spoke on Communistic activities in Russia; W.C.T.U. leaders in the Los Angeles district, and various political candidates who had been invited by the organization to make talks on political issues. Several hundred prominent San Fernando Valley women took part in the business session.

It was the consensus of all addresses that "as long as the Nineteenth Amendment remains on record there need be no fear that changes ever will be made in the Eighteenth Amendment."

Last Rites for Victim of Air Crash Sunday

FILLMORE, July 25. — Funeral services for Harry Hastings, 42-year-old local building contractor, who was crushed to death in an airplane crash near here yesterday, will be conducted at 2 p.m. Sunday in the Presbyterian Church here, with the Elks' lodge in charge. The Masonic lodge will have charge of services at Fillmore Cemetery.

Hastings, a resident here twenty years, was a member of the building firm of Hastings & Yeakle. He leaves his widow, a daughter, Marie, and a son, Charles.

Burke had been flying two years, and has 170 hours to his credit. Their plane stalled and crashed from about 300 feet a few minutes after taking off from the Fillmore Airport.

ELKS STAG WILL BE GIVEN LATER IN YEAR

POMONA, July 24.—Postponement of the "Days of '49," monster benefit stag, to have been given at Rowlands Grove, at Walnut, Saturday and Sunday by the Pomona Lodge of Elks, was announced today by lodge officials. Postponement was made, due to a large number of local residents who are out of the city on vacations, and also due to the fact that an entertainment of much larger proportions is being planned and committees are already at work, to be given in the fall, to which the general public will probably be invited.

MOVE FOR RECALL IN GLENDALE

Petitions Seeking Ousting of Mayor Kimlin and Two Councilmen in Circulation

GLENDALE, July 25.—Petitions demanding the recall of Councilmen C. E. Kimlin, C. J. Hatz and Sam Davis were placed in circulation today, asserting nine counts of violations of the city charter, secret expenditure of municipal funds and usurpation of the prerogatives of the City Manager.

The petitions are being circulated by members of a citizens' committee of twenty-five members, according to O. C. Logan, the chairman. Three petitions have been printed, each bearing the name of one of the Councilmen whom it is sought to recall but all asserting the same grounds for ousting the office-holders. By this method the recall of each member of the Council has been made a separate issue.

GROUNDS SET FORTH

As grounds for the recall, the petitions charge that the three Councilmen have habitually approved appropriations of public funds by circuitous procedure to conceal amounts, objects and beneficiaries thereof, authorized payment of city moneys without claim or demand, or without receiving valuable consideration therefor, or without proper accounting thereof; voted against an ordinance providing for publicity of public expenditures; habitually violated that section of the city charter that provides that all meetings shall be open to the public; approved expenditure of moneys of the public service department for purposes not authorized by law, or justified by sound business policy, and approved levy of special assessements, for replacing water mains in violation of city charter provisions.

CONTRIBUTIONS SOUGHT

The petition charges further that they arrogated to themselves the authority vested in the City Manager; approved public improvements that were unnecessary and excessive in cost, and refused to make any provisions for flood control.

Kimlin, one of the Councilmen, is now Mayor of the city. The names of 25 per cent of the total vote cast at the last election in which the three Councilmen were elected must be affixed to the petitions before the recall can be submitted to the voters at a regular or special election.

The citizens' committee backing the recall movement is soliciting contributions to carry the movement to a successful conclusion.

Upland Favors Park More Than Band and Ads

UPLAND, July 25.—Upland voters favor parks and the Euclid-avenue parking more than they do weekly band concerts and the advertising of their community, results of the special municipal election indicate.

The voters who went to the polls yesterday to settle three civic issues, voted a 20-cent levy for upkeep of city parks and Euclid-avenue parkway. The vote on this measure was 332 yes, and 120 no.

The 5-cent levy for the city's band was voted down, yes 219, no 208. The 2-cent levy for advertising and promotion fund lost by a vote of 202 yes, and 227 no. A two-thirds majority was required on all measures.

The voters, by downing the band issue, will forego weekly band concerts next summer, the municipal band, one of the oldest civic bands in Southern California, directed by Fred J. Wilding, Jr. The band is under contract with the city to play a concert each Thursday evening this summer.

Fitts Talks to Capacity House

REDONDO BEACH, July 25.—Dist.-Afty. Fitts, candidate for Governor, spoke at Arcade Hall here last night, before an assambly said to be the largest of its nature held here in a number of years.

His address was under the auspices of the local chapter of the W.C.T.U., and the attendance, despite a last-minute change in the meeting place, exceeded the seating capacity of the hall, sending sponsors of the meeting on a last-minute foray for chairs.

Fitts was introduced by Rev. K. F. Nance and the highlights of his address dealt with prison reform and tax revision.

E. B. Rider of Metropolitan Water District Says

Three Engineers to Choose Routing Next Month

District Association Hears Plans at Riverside

RIVERSIDE, July 25.—E. B. Rider, assistant engineer for the Metropolitan water district, speaking at a meeting of the Metropolitan Water District Advancement Association in the American Legion Clubhouse last night, stated that the consulting board of three eminent engineers will probably select the route for the proposed aqueduct from the Colorado River next month. This will be done during its visit to the Pacific Coast to study data on a half dozen routes that have been surveyed.

Rider expressed the opinion that the average cost of routes for the aqueduct, construction of the same, the general work in connection with it and storage reservoirs for distribution will probably be in the neighborhood of $200,000,000. He stated further the opinion it is likely that the district will be able to distribute water, retail, to consumers in the cities within the district for 15 cents per cubic foot, which, he said, is lower than the cost of water in many important cities in California at this time.

Also, should the total amount of water deliveries be consumed at that price he stated, the income would be sufficient to take care of the costs, including interest, depreciation, retirement of bonds and other items after the date of beginning delivery of water. From that time, the participation of the city would be paid for out of general taxes.

There were in attendance at the meeting nearly 100 representatives of different cities within the Metropolitan district, the official family of the city of Riverside and prominent officials of the district. Among these was Paul Schwab, Mayor of Beverly Hills and attorney for the district, who predicted that Arizona will get nowhere in its efforts to secure an injunction against the Black Canyon Dam construction.

Reception Given for Dr. Burden

INGLEWOOD, July 24.—Attesting their appreciation of the work he has done in their church and community during the four years of his pastorate the membership of the First Methodist Church last evening held a largely attended reception in compliment to Rev. Thomas L. Burden and his family, in the church parlors.

Several hundred local residents took occasion to call during the evening and express their gratitude at the return of Dr. Burden to the local pastorate for the ensuing year and to congratulate him upon his many valuable achievements while he has been in the city. The event followed the regular Wednesday evening prayer meeting, and was in charge of Lloyd Lash.

Dr. Charles Dean of the local Christian Church spoke briefly to the assemblage on behalf of the local Ministerial Association, and Roy Powers, representing the membership of the church, voiced the pleasure at retaining for another term the services of Dr. Burden who, prior to his acceptance of the local pulpit four years ago, had been stationed in Santa Monica for several years.

His activities in California [illegible] over a period of seventeen years, and during that time he has attained a place of marked prominence among the clergy of all denominations, it is declared.

Boynton was 71 years of age. Some of this city's finest homes, including the D. B. Gamble and R. R. Blacker residences, are monuments to his craftsmanship.

Besides his widow, Mrs. [illegible] Boynton, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. Hazel Fryer, and two sons, Ernest and LeRoy Boynton, both of San Gabriel.

BURGLAR SECURES BONDS

Laundry Safe at San Diego Rifled of Securities to Value of $3300; Other Places Entered

SAN DIEGO, July 25.—A series of burglaries featured by a safe-cracking in the Electric Laundry Company's office at 1460 Island avenue and the theft of $3300 in negotiable bonds, was under investigation by police detectives today. M. L. Myers, manager of the laundry company, arrived at his offices today to discover that one office safe had been broken into and two others had been molested.

From the safe that was opened the burglars stole the valuable bonds. A large quantity of money was stored in the two other safes, but entrance to neither was gained, although repeated attempts had been made.

Burglars who broke into a drug store at 3342 Adams avenue wheeled the safe to a rear door, but apparently were frightened away before they could break it open, police said. The thieves, however, stole $70 from a money drawer which had been concealed underneath a counter in the store, C. H. Noyes, the manager, said, when he discovered the theft this morning.

While Mrs. T. J. Enright slept last night a burglar entered her home at 4628 Wightman street and stole her purse containing [illegible]. So cleverly and silently did the burglar work that the burglary was not discovered until this morning when Mrs. Enright arose.

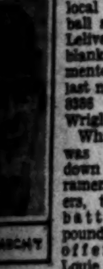
Moore Hits Homer for Seraphs

of 8300 Fans Sees Angel Victory

and Gould Hit Hard by Local Club

BY BOB RAY

[illegible] the superlative pitching of [illegible] Baecht, who let the Solons [illegible] with seven scattered hits to turn in the first shutout of the local owl baseball series, Jack Lelivelt's Angels blanked Sacramento, 8 to 0, last night before 8386 fans at Wrigley Field.



BAECHT

While Baecht was mowing down the Sacramento players, the Angel batters were pounding the offerings of Louie Vinci and [illegible] Gould hard and opportunely [illegible] up a safe margin. Vinci's [illegible] were treated so [illegible] that he had to be lifted in [illegible] inning. Gould didn't [illegible] better, the Seraphs slug[illegible] a total of fifteen hits during [illegible] evening's entertainment.

Last night's gathering brought [illegible] attendance for the [illegible] night games to 37,857. The [illegible] of night ball can be [illegible] by the knowledge that this figure betters the [illegible] seven-game Angel [illegible] of the year by 13,282 [illegible] the previous best local [illegible] at an Angel series [illegible] between Sacramento and [illegible] the third week of [illegible] season, when 24,375 fans [illegible] attended. When the figures of the attendances for the [illegible] today and tomorrow are added in, the attendance for [illegible] series ought to more than [illegible] the previous high mark [illegible] the year. And all the credit [illegible] go to night baseball.

[illegible] back to last night's game, [illegible] gave the Angels a 3-to-1 [illegible] series and kept them [illegible] game out of first place.

GREAT THROW BY HOAG

The contest was featured by a [illegible] of fancy fielding as well as some [illegible] hitting. Dittmar, Haney and [illegible] all came up with brilliant [illegible] but the real feature of [illegible] was Myril Hoag's sensational throw from the center [illegible] to nail Wes Schulmerich at third base. Schulmerich had [illegible] off the bleacher screen in [illegible] and attempted to stretch it [illegible] triple. Hoag hurled the ball [illegible] to Brown, standing on [illegible], for one of the best [illegible] this writer has ever seen.

[illegible] led the Angel attack [illegible] four hits in five times up. [illegible] Baecht pounded out three [illegible] to aid his own cause. The [illegible] hitting, however, was [illegible] by Johnny Moore and Wes Schulmerich. Moore got a home [illegible] over the left-field wall, his [illegible] of the series and the [illegible] made here under the [illegible], and a double. Schulmerrich [illegible] out a triple and the [illegible] which Hoag prevented [illegible] being another three-[illegible].

[illegible] athletes go back on the day [illegible] today, starting at 2:15 with [illegible] furnishing the illumination [illegible] of the Kleigs.

The Angels jumped into the [illegible] early by scoring two runs [illegible] in the opening inning. [illegible] Sigafoos had been retired, [illegible] got a life when [illegible] fielder dropped Brown's somewhat [illegible] throw for an error. [illegible] singled through short [illegible] Stain sprinted to third.

Max Saved as Boat Capsizes

BERLIN, July 25. (AP)—Max Schmeling, world's heavyweight champion, today was rescued from Scharmuetzel Lake, southeast of Berlin, when his motor boat capsized during a storm. The champion was speeding his boat when it upset in rough water. Another motor racer coming along behind hauled Max out and he appeared none the worse for his spill.

MILLER STOPS ROMEO LE MON

Boxing Benny Wins in Sixth Round Over Legion Foe

Benny Miller, up-and-coming local boxing sensation, was too good a scrapper for Romeo LeMon in the main event at Hollywood last night. Miller won on a technical knockout in the sixth round after LeMon had taken terrific punishment.

BENNY MILLER

The first round was even but from then on the fight was all Miller's. LeMon was a wild swinger and didn't have a chance against the accurate-punching young Jewish star.

In the sixth Benny landed a left to the cheek, followed immediately with a right to the chin and LeMon went down. He arose at the count of seven. However, Referee Harry Lee decided that LeMon had absorbed enough punishment for one evening and raised Miller's hand in token of victory.

Jimmy Alvarado outpointed Red Humphries in the six-round semi-wind-up. Alvarado took every round.

Young Papke, who is rapidly becoming a favorite with the fans, stopped Frankie Abendino in the third round of the special event. Abendino was on the floor in the first round and again in the second. Referee Frank Holborrow stopped the affair when it became apparent that Abendino's place could have been filled just as well by a punching bag.

Bob Patrick defeated Oral Eubanks in one of the four-rounders, while Leo Lomelli was an easy winner over Joe Soldivar in the curtain raiser.

Before the main event went on Maxie Rosenbloom, light-heavyweight champion, and Clara Bow were introduced. Both sat ringside.

Suominen and Bush Victors

THREE RIVERS (Que.) July 25. (AP)—Arne I. Suominen of Chicago and Billy Bush, Boston, won the sixth lap from St. Anne De La Perade to Three Rivers, in the international relay race today.

Suominen and Bush ran the twenty-nine miles in 3h. 24m. 40s. Only an hour and twenty minutes separated the first team from the last in today's lap and the first six teams finished within five minutes of the leaders.

Arthur Newton, South Africa, and Pete Gavuzzi, Southampton, Eng., first by nearly two hours in elapsed time, were sixth on today's lap in 3h. 29m. 20s. Gauthier and Laflamme of Canada, sixth in elapsed time, were second today in 3h. 25m.

Edouard Fabre and Ollie Wattinen, third in elapsed time, also were third on the lap in 3h. 28m. 5s.

LEHMAN, COUCH IN GOLF FINALS

Chicagoans Decide Western Amateur Title Today

Comedalist Trips Perkins by 8-and-7 Tally

Former 'Big Ten' Champion Favored to Win

BY PAUL MICKELSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO, July 25. (AP)—The western amateur golf championship was made safe for Chicago today as Johnny Lehman and Ira Couch, two of the Windy City's highest ranking young stars, crowded into the finals with surprising triumphs.

PHIL PERKINS

Lehman, comedalist and conqueror yesterday of the defending champion, Don Moe of Portland, Or., galloped into the final round with a crushing 8-and-7 defeat of England's last hope, T. Phillip Perkins. Couch, never before a victor in an important tournament outside of Chicago, reached the round by defeating Bob McCrary, the "fighting Scot" from Des Moines, Iowa 2 and 1.

It was the first time the championship battle ended in an all-Chicago affair since way back in 1912, when "Crick" Evans and Warren K. Wood fought for the crown over the Denver Country Club course.

STARTLING VICTORY

Of the triumphs today that of Lehman was the most startling. The methodical Briton who dazzled the championship Beverly Country Club course yesterday with a record-equaling 69, went into the fight a three-to-one favorite but didn't have a chance against his younger rival.

Lehman, former Big Ten champion, won his duel with Perkins by

GAINES WINS AFTER TUSSLE

Girard Star Wins on Nineteenth Hole in Feature First Round Match of Palos Verdes Tourney

BY EDWARD LAWRENCE

Jack Gaines of Girard barely wiggled into the second round of the Palos Verdes invitation tournament yesterday after a tee-to-tee slugging match with young Phil Ayres, Jr., of Los Angeles, which ended on the nineteenth hole to feature first-round matches in the championship flight.

While other favorites were winning much as they pleased, Gaines found himself with a tartar on his hands in the determined Southern California junior champion.

WINSTON FULLER

After being 2 down at the turn, Ayres won three of the first seven holes to be 1 up going to the seventeenth. Gaines found himself in a peculiar position on the 460-yard sixteenth hole, when he birdied the hole, but lost to Ayres's eagle 3.

Just when it appeared that Phil was about to score the prize upset of the first round, Jack holed a sizeable putt for a birdie 3 on the eighteenth hole to square the match. Ayres cracked on the nineteenth, losing to Gaines's par 4.

The medals were the best of the day, both Gaines and Ayres equaling par of 71.

The cards:

Par (out)	434 354 534—35
Gaines	444 344 444—35
Ayres	543 354 525—37
Par (in)	444 443 544—36—71
Gaines	444 553 443—36—71
Ayres	344 543 344—34—71

Harry Eichelberger, Jr., of Los Angeles, the medalist, shot a 72 to defeat Rex Bailes of Virginia, 4 and 3. Eichelberger meets Winston Fuller of Los Angeles this morning in the second round of match play. Fuller played brilliantly yesterday to defeat W. G. Stone, 7 and 5.

Billy Jack of Girard won his way to the second round by trimming L. Perry Ferguson of Girard, 3 and 1. Jack meets Oakmont's champion, Gil Eckles, today. Eckles won his first match, 4 and 3, from C. P. Redman of Long Beach.

TODAY'S MATCHES

The lower bracket presents two fine matches today, Gaines meeting Palos Verdes' favorite son, Al Gruber, while W. L. (Bill) Jelliffe of Girard, the favorite, tackles Ernie Combs, Jr., of Virginia.

Gruber won yesterday from Guy Hanson of California, 2 and 1; Combs defeated A. R. McGregor, 4 and 3; and Jelliffe eliminated Jimmy Johns, 3 and 2.

Winners of second-round matches meet in the semifinals this afternoon. All flights play two rounds today with finals scheduled for tomorrow morning.

A consolation round is scheduled today for those defeated in first-round matches, and nonqualifiers. Mixed foursomes are scheduled tomorrow.

Following are first-round results with starting times for today:

CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT, 10:35 A.M.

H. Eichelberger defeated Rex Bailes, 4 and 3.
Winston Fuller defeated W. G. Stone, 7 and 5.
W. H. Jack defeated Leonard Ferguson, 3 and 1.
Gilly Eckles defeated C. P. Redman, 4 and 3.
Jack Gaines defeated Phil Ayres, 1 up, 19 holes.

KEATING TRADED TO BEAVERS

PORTLAND (Or.) July 25. (AP)—Thomas L. Turner, president of the Portland Beavers, announced today Mack Hillis, utility infielder, and Roy Chesterfield, right-handed pitcher, of the Beavers have been traded to Sacramento for Ray Keating, veteran hurler. The deal involved no cash. The three players will report to their new clubs at once. Keating is expected to join the Beavers here Sunday. Disposal of Hillis and Chesterfield occasioned little surprise here. It has been known Turner has been attempting a deal for Hillis, who has been dissatisfied and unable to get started this season. He recently was indefinitely suspended for alleged infraction of training rules in Los Angeles and has not been in uniform this week. It was the second time this season he has been caught up for failure to obey rules. Chesterfield was fined some time ago in Seattle for the same thing.

ELLSWORTH VINES IN NEW YORK SEMIFINALS

NEW YORK, July 25. (AP)—Three New Yorkers and Ellsworth Vines of Pasadena, Cal., gained the semifinal round of singles in the metropolitan turf court tennis championship today.

ELLSWORTH VINES

Vines and Frank Shields, seeded No. 2 in the tournament, completed the conquests they started yesterday before rain put a halt to play. Vines eliminated William Einsmann of New York, 6-4, 6-3, while Shields put out Davey Jones, tall Columbia University star, 6-2, 6-3.

Frank Hunter of New Rochelle, seeded No. 1 player, and Eddie Burns of the Crescent A.C., were the other winners today. Hunter pounded out a 6-4, 7-5 victory over Donald Cram of Nashville, Tenn., and Burns defeated William Feibleman of New York, 6-2, 6-3.

The Hunter-Cram match was not nearly so close as the scores would indicate. The veteran Davis Cup player was in command of the situation all the way. He called on his blistering forehand only when he needed points. When he did call upon it, Cram was forced to stand by as the ball shot past him.

MIDGE GLADMAN BEATEN

Santa Monica Miss Defeated by Majorie Morrill in Finals of Manchester Tourney

MANCHESTER (Mass.) July 25. (AP)—The California reign in the Essex Country Club's women's invitation singles tennis tournament, which began in 1925, ended here today when Marjorie Morrill of Dedham defeated Marjorie (Midge) Gladman, Santa Monica, Cal., 6-1, 6-2, in the championship round.

This title, for which fifteen of the country's first twenty players competed, has been the property of Helen Wills Moody, Elizabeth Ryan and Edith Cross during the past five years.

Miss Cross played the role of defending champion in the current tourney but she was eliminated in an early round, as were her team-mates, Sarah Palfrey of Brookline, and Mary Greef of Kansas City.

Miss Morrill romped through her easy title victory by concentrating on Miss Gladman's forehand weakness as she played a sensational hard-driving game against the Californian. Time and again the Dedham girl's serves were so hard they went for aces or were netted.

Miss Gladman had but few chances to come up to the net and most of them came in the fourth game of the second set, when she came up to the barrier four times for placements.

The doubles play also narrowed down to an East-West final that will be played tomorrow. Virginia Hilleary, Philadelphia, and Dorothy Andrus, Stamford, Ct., survived the semifinal, along with the defending champions, Miss Cross and Mrs. L. A. Harper of San Francisco.

The easterners, who won the recent Longwood invitation doubles, entered the last bracket by dropping only one game, in the second set, to Miss Gladman and Josephine Cruickshank of Santa Ana, Cal. The champions did not get much more opposition from Alice Francis, South Orange, N. J., and Anne Page, Philadelphia, who were defeated by 6-1, 6-2.

Play in the mixed doubles was also reduced to the last match. Miss Gladman and Clifford Sutter of New Orleans, the intercollegiate and Longwood champion, became finalists by defeating Margaret Blake, Lenox, and Richard Harte, Boston, 6-3, 6-2. The other semifinal went to Miss Cross and Maurice Bayon of New Orleans, when they dropped only one game to Anne Page, Philadelphia, and Henry Guild, Boston.

CARNERA'S HEARING LISTED FOR MONDAY

WASHINGTON, July 25. (AP)—Primo Carnera, Italian prize fighter, will be given an opportunity Monday by immigration officials to show why he should not leave the United States.

Carnera's six months' leave in this country has expired and he has been ordered overseas. His representatives protested and the board of review today fixed the date for the hearing. Meanwhile, no penalties will be imposed for his remaining here.

Carnera has been fighting over the country under a permit given foreign entertainers and visitors, entitling him to remain six months.

"BIG BILL" MAGNIFICENT AGAINST JEAN BOROTRA

Cochet Masters Young American Star; Allison, Van Ryn to Face Crucial Doubles Test Today

BY SMITH REAVIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

PARIS, July 25. (AP)—Big Bill Tilden, veteran of ten Davis Cup campaigns, hung a French scalp to his belt to begin his eleventh today. He defeated Jean Borotra—a Borotra at the top of his form—2-6, 7-5, 6-4, 7-5. Thus he justified his last-minute inclusion in the invading American forces and did it with such decision not one of the 10,000 who watched the opening of the 1930 challenge round had the least doubt who was the better.

Two hours later little Henri Cochet had taken his revenge for Wimbledon by sending young George Lott to the showers with a straight-set defeat, 6-4, 6-2, 6-2. The score, when the evening shadows settled over Auteuil, was America, 1; France, 1, and the fate of the Davis Cup for 1930 still hung in the balance. The doubles match will be played tomorrow and the final singles Sunday.

HENRI COCHET

STADIUM PACKED

Despite more than a hint of rain and a hot, muggy day, there wasn't a vacant place in the big stadium when Tilden and Borotra began the usual preliminary ball slugging. As the veteran umpire, Nicolas Redelsperber, climbed into his little pulpit a warm, gusty wind blew slantwise across the courts. It seemed to bother both players a bit.

Like two wary boxers, each felt out the other's ability in the early stages of play. They struck to the baselines, stroked safely down the sidelines and played safe returns for position rather than trying for kills. Big Bill was on edge, nervous from the outset. His eagerness made him net and out balls that normally he would have shot across for winning points.

Borotra soon had the measure of the court. He played for position and let Tilden do most of the running. Games followed service until the fourth, when the bounding Basque broke through. He won the next two easily as Bill overdrove the lines.

FRENCH JOYFUL

Tilden seemed to find himself in the seventh game. He stopped Borotra's service with three nice placements, but he couldn't keep the pace and his own errors convicted him in the final game of the set. There was joy in the French camp and lots of bets were made on the trength of Tilden's erratic

YANKEES BEST

DETROIT, July 25. (AP)—The Tigers made seven errors today as the New York Yankees won, 14 to 7.

Detroit scored five runs in the first, driving Ed Wells from the mound, but tossed away the lead in the next four frames. The Tiger errors made Waite Hoyt the main victim. Hoyt was taken out in the sixth after the Yankees had scored nine runs, only two of them earned. Elon Hogsett finished. Roy Johnson made three misplays.

Lou Gehrig put the Yankees ahead in the fifth by hitting his twenty-ninth home run with one mate on base. After New York had scored three runs in the fourth to tie the score Easterling also hit a homer. Score:

Wolgast Wants Small Man as Arbiter in Bout With Speedy Dado Here

Midget Wolgast wants a little man to referee his ten-round bout with Speedy Dado at the Olympic Tuesday night. The flyweight champion made his distinction known through his manager, Johnny Keyes, yesterday, to Olympic officials.

SPEEDY DADO

The clubs have named their own referees since the recent episode when Bert Wallis is claimed to have raised the wrong hand in the Dado-Chato Laredo bout at Hollywood.

The champion's views will be given consideration by Promoter Jack Doyle. The top-notch men now officiating run to different sizes and make-ups. Billy Burke is a six-footer and well built. Lieut. Jack Kennedy is rotund and weighs around 200 pounds. Duke Kenworthy is middle-sized. Abe Roth is the real flyweight of the lot.

Wolgast's handlers realize that this fight is apt to be very close since looking at Dado shape up for the bout. Keyes admits that Dado is the best flyweight he has seen outside Wolgast, whom he picks to win on tremendous speed.

"Big referees, who can't get around, would slow this fight down," says Keyes. "I know from experience with Wolgast's fights. It will take a fast-stepping referee to keep in sight of Wolgast and Dado.

"The champion and I aren't kicking, but Wolgast has a lot at stake and all we ask is an even break." Keyes did not express any preference since he is not acquainted with the referees working in California.

Wolgast and Dado both worked at top speed yesterday. The Main-street gymnasium was packed for the third day in a row. Carlo Curtis is enjoying prosperity with both the flyweight and light-heavyweight champion, Maxie Rosenbloom, working there daily.

The title-holder said he would not scale over 110 pounds for Dado. The Filipino is around 113 pounds and will have to hold this heft since he must be over the flyweight limit.

Rosenbloom will remain here over Sunday before going to San Francisco to box. Talk was revived yesterday for a Rosenbloom-Ace Hudkins rematch while Maxie is on the Coast. Hudkins is in training.

YANKEE TRACK STARS WIN AT HELSINGFORS

HELSINGFORS (Finland) July 25. (AP)—America's touring track-and-field athletes made a clean sweep of the events in which they entered in a meet at Abo today.

Reginald (Pete) Bowen of the University of Pittsburgh won the 100 meters in 11.2s. and the 400 meters in 48.4s. C. Pendleton won the 200-meter dash in 22.7s. and the 100-meter high hurdles went to Steve Anderson of the University of Washington in 15.1s. Tommy Warne of Northwestern won the pole vault, clearing 12ft. 9 1-2in.

AFTER-DARK ANGLING GROWING POPULAR

Now that practically all Southern California sports are being conducted at night, Capt. J. M. Andersen, skipper of the big Olympic fishing barge at Hermosa Beach, advises that after-dark angling is getting to be very popular with Southland anglers.

All night hourly tender service to the Olympic will be available tonight with a record crowd expected to be on hand.

TILDEN WINS; LOTT BEATEN

Allison, Van Ryn in Crucial Doubles Test Today

play that Borotra would overcome the jinx that has followed him in Tilden matches.

That joy grew and flourished for the major part of the second set, for Borotra, sure and accurate, varying the depth and pace of his ground strokes and implacable at the net, took the first, third, fourth, fifth and seventh games to lead, 5-2. It was the critical point of the match and Tilden, casting aside his nervousness, rose to meet it.

Big Bill's service, erratic and unsure in the earlier stages, began to slap across the net with its usual regularity. He took the eighth game with two placement beauties and finished off the ninth with a service ace. Then he ran out the set at 7-5 and was never seriously endangered again.

From that moment on Bill was hitting harder, placing more accurately and getting in to the net to worry the Basque with cross volleys that couldn't be touched. Bill was on the offensive and Borotra no longer could profit from errors. The Basque had the fight of his life on his hands.

Borotra got a brief lead in the third set with the games 4-3 in his favor. The seventh game was all Borotra's as he started with a service ace, drove to 40-love, then smashed another ace across to win. Tilden, who wasn't ready, disputed the point, but Umpire Redelsperber held Bill had signaled for delay too late.

TILDEN CHEERED

The crowd, intensely partisan, booed and whistled. Bill, as he walked around the net, seemed upset and almost out of control. The nervousness didn't last long, though.

He evened the score at 4-all with two service aces after deuce and ran out the remainder of the set in short order. Tired out, but game, Borotra fought hard in the last set. With the count 4-0 and 5-1 against him he squared it at 5-all. Tilden broke through on the eleventh game, however, and finished his job in the twelfth with a mighty ace.

The crowd, eagerly partisan as it was, gave Big Bill the cheer of his life as he walked off the court. It cheered just as heartily when George Lott came on to face Cochet, but the second match was only a pale shadow of the battle that went before it.

Except for occasional lapses Cochet dominated the play from beginning to end It was a case of the Cochet of today meeting the more youthful and inexperienced Cochet of a few years ago, for the similarity in style of the opponents was instantly apparent. Both drove cautiously from the baseline and both scurried to the net at the least sign of an opening. Both tried for drops and crosses that seemed out of reach.

LOTT WILD

Lott simply failed in stroke control. He drove out of the court time and time again, while Cochet in critical moments had a killing smash and certain placements lurking in his racket. Except for one period in the first set Lott never was in the lead.

The French, with honors even for the first day, apparently took a serious view of the doubles tomorrow and after the matches it was announced Cochet would team with Jacques Brugnon to meet Wilmer Allison and John Van Ryn.

Dittmar went to second on the throw-in. After sizzling a foul down the left-field line, Schulmerich smashed a triple into the left-field corner that scored Statz and Sigafoos. Jacobs drew a walk. Backer captured Haney's lazy liner and Jacobs, who thought the ball was going for a hit, was doubled off first, Backer to Koehler.

ANGELS CHASE VINCI

Vinci was chased in the second when the Cherubs put across another pair of counters to run their lead to 4 to 0. Moore led off with a double and scored on Hannah's smash to left. Truck galloped to second when Rohwer bobbled the ball. Hannah's hit chased Vinci and brought Gould to the mound. Pudgy fielded Baecht's bunt, but it went for a hit when Gould started to throw to third, but had to throw to first when Hannah failed to leave second. Sigafoos smashed an infield hit off Koehler's glove and the bases were bulging. Gould then settled down to some flossy flinging. Statz and Dittmar each forced a man at the plate, after which Gould marred his good work by cutting loose a wild pitch that scored Sigafoos. Pudgy personally threw out Schulmerich to end the round.

The Angels came close to scoring in the fourth but didn't because Hannah isn't as fast as he used to be, if ever. Truck walked and took second on Baecht's out. Sigafoos followed with a towering fly to center that Hoag dashed back for. The ball fell for a double, but Hannah, thinking Hoag might make the catch, got no farther than third. Truck was then caught at the plate on Statz's grounder to Backer, whose throw to Wirts beat Hannah home. Dittmar fanned for the third out.

The Solons made their only real scoring threat in the eighth, when singles by French and Backer put runners on second and third with only one out, but Baecht promptly fanned Osborn and Hoag, Sacramento's two leading hitters, to dispose of the incident and preserve his shutout.

Los Angeles' last two runs came in the eighth, which featured some sprinting by Hannah. Truck led off with a single to left center and galloped to third when Baecht singled to left off Brown's glove. French cut off Rohwer's throw-in and, in an effort to cut Baecht off at second, threw the ball over Backer's head, Hannah scoring and Baecht continuing on to third. Sigafoos's fourth hit of the game, a single to right, brought Baecht over the rubber.

After two were out in the ninth Wirts walked and Steinbacker, batting for Gould, singled, but Baecht tossed out French to end the game. Score:

RABBIT PUNCHES

ORTHODOX TENNIS

EVERYTHING proceeded according to Hoyle in the first day's play of the Davis Cup challenge round. Cochet beat Lott in straight sets and Tilden again turned back Borotra in a hot four-set match.

That leaves the boys all square as they enter the second lap today, and unless all signs fail the United States should be one up at the conclusion of the doubles match.

However, by substituting Brugnon for Borotra France serves notice that a desperate effort will be made to grab the doubles from America's youthful team of Allison and Van Ryn.

Last year Allison and Van Ryn defeated Cochet and Borotra in straight sets. If the Americans repeat their victory this year it will then be necessary for France to take both singles matches on the final day—for Cochet to beat Tilden and Borotra to dispose of Lott.

Substitution of Brugnon gives France a two-way gamble. Brugnon, a weaker singles player than Borotra, may team better with Cochet in the doubles.

And keeping Borotra out of the doubles permits the Basque to enter the third round of play with a day's rest.

SAME OLD STORY

DISPATCHES indicate Big Bill Tilden had flashes of his best tennis in the match with Borotra.

Playing rather poorly in the first set, he got warmed up in the second set, and pulled it out of the fire when the Basque was leading 5-2.

Big Bill ran out five straight games to win.

However, Borotra almost duplicated this feat in the fourth and final set when he pulled up from 1-5 to deuce the set, but was overwhelmed in the last two games.

Tilden's victory was welcome, but there was nothing in his customary triumph over an old adversary to indicate that he can defeat Cochet when that test comes.

Cochet won from Lott with the loss of only six games in three sets, and demonstrated a return to form that was not apparent when he was beaten by Allison at Wimbledon this year.

THE SPEED KING

MIDGET WOLGAST, the flyweight king, certainly has all observers impressed with his speed.

He overshadows Speedy Dado in this respect, and Speedy is about the fastest moving little target we have had in our midst for some time.

The Midget is a regular flea, and if he holds his gymnasium pace for ten rounds when he fights Dado next Tuesday night the ring will resemble a Dakota whirlwind.

HARRY ERTLE'S PANTS

WHO refereed the flyweight championship fight between Fidel La Barba and Frankie Genaro here five years ago?

"Satan" Snyder of the Olympic press forces put the question.

It was a stumper for a minute.

Then there flashed the picture of a slim gent attired in a pair of skin-tight banana colored pants.

Every stoop looked like his last.

But he made the grade for ten rounds, and awarded the flyweight title to La Barba.

His name was Harry Ertle, and he hailed from New Jersey.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25. (AP)—San Francisco's Seals had their batting togs on today and pounded a 12-6 victory off three Oakland pitchers. The Seals took a three-run lead in the first inning and were never headed. They clouted the Oaks' mound corps for nineteen hits. Jacobs twirled a steady game for the locals, although he eased up in the ninth to allow four runs. Score:

YELLOWTAIL ANGLING REMAINS UNCERTAIN

Yellowtail fishing like that for jewfish and tuna continues to remain more or less of an uncertainty for the deep sea angler whereas barracuda, bonito, bass and halibut will be found very active, according to a bulletin issued by Capt. Lew Lockhart of the Star of Scotland at Ocean Park.

The yellowtail has been more or less of a failure for the past few years, the last big runs of these fish taking place during the last summer of 1926. However, better yellowtail fishing this year is indicated, due to the large schools of these fish being reported as coming up the coast and in channel waters offshore.

More than 1000 chickens were destroyed in a fire recently at the Scientific Poultry Breeders' farm at Pudgwick, Eng.

BROOKLYN (N. Y.) July 25. (AP)—Timely hitting in the early innings enabled the Robins to beat "Red" Lucas and the Cincinnati Reds 7 to 2 today. Brooklyn made ten hits off Lucas and nine of them were bunched in the second, third and fourth, for all seven runs.

JOHNNY FREDERICK

Ray Moss started for the Robins but his wildness kept him in trouble and Fred Heimach, former American League southpaw, hurled the last two innings.

Glenn Wright, who drove in three runs with a single and a triple, and Johnny Frederick, whose triple accounted for two more tallies, led the attack. Score:

TERRY SHINES

NEW YORK, July 25. (AP)—For the second day in succession, a home run gave the Giants a victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates as New York triumphed, 3 to 1, today. Up to the eighth, Bill Terry's homer in the second gave the Giants their only margin in a mound duel between Left-handers Clarence Mitchell and Larry French.

An error by Grantham let a third Giant tally cross the plate in the eighth with Glenn Spencer as the victim. The one Pirate run, made in the second on singles by Hemsley and Lloyd Waner and French's sacrifice, was the only one Mitchell has allowed in his last fifteen innings. Score:

BOSTON, July 25. (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals doffed their hats to their old team-mate, Willie Sherdel, today as Sherdel led the Braves in a 5-to-4 triumph over the Cards.

The Braves won in the ninth after Rhem had filled the bases with Richbourg's double, his own muff of Maranville's bunt and a pass to Sisler. Berger's infield out scored Richbourg.

Ray Blades accounted for all of the Cards' runs. His single in the fourth scored Gelbert, who had tripled and he got a homer into the left-field stands in the seventh with two on. Score:

HOLLYWOOD RIDERS TO GALLOP TOMORROW

Facing a vastly improved line-up, the Hollywood Polo and Hunt Club four will clash with the Clover Leaf polo outfit tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 on the Ventura Boulevard field.

Although the Movie City team defeated the Clover squad by a wide margin in the last meeting between the two teams, the latter has been greatly strengthened and should give Hollywood a close battle. Fernando Machell at No. 3 and Dan Samso, a flashy Glendale player at back, are the pair of additions that should trouble Hollywood.

UPLIFTERS SEEK WIN TOMORROW

Hopeful of Victory Over Santa Monica Blues With Lionel Pedley in Saddle

With a revamped line-up the Uplifters' polo team is conceded a splendid chance of breaking the winning streak of the Santa Monica Blues when the teams clash for the fourth time on the Beverly Boulevard field tomorrow afternoon. Lionel Pedley, brother of the famous Eric Pedley of international polo fame, will ride at No. 2 for the Uplifters, his former position at No. 3 being capably filled by big Clair Brunson, one of the most improved players at the club. Both Pedley and Brunson recently had another goal tacked onto their ratings by the handicap committee of the United States Polo Association and they are playing up to their new handicaps with a vengeance. Dr. Rex Duncan at No. 1 and Carl Beal at back complete the Uplifters' quartet.

T. LYELL PUCKETT

There is only a slight change in the line-up of the Blues, Will Rogers, Jr., replacing John Brandeis at No. 1 and this should not weaken the combination at all. Lyell Puckett, a sensational performer, will be at No. 2; Snowy Baker, noted horseman, at No. 3, and Dick Smith at back.

Hugh Blue will referee the contest which starts promptly at 2:30. While the game is open to the public and will be announced play by play from the field, it will also be put on the air over a Hollywood station for the benefit of those who find it inconvenient to attend in person.

Here are complete line-ups:

Uplifters		Santa Monica Blues
Dr. Rex Duncan	No. 1	Will Rogers, Jr.
Lionel Pedley	No. 2	Lyell Puckett
Clair Brunson	No. 3	Snowy Baker
Carl Beal	Back	Dick Smith

HUNGARY LEADING IN CHESS PLAY

HAMBURG (Germany) July 25. (AP)—Hungary today still retained the lead with a total of 41 1-2 points at the close of the fifteenth round of the team tournament of the International Chess Federation here. Poland was a close second with 41 points.

It is about conceded these two countries will be the finalists for the championship, as there are only two more rounds to be played.

Latvia, Spain, Poland, Iceland, Hungary and Holland were winners today. The United States team played a 2-2 tie with England. H. Steiner of New York won and F. J. Marshall, United States champion, and I. Kashdan of New York both drew. J. A. Anderson of St. Louis was a loser.

CANADIAN VET GOLF LEADER

Thompson One Stroke Ahead of Tony Manero

ANCASTER (Ont.) July 25. (AP)—Leading professionals from the United States unleashed one attack after another today, but could not dislodge Nicol Thompson, Sr., veteran Canadian pro, from the lead in the Canadian open golf championship.

LEO DIEGEL

Tonight, with half the seventy-two holes behind him, Thompson, approaching the 50-year mark, led the field by one stroke, with a dozen stars from below the border just behind him. The Canadian, with the advantage of playing over his own course, the links of the Hamilton Country Club, shot a consistent round of 71 today, which with his 66 in the first round gave him a 36-hole total of 137 and the lead by one stroke over Tony Manero of Elmsford, N. Y., who shot his second 69 in as many days for a total of 138.

Tied for third place at 139 were two more stand-bys from the United States, Johnny Farrell of Mamaroneck, N. Y., and Walter Hagen. Farrell produced the most amazing display of golf of the day with a 68, four under par, covering the first nine holes in 31 strokes. Hagen, who took a 70 yesterday, clipped one stroke off that figure today for his total of 139.

Back of this pair were Al Watrous of Detroit and Emmet French of Southern Pines, N. C., with 140. Watrous added a 72 today to his 68 of yesterday, while French reversed that procedure. Four more stars from the United States checked in at the halfway mark with 141. These included George Von Elm of Detroit, who set the pace for the amateurs; Leo Diegel of Agua Caliente, Macdonald Smith of New York and Charles Lacey of Philadelphia.

Still in a contending position at 142 were four Americans and C. Ross Somerville of London, Ont., former Canadian amateur champion. Jim Barnes added another 71 to his total, Tom Kerrigan of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., came through with a 69 after his 73 of yesterday. Tommy Armour, Detroit pro, clipped six strokes off his first day's figures with a 68, and J. Heaney, a comparative unknown from Rochester, N. Y., added a 72 to a first round 70.

Missions Win Over Portland

PORTLAND (Or.) July 25. (AP)—The Missions beat Portland tonight, 5 to 1, behind six hit pitching by young "Dutch" Lieber. This evens the series with two games for each club.

The visitors pounded Walter Mails hard, especially in the second inning, when successive triples by George Burns and Hufft and a wild pitch netted two runs, and in the fourth, when singles by Mulligan, Kelley and Monroe drove in two more. The score:

YANKEES BEST

DETROIT, July 25. (AP)—The Tigers made seven errors today as the New York Yankees won, 14 to 7.

Detroit scored five runs in the first, driving Ed Wells from the mound, but tossed away the lead in the next four frames. The Tiger errors made Waite Hoyt the main victim. Hoyt was taken out in the sixth after the Yankees had scored nine runs, only two of them earned. Elon Hogsett finished. Roy Johnson made three misplays.

Lou Gehrig put the Yankees ahead in the fifth by hitting his twenty-ninth home run with one mate on base. After New York had scored three runs in the fourth to tie the score Easterling also hit a homer. Score:

Aidan Roark Hurt in Fall

BEAUFORT PARK (Wiltshire, Eng.) July 25. (AP)—Aidan Roark, member of the British polo team which will invade the United States in September, was injured today, when he was tossed from his pony in the fourth period of a match between the Hurlingham and Beaufort Park team. Roark fell on his head, receiving a concussion. Hurlingham, with Capt. R. George, Gerald Balding, Capt. C. T. Roark and Lewis Lacey, defeated Beaufort Park quartet, 10 to 5.

Wolgast Wants Small Man as Arbiter in Bout With Speedy Dado Here

Midget Wolgast wants a little man to referee his ten-round bout with Speedy Dado at the Olympic Tuesday night. The flyweight champion made his distinction known through his manager, Johnny Keyes, yesterday, to Olympic officials.

SPEEDY DADO

The clubs have named their own referees since the recent episode when Bert Wallis is claimed to have raised the wrong hand in the Dado-Chato Laredo bout at Hollywood.

The champion's views will be given consideration by Promoter Jack Doyle. The top-notch men now officiating run to different sizes and make-ups. Billy Burke is a six-footer and well built. Lieut. Jack Kennedy is rotund and weighs around 200 pounds. Duke Kenworthy is middle-sized. Abe Roth is the real flyweight of the lot.

Wolgast's handlers realize that this fight is apt to be very close since looking at Dado shape up for the bout. Keyes admits that Dado is the best flyweight he has seen outside Wolgast, whom he picks to win on tremendous speed.

"Big referees, who can't get around, would slow this fight down," says Keyes. "I know from experience with Wolgast's fights. It will take a fast-stepping referee to keep in sight of Wolgast and Dado.

"The champion and I aren't kicking, but Wolgast has a lot at stake and all we ask is an even break." Keyes did not express any preference since he is not acquainted with the referees working in California.

Wolgast and Dado both worked at top speed yesterday. The Main-street gymnasium was packed for the third day in a row. Carlo Curtis is enjoying prosperity with both the flyweight and light-heavyweight champion, Maxie Rosenbloom, working there daily.

The title-holder said he would not scale over 110 pounds for Dado. The Filipino is around 113 pounds and will have to hold this heft since he must be over the flyweight limit.

Rosenbloom will remain here over Sunday before going to San Francisco to box. Talk was revived yesterday for a Rosenbloom-Ace Hudkins rematch while Maxie is on the Coast. Hudkins is in training.

YANKEE TRACK STARS WIN AT HELSINGFORS

HELSINGFORS (Finland) July 25. (AP)—America's touring track-and-field athletes made a clean sweep of the events in which they entered in a meet at Abo today.

Reginald (Pete) Bowen of the University of Pittsburgh won the 100 meters in 11.2s. and the 400 meters in 48.4s. C. Pendleton won the 200-meter dash in 22.7s. and the 100-meter high hurdles went to Steve Anderson of the University of Washington in 15.1s. Tommy Warne of Northwestern won the pole vault, clearing 12ft. 9 1-2in.

AFTER-DARK ANGLING GROWING POPULAR

Now that practically all Southern California sports are being conducted at night, Capt. J. M. Andersen, skipper of the big Olympic fishing barge at Hermosa Beach, advises that after-dark angling is getting to be very popular with Southland anglers.

All night hourly tender service to the Olympic will be available tonight with a record crowd expected to be on hand.

TILDEN WINS; LOTT BEATEN

play that Borotra would overcome the jinx that has followed him in Tilden matches.

That joy grew and flourished for the major part of the second set, for Borotra, sure and accurate, varying the depth and pace of his ground strokes and implacable at the net, took the first, third, fourth, fifth and seventh games to lead, 5-2. It was the critical point of the match and Tilden, casting aside his nervousness, rose to meet it.

Big Bill's service, erratic and unsure in the earlier stages, began to slap across the net with its usual regularity. He took the eighth game with two placement beauties and finished off the ninth with a service ace. Then he ran out the set at 7-5 and was never seriously endangered again.

From that moment on Bill was hitting harder, placing more accurately and getting in to the net to worry the Basque with cross volleys that couldn't be touched. Bill was on the offensive and Borotra no longer could profit from errors. The Basque had the fight of his life on his hands.

Borotra got a brief lead in the third set with the games 4-3 in his favor. The seventh game was all Borotra's as he started with a service ace, drove to 40-love, then smashed another ace across to win. Tilden, who wasn't ready, disputed the point, but Umpire Redelsperber held Bill had signaled for delay too late.

TILDEN CHEERED

The crowd, intensely partisan, booed and whistled. Bill, as he walked around the net, seemed upset and almost out of control. The nervousness didn't last long, though.

He evened the score at 4-all with two service aces after deuce and ran out the remainder of the set in short order. Tired out, but game, Borotra fought hard in the last set. With the count 4-0 and 5-1 against him he squared it at 5-all. Tilden broke through on the eleventh game, however, and finished his job in the twelfth with a mighty ace.

The crowd, eagerly partisan as it was, gave Big Bill the cheer of his life as he walked off the court. It cheered just as heartily when George Lott came on to face Cochet, but the second match was only a pale shadow of the battle that went before it.

Except for occasional lapses Cochet dominated the play from beginning to end. It was a case of the Cochet of today meeting the more youthful and inexperienced Cochet of a few years ago, for the similarity in style of the opponents was instantly apparent. Both drove cautiously from the baseline and both scurried to the net at the least sign of an opening. Both tried for drops and crosses that seemed out of reach.

LOTT WILD

Lott simply failed in stroke control. He drove out of the court time and time again, while Cochet in critical moments had a killing smash and certain placements lurking in his racket. Except for one period in the first set Lott never was in the lead.

The French, with honors even for the first day, apparently took a serious view of the doubles tomorrow and after the matches it was announced Cochet would team with Jacques Brugnon to meet Wilmer Allison and John Van Ryn.

ANGELS CHASE VINCI

Vinci was chased in the second when the Cherubs put across another pair of counters to run their lead to 4 to 0. Moore led off with a double and scored on Hannah's smash to left. Truck galloped to second when Rohwer bobbled the ball. Hannah's hit chased Vinci and brought Gould to the mound. Pudgy fielded Baecht's bunt, but it went for a hit when Gould started to throw to third, but had to throw to first when Hannah failed to leave second. Sigafoos smashed an infield hit off Koehler's glove and the bases were bulging. Gould then settled down to some flossy flinging. Statz and Dittmar each forced a man at the plate, after which Gould marred his good work by cutting loose a wild pitch that scored Sigafoos. Pudgy personally threw out Schulmerich to end the round.

The Angels came close to scoring in the fourth but didn't because Hannah isn't as fast as he used to be, if ever. Truck walked and took second on Beacht's out. Sigafoos followed with a towering fly to center that Hoag dashed back for. The ball fell for a double, but Hannah, thinking Hoag might make the catch, got no farther than third. Truck was then caught at the plate on Statz's grounder to Backer, whose throw to Wirts beat Hannah home. Dittmar fanned for the third out.

The Solons made their only real scoring threat in the eighth, when singles by French and Backer put runners on second and third with only one out, but Baecht promptly fanned Osborn and Hoag, Sacramento's two leading hitters, to dispose of the incident and preserve his shutout.

Los Angeles' last two runs came in the eighth, which featured some sprinting by Hannah. Truck led off with a single to left center and galloped to third when Baecht singled to left off Brown's glove. French cut off Rohwer's throw-in and, in an effort to cut Baecht off at second, threw the ball over Backer's head, Hannah scoring and Baecht continuing on to third. Sigafoos's fourth hit of the game, a single to right, brought Baecht over the rubber.

After two were out in the ninth Wirts walked and Steinbacker, batting for Gould, singled, but Baecht tossed out French to end the game. Score:

ORTHODOX TENNIS

EVERYTHING proceeded according to Hoyle in the first day's play of the Davis Cup challenge round. Cochet beat Lott in straight sets and Tilden again turned back Borotra in a hot four-set match.

That leaves the boys all square as they enter the second lap today, and unless all signs fail the United States should be one up at the conclusion of the doubles match.

However, by substituting Brugnon for Borotra France serves notice that a desperate effort will be made to grab the doubles from America's youthful team of Allison and Van Ryn.

Last year Allison and Van Ryn defeated Cochet and Borotra in straight sets. If the Americans repeat their victory this year it will then be necessary for France to take both singles matches on the final day—for Cochet to beat Tilden and Borotra to dispose of Lott.

Substitution of Brugnon gives France a two-way gamble. Brugnon, a weaker singles player than Borotra, may team better with Cochet in the doubles.

And keeping Borotra out of the doubles permits the Basque to enter the third round of play with a day's rest.

SAME OLD STORY

DISPATCHES indicate Big Bill Tilden had flashes of his best tennis in the match with Borotra.

Playing rather poorly in the first set, he got warmed up in the second set, and pulled it out of the fire when the Basque was leading 5-2.

Big Bill ran out five straight games to win.

However, Borotra almost duplicated this feat in the fourth and final set when he pulled up from 1-5 to deuce the set, but was overwhelmed in the last two games.

Tilden's victory was welcome, but there was nothing in his customary triumph over an old adversary to indicate that he can defeat Cochet when that test comes.

Cochet won from Lott with the loss of only six games in three sets, and demonstrated a return to form that was not apparent when he was beaten by Allison at Wimbledon this year.

THE SPEED KING

MIDGET WOLGAST, the flyweight king, certainly has all observers impressed with his speed.

He overshadows Speedy Dado in this respect, and Speedy is about the fastest moving little target we have had in our midst for some time.

The Midget is a regular flea, and if he holds his gymnasium pace for ten rounds when he fights Dado next Tuesday night the ring will resemble a Dakota whirlwind.

HARRY ERTLE'S PANTS

WHO refereed the flyweight championship fight between Fidel La Barba and Frankie Genaro here five years ago?

"Satan" Snyder of the Olympic press forces put the question.

It was a stumper for a minute.

Then there flashed the picture of a slim gent attired in a pair of skin-tight banana colored pants.

Every stoop looked like his last.

But he made the grade for ten rounds, and awarded the flyweight title to La Barba.

His name was Harry Ertle, and he hailed from New Jersey.

Seals Easily Trim Acorns

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25. (AP)—San Francisco's Seals had their batting togs on today and pounded a 12-6 victory off three Oakland pitchers. The Seals took a three-run lead in the first inning and were never headed. They clouted the Oaks' mound corps for nineteen hits. Jacobs twirled a steady game for the locals, although he eased up in the ninth to allow four runs. Score:

YELLOWTAIL ANGLING REMAINS UNCERTAIN

Yellowtail fishing like that for jewfish and tuna continues to remain more or less of an uncertainty for the deep sea angler whereas barracuda, bonito, bass and halibut will be found very active, according to a bulletin issued by Capt. Lew Lockhart of the Star of Scotland at Ocean Park.

The yellowtail has been more or less of a failure for the past few years, the last big runs of these fish taking place during the last summer of 1926. However, better yellowtail fishing this year is indicated, due to the large schools of these fish being reported as coming up the coast and in channel waters offshore.

More than 1000 chickens were destroyed in a fire recently at the Scientific Poultry Breeders' farm at Pudgwick, Eng.

BROOKLYN (N. Y.) July 25. (AP)—Timely hitting in the early innings enabled the Robins to beat "Red" Lucas and the Cincinnati Reds 7 to 2 today. Brooklyn made ten hits off Lucas and nine of them were bunched in the second, third and fourth for all seven runs.

JOHNNY FREDERICK

Ray Moss started for the Robins but his wildness kept him in trouble and Fred Heimach, former American League southpaw, hurled the last two innings.

Glenn Wright, who drove in three runs with a single and a triple, and Johnny Frederick, whose triple accounted for two more tallies, led the attack. Score:

TERRY SHINES

NEW YORK, July 25. (AP)—For the second day in succession, a home run gave the Giants a victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates as New York triumphed, 3 to 1, today. Up to the eighth, Bill Terry's homer in the second gave the Giants their only margin in a mound duel between Left-handers Clarence Mitchell and Larry French.

An error by Grantham let a third Giant tally cross the plate in the eighth with Glenn Spencer as the victim. The one Pirate run, made in the second on singles by Hemsley and Lloyd Waner and French's sacrifice, was the only one Mitchell has allowed in his last fifteen innings. Score:

BRAVES BEST

BOSTON, July 25. (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals doffed their hats to their old team-mate, Willie Sherdel, today as Sherdel led the Braves in a 5-to-4 triumph over the Cards.

The Braves won in the ninth after Rhem had filled the bases with Richbourg's double, his own muff of Maranville's bunt and a pass to Sisler. Berger's infield out scored Richbourg.

Ray Blades accounted for all of the Cards' runs. His single in the fourth scored Gelbert, who had tripled and he got a homer into the left-field stands in the seventh with two on. Score:

HOLLYWOOD RIDERS TO GALLOP TOMORROW

Facing a vastly improved line-up, the Hollywood Polo and Hunt Club four will clash with the Clover Leaf polo outfit tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 on the Ventura Boulevard field.

Although the Movie City team defeated the Clover squad by a wide margin in the last meeting between the two teams, the latter has been greatly strengthened and should give Hollywood a close battle. Fernando Machell at No. 3 and Dan Samso, a flashy Glendale player at back, are the pair of additions that should trouble Hollywood.

UPLIFTERS SEEK WIN TOMORROW

Hopeful of Victory Over Santa Monica Blues With Lionel Pedley in Saddle

With a revamped line-up the Uplifters' polo team is conceded a splendid chance of breaking the winning streak of the Santa Monica Blues when the teams clash for the fourth time on the Beverly Boulevard field tomorrow afternoon. Lionel Pedley, brother of the famous Eric Pedley of international polo fame, will ride at No. 2 for the Uplifters, his former position at No. 3 being capably filled by big Clair Brunson, one of the most improved players at the club. Both Pedley and Brunson recently had another goal tacked onto their ratings by the handicap committee of the United States Polo Association and they are playing up to their new handicaps with a vengeance. Dr. Rex Duncan at No. 1 and Carl Beal at back complete the Uplifters' quartet.

T. LYELL PUCKETT

There is only a slight change in the line-up of the Blues, Will Rogers, Jr., replacing John Brandeis at No. 1 and this should not weaken the combination at all. Lyell Puckett, a sensational performer, will be at No. 2; Snowy Baker, noted horseman, at No. 3, and Dick Smith at back.

Hugh Blue will referee the contest which starts promptly at 2:30. While the game is open to the public and will be announced play by play from the field, it will also be put on the air over a Hollywood station for the benefit of those who find it inconvenient to attend in person.

Here are complete line-ups:

Uplifters		Santa Monica Blues
Dr. Rex Duncan	No. 1	Will Rogers, Jr.
Lionel Pedley	No. 2	Lyell Puckett
Clair Brunson	No. 3	Snowy Baker
Carl Beal	Back	Dick Smith

HUNGARY LEADING IN CHESS PLAY

HAMBURG (Germany) July 25. (AP)—Hungary today still retained the lead with a total of 41 1-2 points at the close of the fifteenth round of the team tournament of the International Chess Federation here. Poland was a close second with 41 points.

It is about conceded these two countries will be the finalists for the championship, as there are only two more rounds to be played.

Latvia, Spain, Poland, Iceland, Hungary and Holland were winners today. The United States team played a 2-2 tie with England. H. Steiner of New York won and F. J. Marshall, United States champion, and I. Kashdan of New York both drew. J. A. Anderson of St. Louis was a loser.

CANADIAN VET GOLF LEADER

Thompson One Stroke Ahead of Tony Manero

ANCASTER (Ont.) July 25. (AP)—Leading professionals from the United States unleashed one attack after another today, but could not dislodge Nicol Thompson, Sr., veteran Canadian pro, from the lead in the Canadian open golf championship.

LEO DIEGEL

Tonight, with half the seventy-two holes behind him, Thompson, approaching the 50-year mark, led the field by one stroke, with a dozen stars from below the border just behind him. The Canadian, with the advantage of playing over his own course, the links of the Hamilton Country Club, shot a consistent round of 71 today, which with his 66 in the first round gave him a 36-hole total of 137 and the lead by one stroke over Tony Manero of Elmsford, N. Y., who shot his second 69 in as many days for a total of 138.

Tied for third place at 139 were two more stand-bys from the United States, Johnny Farrell of Mamaroneck, N. Y., and Walter Hagen. Farrell produced the most amazing display of golf of the day with a 66, four under par, covering the first nine holes in 31 strokes. Hagen, who took a 70 yesterday, clipped one stroke off that figure today for his total of 139.

Back of this pair were Al Watrous of Detroit and Emmet French of Southern Pines, N. C., with 140. Watrous added a 72 today to his 68 of yesterday, while French reversed that procedure. Four more stars from the United States checked in at the halfway mark with 141. These included George Von Elm of Detroit, who set the pace for the amateurs; Leo Diegel of Agua Caliente, Macdonald Smith of New York and Charles Lacey of Philadelphia.

Still in a contending position at 142 were four Americans and C. Ross Somerville of London, Ont., former Canadian amateur champion. Jim Barnes added another 71 to his total, Tom Kerrigan of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., came through with a 69 after his 73 of yesterday. Tommy Armour, Detroit pro, clipped six strokes off his first day's figures with a 68, and J. Heaney, a comparative unknown from Rochester, N. Y., added a 72 to a first round 70.

The leaders:

Nicol Thompson, Sr., Hamilton	66	71—137
Tony Manero, Elmsford, N. Y.	69	69—138
Johnny Farrell, Mamaroneck, N. Y.	73	66—139
Walter Hagen, Detroit	70	69—139
Emmet French, Southern Pines, N. C.	72	68—140
Al Watrous, Detroit	68	72—140
Macdonald Smith, New York	70	71—141
xGeorge Von Elm, Detroit	71	70—141
Leo Diegel, Agua Caliente	69	72—141
Charles Lacey, Philadelphia	68	73—141
xC. Ross Somerville, London, Ont.	74	68—142
Tom Kerrigan, Mt. Vernon, N. Y.	73	69—142
Jim Barnes, New York	71	71—142
J. Heaney, Rochester, N. Y.	70	72—142
Tommy Armour, Detroit	74	68—142
Gene Kunes, Erie, Pa.	72	71—143
Charles Murray, Montreal	70	73—143

The biggest disappointments of the day were Horton Smith, pro at the Cragston (New York) club, and Ed Dudley of Wilmington, Del. Dudley, who was up among the leaders with a 69 yesterday, needed 75 today for a thirty-six-hole total of 144.

PORTLAND (Or.) July 25. (AP) The Missions beat Portland tonight, 5 to 1, behind six hit pitching by young "Dutch" Leiber. This evens the series with two games for each club.

The visitors pounded Walter Mails hard, especially in the second inning, when successive triples, by George Burns and Hufft and a wild pitch netted two runs, and in the fourth, when singles by Mulligan, Kelley and Monroe drove in two more. The score:

E. B. Rider of Metropolitan Water District Says

District Association Hears Plans at Riverside

RIVERSIDE, July 25.—E. B. Rider, assistant engineer for the Metropolitan water district, speaking at a meeting of the Metropolitan Water District Advancement Association in the American Legion Clubhouse last night, stated that the consulting board of three eminent engineers will probably select the route for the proposed aqueduct from the Colorado River next month. This will be done during its visit to the Pacific Coast to study data on a half dozen routes that have been surveyed.

Rider expressed the opinion that the average cost of routes for the aqueduct, construction of the same, the general work in connection with it and storage reservoirs for distribution will probably be in the neighborhood of $200,000,000. He stated further the opinion it is likely that the district will be able to distribute water, retail, to consumers in the cities within the district for 15 cents per cubic foot, which, he said, is lower than the cost of water in many important cities in California at this time.

Also, should the total amount of water deliveries be consumed at that price he stated, the income would be sufficient to take care of the costs, including interest, depreciation, retirement of bonds, and other items after the date of beginning delivery of water. Prior to that time, the participation of any city would be paid for out of general taxes.

There were in attendance at the meeting nearly 100 representatives of different cities within the Metropolitan district, the official family of the city of Riverside and prominent officials of the district. Among these was Paul Schwab, Mayor of Beverly Hills and attorney for the district, who predicted that Arizona will get nowhere in its efforts to secure an injunction against the Black Canyon Dam construction.

Reception Given for Dr. Burden

INGLEWOOD, July 24.—Attesting their appreciation of the work he has done in their church and community during the four years of his pastorate the membership of the First Methodist Church last evening held a largely attended reception in compliment to Rev. Thomas L. Burden and his family, in the church parlors.

Several hundred local residents took occasion to call during the evening and express their gratitude at the return of Dr. Burden to the local pastorate for the ensuing year and to congratulate him upon his many valuable achievements while he has been in this city. The event followed the regular Wednesday evening prayer meeting, and was in charge of Lloyd Lash.

Dr. Charles Dean of the local Christian Church spoke briefly to the assemblage on behalf of the local Ministerial Association, and Roy Powers, representing the membership of the church, voiced its pleasure at retaining for another term the services of Dr. Burden, who, prior to his acceptance of the local pulpit four years ago, had been stationed in Santa Monica for several years.

His activities in California extend over a period of seventeen years, and during that time he has attained a place of marked prominence among the clergy of all denomination, it is declared.

AUTO RACE ON TONIGHT'S BILL

Speed Merchants Perform at Legion Track

After-Dark Program on Tap Again for Fans

Jimmy Sharp Will be Target of Rival Drivers

Night auto racing—held nowhere else in the world—gets its second presentation of the season tonight at the Legion Ascot Speedway when in the neighborhood of thirty drivers will vie for several thousand dollars' prize money in a program of six races.

JIMMY SHARP.

Last week's premiere of the after-dark sport was a huge success, it is claimed by Dr. Fred Loring, head of the speedway contest board. Some 8000 speed-crazed fans turned out to witness the races, which, under the artificial illumination, contain two thrills for one of the day competition.

Chief interest this evening will center around the efforts of the rest of the castor-oil knights to stop the phenomenal winning streak of Jimmy Sharp, the smiling San Pedro youngster whose reckless maneuvering of his Garnant Special is the talk of the racing world.

Winning the three major events last week brought Sharp's victories this year to a point where every other dirt-track throttle thumper is determined to do something about it. Therefore Francis Quinn has remodeled his Miller Special for tonight, Walt May has taken over the high-speed Padre Special, Ted Simpson has rejuvenated his Miller, and "Speed" Hinkley, Charley Geiston, Carl Ryder, and a flock of other intrepid pilots have spent unlimited time and no small amounts of money in preparing for the fireworks.

The races will consist of the Helmet dash, three ten-lap sprints, forty-lap Chief Kelley Sweepstakes, and a ten-lap consolation.

Charles Kelley, Chief of Police at Pasadena, will preside as referee and has donated a handsome trophy which he will give to the driver coming home ahead of the pack in the forty-lap contest.

Lighting facilities, which were declared last week to be the best obtainable, have been slightly changed and improved for tonight, especially where the south curve is affected. This dangerous portion of the five-eighths-of-a-mile saucer is the spot where most of the disasters have occurred and better illumination there will enable the drivers to attain even greater speed.

The curtain will go up on the program at 8:30 while the gates of the track will be thrown open at 7 o'clock. The races will be broadcast over KHJ.

LEHMAN, COUCH IN GOLF FINALS

par-fracturing golf on the in nine of the morning round and on his outward journey under a blazing sun in the afternoon. The first nine holes resembled a dog fight.

After having halved the first hole, Lehman started his procession by bagging a par 5 on the second when the Briton started the hooking epidemic that robbed him of his usually fine game. Perkins squared the match for the first and last time on the third with a par 3 and at the quarter turn Lehman had him one down.

The second nine was a veritable massacre. Playing his groove swing perfectly, Johnny shot seven perfect holes, went one over par on one and squared his accounuts with par by getting a birdie for a nine-hole total of 35. The outburst on the tough course hiked his margin to a big 5 up as he went to lunch.

Going out in the afternoon Lehman was better than ever, shooting a 35, one stroke under par, while Perkins stumbled along with a bad 40, and made the three-quarters turn eight down. The twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth were halved in pars and it was all over.

Stymies enabled Couch to stop McCrary. Four times he stymied the Scot and three times the obstacle meant lost holes.

McCrary started out as if to make short work of his younger rival, winning the first three holes with par golf as Couch hooked wildly. The turning point came quickly on the fourth hole when Couch knocked in a birdie 3. He also won the fifth when McCrary began to crack, and finished the nine by winning the eighth and ninth holes to overtake and then lead his opponent.

McCrary knotted it again with a birdie 4 on the second hole on the afternoon round, only to have Couch go two up again by winning the fourth and sixth holes. Couch went three up on the eleventh when McCrary got tangled up with some trees. On the thirteenth the Scot took advantage of a bad hook by his rival and won the hole with a par 4.

Couch bounded three up again on the fifteenth and was dormie 3. McCrary fought back hard to win the sixteenth, but it was all over when they halved the seventeenth in 3's.

Lehman will enter the finals tomorrow a big favorite. He defeated Lloyd Nordstrom, Davenport, Iowa, 4 and 3, in the first round; George Dawson, Chicago, 3 and 1, in the second, and Don Moe, 1 up, after thirty-seven holes in the quarter-final. Couch has had an easier path, defeating rivals with lesser reputations.

GREETING WAITS JAPANESE LINER

New Kinai Maru to Receive Warm Welcome

Port and City Officialdom Plans Reception

Fete Planned as Gesture of Good Will to Line

BY WALDO DRAKE

A spirited welcome by all Southland commercial interests will be accorded the new Japanese motorliner Kinai Maru at sunset tomorrow when she enters Los Angeles Harbor after a record-breaking passage from Yokohama—having negotiated the 4839-mile voyage in eleven days and six hours. Port Manager Burt Edwards, members of the Board of Harbor Commissioners, and executives of the chambers of commerce of Los Angeles, San Pedro and Wilmington will meet the eighteen-knot speedster at quarantine.

The welcome will be recognition not only of the ship's record passage, but also of the inauguration of Osaka Shosen Kaisha's Yokohama-Los Angeles-New York express freight service and establishment of Los Angeles Harbor as a regular silk trans-shipment port. The Kinai Maru is the first of six brand-new motor freighters, which with three steamers of older design, will maintain a fortnightly schedule, in lieu of O.S.K.'s previous thirty-day schedule.

Capt. Toru Yamaguchi, who is bringing the Kinai Maru across on her maiden trip, recently celebrated completion of his hundredth round voyage on the trans-Pacific run. Company officials to greet him upon arrival will include Shigeyo Mimoto, O.S.K. district manager, and Harold C. Smith and Richard Graham, district manager and terminal superintendent, respectively, of Williams, Dimond & Co., O.S.K. local representative.

The Kinai Maru's million-dollar silk shipment of 1267 bales will be loaded aboard special baggage cars immediately after she docks at Berth 228-E, Terminal Island, and is scheduled to be delivered in New York via the Union Pacific system in seventy-four hours, or 344 hours after it was loaded in Japan.

Speed of the new O.S.K. cargo fleet, according to shipping leaders, assures the local port a prominent place among silk-distributing harbors of the world. This same speedy fleet will also exalt the port's trade contacts with the Orient, since Los Angeles Harbor will be the only Pacific Coast port of call.

CALL OF KERR LINE SHIP HELD SIGNIFICANT

Imminent inclusion of Los Angeles Harbor as a regular port of call for all freight motorships of the Kerr Line's globe-girdling fleet is foreseen in the arrival here of the Silveryew today from New York. While General Steamship Corporation officials who represent the line would not admit such a move under way, they would not deny it.

Heretofore the fleet has made San Francisco its only Pacific Coast port of call. The Silveryew will lift cargo here and sail next week for the Bay City and West. She is one of six new fifteen-knot motorships put on the globe circuit a year ago.

Three other Kerr ships of other services also will be in port today. The Silvermaple is discharging from its Manila-Singapore run; the Silverlarch is loading 200,000 cases of kerosene for Calcutta and Bombay, and the Silverspruce is due today from Java and Calcutta.

South American republics will send a generous representation to the Pan American Reciprocal Trade Conference at Sacramento August 25-30, according to Charles Cottrell, who returned on the McCormick steamer West Camargo yesterday. The vessel came back from Rio and Buenos Aires with a capacity cargo, and 2500 tons, a record, for discharge here. It comprised largely coffee and canned beef.

John Gabelich's ninety-five-foot Belle Isle, latest of the larger type fishing boats, will be given her trial trip at 9 a.m. tomorrow, leaving the foot of Tenth street, San Pedro, for a cruise to Catalina Island and back. Propelled by a 350-horsepower Western Enterprise Diesel, Belle Isle is said to be one of the first such craft on the Pacific to receive a rating of Class A1E by the American Bureau of Shipping. She is designed as a four-purpose boat, that is, as a purse seiner, bait boat, sardine fisherman and tug. Parke & Kibele, her builders, will participate in the occasion tomorrow. The vessel will go into commission in a few days and will fish for French Sardine Company.

Col. F. C. Wiser, recently appointed to the Board of Harbor Commissioners, was yesterday confirmed as a member of the board of control of the Harbor Belt Line Railway. He succeeds to the post vacated by Emerson Spear, whose term as a harbor commissioner has expired.

Capt. (Silent George) Yardley will bring the Dollar trans-Pacific liner President Cleveland in from China at noon today with fifty-five cabin passengers and 1500 tons of cargo. Among the passengers is Mrs. George J. McCarthy, wife of the Dollar Line assistant general passenger agent at Shanghai.

News of Ships and Sailings at Pacific Ports

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25. (AP)—Matson Line officials today announced the Emperor of Japan has approved the scheduled visit of the liner Malolo to the sacred island of Miyajima, during the vessel's around-the-Pacific cruise this fall.

Miyajima is a small island off the coast of Japan to which no one is admitted except by special permission from the Emperor. Until recent years, births and deaths were not permitted on the island. Sick persons were taken to the mainland to die.

PORTLAND (Or.) July 25.—The Hamburg-American steamer Vancouver is in Portland Harbor loading wheat, doors, plywood, lumber and prunes for European ports. Tomorrow she moves down to Astoria to receive frozen and mild cured fish.

Inward freight on the Vancouver included large shipments of salt, steel and wire.

TACOMA, July 25.—Figures on June shipping announced here today show that 109,727 doors were exported during that month. This figure, according to C. E. James, harbormaster, is the second largest in the history of the port. The Atlantic Coast was the heaviest domestic purchaser and the United Kingdom the largest foreign.

Large cargoes of lumber are being taken aboard two Japanese vessels, the Tohsei Maru and Africa Maru, here tonight. Another Japanese visitor, the Olympia Maru, sailed late tonight for Olympia, where she will finish loading lumber.

SEATTLE, July 25.—Shippers here regarded the contract rate of $8 per 1000 feet of lumber, and noncontract rate of $10, issued for August by the United States Lumber Conference, as striking back at lumber shippers who were booking space at as low as $8.50.

The conference contract and noncontract rates on lumber of $11 and $13, respectively, previously set for August, was regarded as too heavy a burden for the trade in its present condition by other shippers.

Ira J. Diem, one of the best-known members of Coast shipping circles, was announced today as new district manager here for the Vancouver and San Francisco firm of T. A. Lee and Holway, by T. A. Lee, Vancouver.

This followed announcement by the concern it would establish a branch here to handle the Reardon-Smith Line and other business. Diem has been general freight agent for the McCormick Steamship Company.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, July 25. (AP)—Rallies from an opening decline in cotton today on week-end covering promoted by the failure of weather reports to show rains in the Southwest met renewed liquidation and scattered selling which was probably encouraged by reports of further showers in the central belt and the failure of buying to become more aggresive on the advances.

New October contracts, after selling off to 12.42 early, rallied to 12.64, but later reacted to 12.44 with the more active positions ruling about 6 to 8 points net lower around 2 o'clock.

Weekly Trade Survey Sounds Note of Cheer

NEW YORK, July 25. (AP)—Dun's review tomorrow will say:

A broad survey of the commercial situation makes it plain that adjustments to new conditions are continuing, yet a better tone in some quarters has been an encouraging feature of late. The stronger sentiment, which also prevails in financial circles, is predicated chiefly upon prospective gains in business, evidences of actual expansion still being scattered.

No widespread increase of activity, however, was to be expected during what is traditionally one of the quietest periods, and there are special reasons at this time for more than the usual seasonal curtailment of operations.

The basis for the more hopeful feeling now disclosed is the fact that the change from summer to autumn is accompanied by a natural quickening of trade, and at least some manifestation of this trend is to be looked for this year. Moreover, the economic transition, although not yet completed, has progressed to a point where stabilization has been brought nearer, with the restriction of outputs, the reduction of available stocks of various goods and the lowering of prices to levels that are more attractive to buyers being among the elements which ultimately should be stimulating. Such phases invariably follow an acute disturbance, but their far-reaching scope may be regarded as foreshadowing eventual revival.

FAST FREIGHT IMPELS STEP

Southern Pacific Proposal to Buy Cotton Belt Line Influenced by Imperial Valley Traffic

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Perishable shipments from the Imperial Valley are mainly responsible for the plans of the Southern Pacific to acquire the St. Louis Southwestern Railway. Passenger and other freight traffic are relatively unimportant influences in this expansion step.

By far the greater amount of perishable cars from the Imperial Valley are distributed by the Southern Pacific to middle western and eastern points over the St. Louis Southwestern. Traffic figures show the Cotton Belt line receives substantially larger shipments of this character from the Southern Pacific than either the Rock Island or Texas Pacific.

TRAFFIC HEAVY

Annually the Southern Pacific transports from the Imperial Valley thousands of cars of cantaloupes, lettuce and other perishables. This traffic commands a high freight rate and requires expeditious and careful handling by the carriers. Presumably the Southern Pacific obtains a satisfactory profit on this business as the exclusive line at the point of origin, but a considerable portion of the revenue is paid over to the Cotton Belt as the chief connecting line into the Middle West.

Ownership of this natural channel for perishable shipments into the great central markets would be expected to increase Southern Pacific's profits, and possibly improve the service to shippers. In making its application to the Interstate Commerce Commission for authority to purchase control of the Cotton Belt, the Southern Pacific will likely emphasize these arguments.

Corsicana, Tex., is the main point of interconnection for Southern Pacific traffic consigned over the Cotton Belt. From this point the Cotton Belt runs through Oklahoma and Arkansas into St. Louis.

ROCK ISLAND DROPPED

Several years ago a physical alliance between the Rock Island and Southern Pacific was under consideration, but the two carriers failed to agree on terms. The first step in this direction was taken by the Espee when it purchased the El Paso and Southwestern, the connecting line between the Rock Island and the Southern Pacific.

Because of an intensive improvement campaign for the extension of lines, introduction of operating economies and betterment of physical facilities, the Cotton Belt has not yet, according to a statement last year by President Daniel Upthegrove, reached its normal level of earning power. In 1928 the road earned $4.67 a share on the common. Ultimate reduction of about $1,700,000 in operating expenses was expected to first affect earnings in 1930.

MILEAGE LARGEST

Southern Pacific now owns, as announced the other day, a substantial amount of preferred and common, and holds an option to acquire control if the Interstate Commerce Commission permits. Under normal conditions the ownership of this line would add from $6 to $7 a share annually to Southern Pacific earnings.

Addition of the 1800-mile Cotton Belt system would also intrench Southern Pacific further as the largest American railroad system. In the United States and Mexico this system now totals 16,717 miles, which would be raised to approximately 18,517 with the Cotton Belt. The Southern Pacific also operates 3700 miles of steamship lines, bringing its total transportation mileage to 22,217.

Nearest to the Southern Pacific is the Missouri Pacific with 12,392 miles. This line is controlled by the Van Sweringens, who dominate a total of 22,833 railroad miles, which are not, however, tied into a single system.

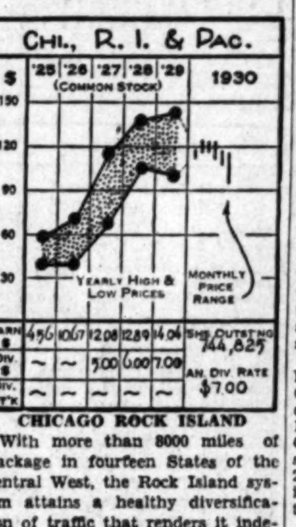
WHAT'S BEHIND YOUR STOCK



CHICAGO ROCK ISLAND

With more than 8000 miles of trackage in fourteen States of the Central West, the Rock Island system attains a healthy diversification of traffic that renders it independent of the fluctuations in any one industry. The two main arteries of the road extend from Chicago and Minneapolis via Des Moines and Omaha to Denver, and from Chicago and St. Louis via Kansas City into the rich oil fields of Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas. Products of mines constitute about 36 per cent of total freight traffic, products of agriculture 23 per cent, and manufactures and miscellaneous, 29 per cent.

With the rapid development of the petroleum industry in Texas and Oklahoma during the past ten years, the company has been able to steadily expand its earning power from $1.22 per share in 1923 to $12.89 in 1928, and $14.04 last year. The poor first quarter showing of a deficit of 80 cents per share is not as disappointing as it appears when it is noted that the period of Rock Island's greatest earning power is the last six months of the year. In 1929, for instance, almost $12 of the $14.04 reported per share was earned in the last half of the year.

CAPITALIZATION

Funded debt, $309,995,835; preferred stock ($100 par,) 545,695 shares; common stock ($100 par,) 744,825 shares.

Current Data: Despite the recession in business, the improvement program which has been in progress for the past several years is being continued unabated.

TRACTOR IN SELECT GROUP

Earnings Gain Over Similar Half-Year Period of 1929 Reported by Company for 1930

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25. (Exclusive)—Caterpillar Tractor Company joins the select group of industrial corporations which have been able to show higher earnings for the first six months of 1930 than were made during the prosperous period that existed in the first half of 1929.

The company today reported net earnings for the first half of 1930, after all charges, including provision for Federal income tax, equivalent to $2.90 per share, as against $2.80 per share for the first six months of 1929. Earnings, before provision for the Federal tax, were equal to $3.66 per share, as against $3.19 in the same period last year.

In releasing its excellent earnings statement the company also announced that an extra dividend of 25 cents in addition to the regular 75-cent quarterly dividend, would be paid on August 31 to stock of record August 18.

President B. C. Heacock announced this afternoon that an order amounting to approximately $5,000,000 has been accepted from the Amtorg Trading Corporation for shipment to Russia during next November, December and January.

Despite the unfavorable conditions that have existed in industry and agriculture during 1930, Caterpillar, as a result of the diversified lines of industry which it serves, together with the growth in its foreign business, is able to show a gain for the six months in net sales and in net profits.

Comparative income reports for the first six months of 1930 and 1929 follow:

BETHLEHEM STORM BREWS

Huge Compensation for Services of Grace and Other Officials Due for Attack at Next Meeting

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

[Copyright, 1930, by the North American Newspaper Alliance]

NEW YORK, July 25.—It looks now as though the next stockholders' meeting of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation will see a stormy session.

Court evidence in the Youngstown case has brought out that from 1925 to 1929, inclusive, Eugene Grace's compensation totaled $4,729,716, just a little less than $1,000,000 a year. Last year, six of the Bethlehem vice-presidents, in addition, drew a total of $1,432,033.

Each of these seven executive officers received an average of $436,540 for his services for the year. In addition, the sum of $370,000 was divided among another group of lesser executives.

Of course, the question will always rise as to whether or not the upper personnel in any organization are worth $3,425,780 in a year, but it easily can be imagined how these men could show increased business largely in excess of their compensation, and in this way justify such an expenditure.

"Had the Bethlehem management told its stockholders frankly in annual reports what it was paying its ranking executives, or only that it was allowing specified lump sums each year to a group of half a dozen or a dozen officers, this week's disclosures at Youngstown would not have been news," comments the Wall Street Journal. "But to keep the stockholders in ignorance of what the plan was costing them, was an error of judgment."

But it's the fact that it took days of cross-questioning under oath to bring out this evidence that is the worst feature of the case.

It was Lord Beaverbrook, British industrialist and newspaper owner, who, when asked if British interests should trade with Russia, replied:

"Sure, why not? We trade with cannibals and other half-civilized people, and have for generations. Why not with soviet Russia? They are neither cannibals nor half-civilized."

When Chief Justice Hughes was Secretary of State, he was asked his opinion as to the legality of trading between American citizens and the soviet government. His reply, along with those of many others, was that there was no legal reason why American citizens should not trade with Russia or with Russian citizens, as much as they saw fit.

H. Parker Willis, the frank editor of the New York Journal of Commerce, puts the case this way:

"It ought to be possible by this time for our legislators and public men to drop their hypocrisy on the whole Russian question. At present we are anxious to get and do get all the trade we can. We finance it by the making of bank loans and credits, and we ask for more. At the same time, we complain of the Russians for entering into trade with us and allege that this trade is a cover for propaganda work in the United States. Yet we never apply any measures of repression designed to penalize or anticipate the acts (whether lawful or unlawful remains to be ascertained) which we thus criticised."

Our foreign trade is down—about 20 per cent in the last six months. We need all we can get. We have always done business with nations, many of whose political policies we disagree with. Why change that policy now — when we need the business more than ever?

It's well at times to see ourselves as others see us.

How does America's exports decline of approximately 20 per cent in the first six months of this year compare with that of other nations?

Great Britain, in the same period, showed a decline of about 15 per cent; Germany about 5 per cent; Italy about 11 per cent; while France dropped 5.4 per cent.

If the non-European averages are reckoned together, the figures show 19.4 per cent decline, and Europe but 5.5 per cent.

In a word, the foreign trade decline of the United States for the first six months is more severe than any of the first-class European nations.

Just why this condition exists is now being given attention both by the Federal government and several business groups.

WOOL MILL PRICE CUT UNSETTLES

Textile Goods Slash by American Company Held Lower Than Expected

BOSTON, July 25.—The Commercial Bulletin of Boston will say tomorrow:

Opening prices on lightweights staples and tropicals by the American Woolen Company on Monday at prices rather lower than generally expected—5 to 10 per cent under the previous season on comparable numbers—were not reassuring to the wool trade at first. Trading in wool in the last forty-eight hours, however, has been sufficiently broad to restore and possibly increase confidence in the outlook.

Demand still favors the finer wools but medium qualities are not neglected. Prices are firm generally, although woolen wools are slow. Mohair still is dull and easy.

The rail and water shipments of wool from Boston from January 1, 1930 to July 24, 1930 inclusive were 76,114,500 pounds against 101,594,000 pounds for the same period last year. The receipts from January 1, 1930 to July 24, 1930 inclusive were 212,529,000 pounds against 190,544,185 pounds for the same period last year.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, July 25. (AP)—Curb stocks maintained a fairly firm tone in the dullest trading of the year today. The absence of Transamerica, long an active feature on this market, was at once felt, the day's total sales falling to 359,600 shares. This issue moved up to the stock exchange.

A conspicuous burst of activity and strength in Chemical National Associates was a feature. This issue, which has not been very prominent since its listing on this board, was the most active issue. It moved up nearly 2 points to a new high at 25⅜. The company is an investment trust formed last year by Chemical National Bank interests. Goldman-Sachs sagged fractionally, while United Founders moved up ⅛.

The utilities displayed group strength. Electric Bond and Share and American Commonwealth Power gained about a point, while American Gas and Tampa Electric mounted about 2, and Northern States A, 3. Oils were largely neglected, although Cities Service continued in fair demand, rising a fraction.

In the industrials and specialty group, the Bahia Corporation issues rose more than a point to new highs. Aluminum Company rose 4½. Insurance Company of North America gained more than 2. Ford, Limited closed off only ⅛, at 18⅝. Deere sagged a point to a new low at 81½, then rallied.

The closing price is omitted when same as the low and both low and close when same as the high.

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, July 25. (AP)—Fixed income securities on the New York Stock Exchange gave an indifferent performance today. Progress was nominal with some recession in evidence in spots, and trading slowing down with the approach of the week-end.

The rally of railroad bonds, which developed yesterday was short lived. While the greater part of the activity today centered in carrier issues, only a few rails continued their climb to higher levels, and a slight downward trend was in evidence at the close, with losses of a minor character.

Missouri Pacific general 4s and Pennsylvania general 5s gained a point, and Atchison general 4s were firm. Great Northern 5½s were strong.

Stock privilege issues fluctuated and the late rally influenced a firm position. Atchison gained a full point. Chicago and Northwestern and Rock Island 4½s were firm. St. Paul 5s and Warner Brothers 6s were soft.

Foreign issues were steady.

United States governments were neglected and changes of small consequence occurred in dealings, which were largely confined to Liberty bonds.

The quotations represent sales of bonds (in thousands of dollars) and the high, low and closing prices in order given. To expedite transmission the close is omitted when the same as the low, and both low and close when same as high.

"TIMES" THEATER GUIDE

MOTION PICTURES

Bard's, Eighth between Broadway and Hill—"True to the Navy." For once Clara Bow has more than she can handle.

Boulevard, Washington at Vermont—"On the Level." A modicum of rough humor for those who enjoy Victor McLaglen.

California, Main near Eighth—"A Lady to Love." A capable, though censored, transcription of "They Knew What They Wanted." Good performances by Vilma Banky and Edward G. Robinson.

Carthay Circle: Carthay Center—"So This Is London." Will Rogers goes abroad again and finds London as funny as Paris.

Chinese, 6925 Hollywood—"Hell's Angels." It took Howard Hughes four years and $4,000,000 to produce the colossus of the air: and it was worth it.

Criterion, 642 South Grand—"Romance." Garbo more glamorous than ever in a picture not equal to the play.

Egyptian, Hollywood Boulevard—"The Border Legion." One of the best of westerns is made funny and exciting by Richard Arlen and Jack Holt.

Figueroa, Figueroa at Santa Barbara—"True to the Navy."

Filmarte, 1228 North Vine—"Asphalt." Reviewed in today's Times.

Forum, Pico at Norton—"Sweethearts and Wives." Another social triangle but adroitly handled. With Billie Dove.

Loew's State, Broadway at Seventh—"Wild Company." A preachment to parents takes on both the comic and the dramatic aspect. With Frank Albertson.

Million Dollar, Broadway at Third—"The Big Pond." A comedy of gum and love. Maurice Chevalier.

Pantages, Hollywood at Vine—"The Big House." An exciting story of prison life well told. Wallace Beery and Chester Morris.

Paramount, Hill at Sixth — "Queen High." A weak transcription of an old stage success, bolstered by the performances of Charles Ruggles and Frank Morgan.

Ritz, Wilshire at La Brea—"The Social Lion." A very humorous story of a prize-fighter who went polo, then back again. Jack Oakie.

R.K.O., Hill at Eighth—"The Runaway Bride." Nicely exciting is this romance between Mary Astor and Lloyd Hughes.

R.K.O., Orpheum, Broadway at Ninth—"Dixiana." Bebe Daniels in a musical something of the South and of very uncertain caliber.

Tower, Broadway at Eighth—"Dumbbells in Ermine." A bit of frothy entertainment provided chiefly by Dorothy Mackaill.

Uptown, Western at Tenth—"The Social Lion."

Warners' Downtown, Hill at Seventh—"Three Faces East." Good entertainment furnished by the war and Eric von Stroheim with Constance Bennett.

Warners' Hollywood, Hollywood Blvd. at Wilcox—"The Way of All Men." An effective storm spectacle that just misses its point. With Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.

Westlake, 638 Alvarado—"True to the Navy."

STAGE

Belasco, Hill at 11th—"Rebound." Ina Claire sparkles in various moods, and the dialogue has bright moments.

El Capitan, Hollyw'd Blvd. nr. Highland—"To the Ladies." The lighter side of domesticity provides amusement such as only Glenn Hunter can offer.

Hollywood Playhouse, 1733 N. Vine—"Fata Morgana." Elsie Ferguson charms anew in this dramatic tale by Ernest Vadja. Tom Douglas comes near to being a sensation as the boy.

Vine Street, Vine nr. Hollywood—"Oh, Judge." A musical melange somewhat enlivened by Bernard Granville.

VARIETIES

Follies, 4th and Main—Burlesque.

Miss Rasche Herida al Caer con su Avión

BERLIN, Julio 25.—Thea Rasche, la señorita voladora de Alemania, se lastimó hoy al venirse a tierra su aparato, que iba volando entre Templehof y Warnemuende. El avión, que cayó de una altura de 120 pies, quedó destruido.

Acababa de elevarse, cuando algo se descompuso en su aparato. Los que la observaron en el aeródromo de Templehof dijeron que la aviadora fue tal vez cogida por un repentino remolino, que hizo perder el equilibrio al avión cuando iba ascendiendo. Las lesiones de la joven son ligeras.

Italia Sacudida por Nuevos Temblores

POTENZA (Italia), Julio 25.—Hoy se sintieron cinco nuevos terremotos en la zona devastada por los movimientos del miércoles. Causaron averías a muchos edificios ya debilitados; pero no hubo, que se sepa, ni muertos ni heridos.

Hubo dos sacudidas como a las 10 a.m., y luego otras tres breves como a las 3 de la tarde. Se sintieron en toda la región asolada. En Melfi, una de las poblaciones que más ha sufrido, se vino abajo el Palacio de Pacchioli. En muchas casas se formaron grandes y peligrosas cuarteaduras.

El Rey Recorre el Area Devastada

ROMA, Julio 25.—Estaban llegando hoy auxilios de toda Italia para los damnificados de la región del sur, castigada por los sismos, pues el gobierno italiano ha apelado a todos sus recursos para activar los socorros.

El mismo rey Victor Manuel, que partió para el teatro de la tragedia, tan pronto como se supo de la gravedad de los temblores del miércoles, llegó a Rochetta, en la provincia de Avellino, que es el lugar que más azotado ha sido por estas convulsiones.

El monarca fue a inspeccionar las labores de auxilio, ya iniciadas en la región, y a consolar a sus súbditos perjudicados. Con él andan varios funcionarios activamente empeñados en la tarea de ayudar a los heridos y de dar abrigo a los millares de personas sin techo. Viajó el rey en automóvil en auto por los alrededores, e hizo planes para visitar a otras poblaciones damnificadas.

Cinco Muertos en Accidente Aéreo en Méjico

CIUDAD DE MEJICO, Julio 25. A menos de una milla del populoso centro de la Ciudad de Méjico, chocaron hoy dos aviones militares y se fueron al suelo. Cuatro aviadores militares y un civil, que jugaba a la pelota en tierra, murieron de este accidente. Uno de los aviadores saltó con paracaídas; pero éste no se abrió. Su cuerpo quedó enterrado en el suelo.

Ambos aeroplanos, que chocaron al ir uno bajando al aeródromo de Valbuena, y el otro subiendo del mismo campo, cayeron sobre la concha de cemento del juego de pelota del campo atlético de Carranza. Al caer los aparatos destruídos, arrancaron como un pie de la gruesa pared de cemento que separa dos canchas adyacentes.

Muere un Senador de sus Heridas

CHARLESTON (Sudcarolina), Julio 25.—El senador a la legislatura del Estado, E. J. Dennis, del condado de Berkeley, murió aquí hoy en el Hospital de Riverside a consecuencia de heridas recibidas ayer, cuando dispararon sobre él en una calle de Moncks Corner, donde vivía.

La emboscada de que fue víctima el líder político del condado de Berkeley, la atribuye el gobernador Richards a que les hizo la guerra en su condado a los "bootleggers".

Los Estados Unidos Ocupan Segundo Lugar como Constructores de Barcos

WASHINGTON, Julio 25.—Los grandes progresos realizados en los Estados Unidos en construcción de buques durante el segundo trimestre de este año, han dado por resultado que sólo la Gran Bretaña está arriba de este país por el número de buques mercantes que tienen en construcción.

El cómputo hecho por el ministerio de Comercio, y publicado hoy, da para tonelaje bruto de los buques que había en gradas en los Estados Unidos el primero del actual, la cifra de 238,163 toneladas. El año próximo pasado, en fecha igual, no había más que 119,000 toneladas.

ESPEE SEEKS PERMIT FOR ROAD DEAL

Petition to Gain Control of Cotton Belt Also Asks Merger Plan Modification

WASHINGTON, July 25. (AP)—The Southern Pacific Railroad which has been reported to be acquiring control of the St. Louis Southwestern Company today made formal application to the Interstate Commerce Commission for permission to take over that line and asked approval of the financial arrangements consequent to the proceeding.

By the general plans for railroad consolidation which the Interstate Commerce Commission promulgated last December the Cotton Belt was tentatively allocated to control of the Illinois Central system.

The petition today asked the commission to modify its plan in this particular and sets forth a series of arguments aimed at demonstrating that the public interest would be better served by the consolidation of the Cotton Belt with the Southern Pacific.

Hearings were asked on the project and the petition promised further evidence will be forthcoming on such occasions to justify the step which the Southern Pacific now desires to take.

STAR TO SING OUT OF SKIES

Radio to Carry Elsa Alsen's Voice from Airplane

KMTR Will Broadcast Her Farewell to Southland

KHJ Schedules Auto Races and Other Features

The Times Forum, KHJ, at 1:30 p.m. Peggy Hamilton, fashion expert; Salvador Baguez, baritone; George Kerr, mandolin. World-wide news at 12:30, 4:45 and 10 p.m. Judge Valentine on "Traffic" at 12:30.

BY JOHN S. DAGGETT

Effort will be made to transmit a song from the skies over KMTR shortly after a T.A.T.-Maddux air liner bearing Mme. Elsa Alsen, operatic star, leaves its Grand Central Airport en route for New York at 9:30 o'clock this morning.

This is just another bit of radio trail blazing and the experiment should be worth a dialing. Mme. Alsen, soprano of the Chicago Opera Company, whose engagement at Hollywood Bowl terminated last night, will sing through the radiophone a farewell to the people of Southern California as the air liner soars eastward. Gov. Young will convey a message of bon voyage from the radio station and the station in turn will pick up and rebroadcast the singing and conversation to radioland.

ON SATURDAY'S DIAL

KHJ at 2:15 this afternoon will offer Ted Husing's sportslants from New York. Husing is to introduce Al Singer, newly crowned lightweight champion. The folks will all come to the radio levee at 5 o'clock when Hank Simmons is to celebrate the second anniversary of his famous "Show Boat." Tonight "The Wall Street Detective" will be played, with plot replete with designing wives, crooked brokers, a terrible black-hand man, deadly bombs—and finally the heroine will be rescued, believe it or not. At 7:30 KHJ is to skim the cream from its week past programs in a thirty-minute presentation. Raymond Page's baton will stir another musical cocktail at 8:30 with compositions intended to delight the lover of music. After quaffing this cocktail, at 9 p.m. listeners will be taken to the Ascot Speedway automobile races, a novelty that is growing in popularity among sport enthusiasts.

BOWL CONCERT

KFI starts its Saturday night features at 6 o'clock when the N.B.C. is to send forth the Lucky Strike Dance Orchestra's renditions of modern music. At 7 tonight a musical comedy album is to be opened by Eva Olivotti, James Burroughs, Leslie Brigham and Mildred Laughlin, who will supply the song to the music of Pryor Moore's Orchestra. At 8:30 p.m. KFI's musical highlight will be another concert from the Hollywood Bowl. This will hold the dial for one and three-quarters hours. Bernardino Molinari, one of the most prominent of guest conductors, will wield the baton. Vivaldi's "Inverno," from the "Four Seasons," and Beethoven's "Fifth Symphony" will precede the intermission.

KECA at 5:30 this afternoon is to offer the General Electric hour with Ireland, Russia and Spain among the countries to be visited by Arthur Pryor's band. Floyd Gibbons will give another eight-minute talk on "Adventures in Science." The program will open with "The Arcade Girl" by Pryor. At 8 p.m. Mahlon Merrick's orchestra and Virginia Treadwell, contralto, will fill "Nights in Spain" with dark-eyed senoritas and swarthy senors. At 10 o'clock the N.B.C. "Spotlight Review," a potpourri of talent, will be heard.

SATURDAY OPERA

KNX is to offer "Rigoletto," beginning at 2:30. This will last until 5 p.m. Paramount Publix hour at 6 will find Paul Ash's orchestra in the pick of the season's dance music. Jesse Crawford, Columbia's ace of organists; Paul Small, tenor, and the Foursome Quartet will be featured in this hour. At 7:08 tonight Calmon Luboviski, violinist, will give a recital featuring Corelli's "Sonata in D." Then at 8 there will be Horse Fly and His Wranglers, with the sheriff shot by the "rheumatiz."

KFWB is to hit the sport dial at 2:10 with another ball game between Sacramento and Los Angeles. At 8 p.m. Vernon Rickard and the Boswell sisters are to be guest artists in sixty minutes of music and song, with Ray Martinez wielding the baton. At 9:30 p.m. Stuart Buchanan is to make his debut over KFWB with two radio playlets. The musical interludes will be furnished by Maurice Koehler's orchestra. Those yearning for variety in late-hour programs will find this a pleasing one. Robert Young, Joe Sauers and Mary Duckett will comprise the casts for the plays, a comedy and a melodrama.

KMPC tells us Ray Howell, the demon phonograph winder, between 11 and 12 each night, really wants folks to telephone CRestview 3101 and request their favorite compositions. At 10 tonight the Beverly Hill Billies are to court the Juliets of the "mountings" with an hour of heart-breaking ballads.

CARSON HILL MINES AGAIN TO BE WORKED

STOCKTON, July 25. (AP)—With filing of articles of incorporation of the Carson Hill, Ltd., California corporation, comes word that final steps have been taken in acquisition of vast holdings of the old Carson Hill Gold Mines, Inc., at Melones, near Angels Camp. Lawrence Monta Verde, a director of the new company, states 1000 acres are in the tract, and that the California State Mining Bureau shows the properties taken over have a production record of $61,000,000. Work will begin tomorrow, he says, and within a few months 200 men will be employed.

WEATHER PREVENTS COSTES TAKING OFF

PARIS, July 25. (AP) — Dieudonne Costes, French airman who is planning a flight to the United States, must wait at least two days more for weather good enough for the trans-Atlantic hop. At the Meteorological Bureau today weather conditions were described as "deplorable," with no chance of a start for at least forty-eight hours.

TROOPERS WILL GUARD COURTROOM

MacDonald Hearing to be Conducted Under Guns of State Police Squad

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25. (AP)—Elaborate precautions will be taken to prevent interruption of the hearing by the State Supreme Court of the new pardon application of Warren K. Billings next Tuesday.

A special squad of State police will guard the courtroom doors and other guards will be stationed within the chambers.

Letters from fanatics to the court as well as applications for admission from hundreds of persons who cannot be accommodated in the 100 seats available have made this step necessary.

Neither Billings nor Thomas J. Mooney, serving life sentences for complicity in the 1916 Preparedness Day bombing in San Francisco, will be at the hearing. Counsel for Billings made an informal request upon the court that the two men be allowed to speak for themselves, but Chief Justice Waste declared the initial hearing would be concerned with the testimony of John MacDonald alone.

Friends of Mooney and Billings said they were not interested in the statements made today of Adams Krumesc, Cleveland caretaker and purported witness of the 1916 Preparedness Day bombing in San Francisco.

Krumesc, in Cleveland, said he had been near the scene of the explosion and offered to come to San Francisco to tell about having seen three Mexicans near the spot a few minutes before the disaster.

THREE BANK BANDITS DIE FOR MURDER

Trio Who Killed Officer During G.O.P. Meeting in Kansas City Hanged

KANSAS CITY, July 25. (AP)—Three bank robbers who terrorized a Republican national convention crowd here two years ago in a running gun fight through the congested downtown district were hanged together today for the murder of James H. (Happy) Smith, a traffic patrolman.

These three of the six gangsters who plotted and executed the robbery of the Home Trust Company of $19,151, June 14, 1928, were dropped at 6:04 a.m. through a trap released by one of five buttons pressed by five deputy sheriffs.

Tony (Lollypop) Mangiaracina and Carl Nasello were pronounced dead at 6:21 and John Messino two minutes later.

Among nearly 200 witnesses were Roney Smith of Warsaw, Md., father of "Happy" Smith.

Attorneys for the three lost a long legal battle, climaxed last night when one of five Circuit Court judges heard their last appeal and said he had no power to intervene.

THRONG AT MEETING ON SHULERISM

Cheers Mingle With Boos as Speakers Discuss Radio Activities of Pastor

Applause and cheers mixed with hisses and boos from 8000 people greeted the speakers at the Olympic Auditorium last night at an open mass meeting called for a discussion of the activities of Rev. R. P. Shuler in the political and social life of Los Angeles.

Special sections had been reserved for members of Trinity Methodist Church, of which Shuler is pastor, and delegations from business and industrial centers were seated in other portions of the auditorium, while uniform police guarded all aisles and exits and preserved almost perfect order.

The meeting, called as a discussion of Shulerism, and to discuss the uses made of radio KGEF by Shuler in speaking on political and civic problems, was addressed by Shuler himself as the first speaker. He was followed by Mrs. Kate Richards O'Hara, Rev. Liza May Grey of the Temple of Light; W. A. Pithcer, and George C. Lyons, former commander of the County Council of the American Legion, while the closing address was made by City Prosecutor Nix.

Many followers of Shuler were in the audience and made their presence known during his talk and at his appearance on the platform. Opponents of Shuler were also in attendance and made the building ring with applause during the talks of Nix and others who criticised the minister for his radio utterances. Marshall Louis Mertins presided as chairman and representative of the committee of 200 who sponsored the mass meeting.

During the course of the Nix address a number in the audience started to leave the building, and calls were heard designating those leaving as members of the Shuler faction.

Council Votes Approval for Oil Drilling

Seven ordinances approving applications to drill for oil in Venice were adopted yesterday by the City Council, but action upon two others was held up one week because of the negative vote of Councilman Williams.

Williams voted against the ordinances for R. J. C. Judge and H. H. Pearsons because he believes they are too close to the bathing beach.

AUXILIARY ROAD PLAN ESPOUSED

Inclusion in State Highway System Advocated

Meek Makes Report to Group of State Chamber

Change Includes 633 Miles in Southland Area

Eight hundred and four miles of roads, originally constructed and maintained by county funds and carrying an increasing volume of State-wide traffic, have been recommended for inclusion in the State Highway system. This was stated yesterday by B. B. Meek, Director of Public Works, to the Southern California Council of the California State Chamber of Commerce, meeting at the Alexandria.

Meek pointed out that in accordance with the plan intended to equalize progressively the disparity of existing secondary highway mileage as between the north and the south, that 633 miles of the recommended additions consists of roads in southern counties, and 171 miles in northern counties. At the present time, secondary road mileage consists of 1779 miles in the north and 525 miles in the south.

STATE-WIDE SUPPORT

State-wide support of the policy of secondary road additions was crystallized at a meeting called by the State Chamber of Commerce in February, 1929, and Meek's report carries out the details of an agreement made to see that Southern California receives three or four miles to one mile in Northern California.

In detailing the roads recommended for inclusion in the State Highway system, the speaker further advised that they have been approved by both the Highway Commission and the Governor, but that final approval of the Legislature is required before actual reconstruction and maintenance by the State will commence.

Under the terms of the joint legislative resolution, all new highways recommended for inclusion in the State highway system are confined to roads that qualify as one of the following three classes; County roads now carrying a predominate volume of State traffic; county roads affording relief to heavy traffic on present State highways; county roads serving as important interstate highway connections.

HELPED STATE UNITY

"One of our most important endeavors has dealt with the highway problems of California, vitally affecting our economic structure," said William May Garland, former president of the State Chamber of Commerce. "These problems touched on the individual lives of our people, the unity of our State was in danger. State unity is paramount in the progress and development of California. Good roads encourage greater intercourse between our people throughout the State, bringing an understanding of mutual problems and a willingness to work toward a common purpose.

"I feel that the State chamber was able to render a great service to the people of the State in preventing animosity and unpleasantness that naturally arise when we resort to political expediency in the building of our highways.

"I believe the addition of these roads as proposed accomplishes three things: First, it is a movement toward the equalization of the secondary highway system in the north and south. Second, it places the burden of maintenance of roads bearing State and inter-State traffic upon the State and thus relieves the counties, whose funds may more justly be used in maintaining those roads of a purely local nature. Third, its great accomplishment, I feel, is that it demonstrates that given a vehicle or machinery for co-operation, the public can intelligently solve its problems. The State Chamber of Commerce offers such a medium for the impartial and yet practical solution of these problems."

AUCTION OF SEIZED GOODS NETS $2356

Sixty-six articles seized by the Federal Customs Service were sold at auction yesterday by Ben Aarons, Federal auctioneer. The sales brought in a total of $2356.90. The largest sale was that of ten cases of mahogany furniture, which sold for $800. The lowest sale was that of a package of corrugated cardboard, which sold for 5 cents.

ALASKA PIONEER VISITS CITY

"Besuktuak" Here to Aid in Film Work

John Hegness and His Daughter Brenda

THE man who probably knows more about Alaska than any other white man is John Hegness. He has lived in Alaska for thirty-one years and during that time has traveled farther by dog team than any other man. He is known from Nome to Point Barrow, and speaks scores of different native dialects. The Alaskan Eskimo calls him "Besuktuak," meaning the great traveler. Hegness, with his wife and daughter, now is in Los Angeles.

Born in Norway, "Besuktuak" journeyed to Alaska at the time of the great Klondike gold rush and struck gold almost immediately. "But I had to use almost all of it for food," he explained. "There were thousands of hungry men with plenty of money but no food. I once paid $30 for a dozen eggs, eight of which turned out to be rotten. Bread sold for $4 a loaf and flour for $52 a sack.

"We often made from $250 to $1000 a day, so we didn't mind spending it. But when thousands of men continued pouring into the gold region gold mining ceased to be profitable."

Hegness later made his home at the most northern point in Alaska, about 125 miles from Point Barrow. His nearest white neighbor was 115 miles away.

In 1908 Hegness won the first Alaskan sweepstakes for dog-team racing and since then he has traveled by dog team through practically every part of Alaska. He estimates that the total distance he has covered would be more than three times around the world.

Brenda Hegness, or "Kaituk," as she is called by the natives, his blond-haired and blue-eyed 16-year-old daughter, is greatly admired throughout Northern Alaska because of her hair. Light hair is nonexistent among the natives, and from childhood on Brenda has been somewhat of a goddess to them.

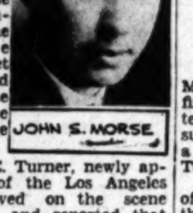
"Perhaps you would like to hear how I got the name of Kaituk, which means 'fall down,'" she said. "It happened like this. One day after a snowstorm I was running about outside and, not seeing an igloo which had been covered with the new-fallen snow, I stepped on top of it and fell through to the bottom. Ever since then they have called me Kaituk."

Hegness, because of his familiarity with the scenes pictured in "The Spoilers," was called to Los Angeles by Paramount studio officials to act as technical adviser in the filming of this novel. He resides with his wife and daughter at the Sunset Gardens Apartments at Sunset Boulevard and Stanley avenue. They will return to Point Barrow early next year.

TWO DIE IN PLANE BLAST

Explosion as Craft Flies Over Dark Canyon Tears Off Wing and Sends it Into Fatal Nose Dive

John Spencer Morse, airplane pilot, 26 years of age, of 2885 Tanoble Drive, Altadena, and his passenger, Dominick Gnoepff, nurseryman of 2249 North Harvard Boulevard, met instant death yesterday when the Curtiss Robin monocoupe they had taken for a pleasure jaunt from the Grand Central Air Terminal, Burbank, exploded in midair and crashed to the ground near the Lakeside Country Club in Dark Canyon.



JOHN S. MORSE

Eyewitnesses report their attention was first called to the plane when they saw two puffs of smoke emerge from its engine. The plane then exploded and one of its wings was blown off. The rest of the plane nose-dived to the ground. The force of the impact buried the engine more than eight feet in the ground and threw the bodies of the men clear of the wreckage.

Col. Roscoe E. Turner, newly appointed head of the Los Angeles air police, arrived on the scene shortly after, and reported that both men died from the force of the crash. When taken from the wreck the bodies were crushed and broken. An arm of one of the men was found lying ten yards away from the body.

Frank N. Morse, father of the pilot, was notified of the tragedy and appeared to identify his son's body. He had it removed to the Powell mortuary, 333 Magnolia avenue, Burbank. The body of Gnoepff also was taken there and awaits the arrival of relatives.

Personal effects found in the coat of John Morse showed that he had made his first solo flight on September 10, 1929. He was a student

VETERAN OF BENCH HURT IN MISHAP

Judge McDaniel Struck by Street Car and Has Narrow Escape

Superior Judge McDaniel of Marysville, Yuba county, was confined to his room in the Savoy Hotel last night following injuries suffered just after alighting from a Pacific Electric car at Hill and Temple streets.

Judge McDaniel, who is 66 years of age, was bruised and cut when thrown violently to the pavement by a car that ran by on the other track. His presence of mind in lying still until the car had passed probably saved his life, witnesses of the accident declare.

The judge had stooped to pick up a package a woman passenger had dropped when the car struck him.

With thirty years on the bench Judge McDaniel is one of the oldest jurists in California. He formerly lived in Los Angeles.

COUNCIL VOTES ORDINANCES

Ordinances of intention for improving streets in the One Hundredth street and Broadway district and in the State street and Marengo street district were adopted yesterday by the City Council.

AQUEDUCT BONDS STUDIED

Colorado River Pipe-Line Financing Poll Gets Attention of Water District Directors

With the problem of selection of a route for the Colorado River aqueduct fast nearing a solution, the question as to when to submit to the voters of the Metropolitan Water District the bond issue to finance the project was discussed at length before the board of directors of the district at their meeting yesterday.

Although one of the first questions advanced had to do with the amount of the bonds to be asked, Chief Engineer Weymouth stated that he prefers not to discuss costs until all of his data are in from his field engineers. This is expected to be ready in a few weeks.

The consulting board of engineers employed by the district to go over the data and assist in the recommendation of the most efficient route, is expected to be in the city about August 18, next, for their final conference.

Opinions of directors representing the several cities in the district varied as to when the bonds ought to be put on the ballot. The majority seemed to feel that it would be a mistake to put them on the ballot at the general election in November and that they should be the sole issue at a special election. Some feel that the special election might be held in December, but others expressed the opinion that spring would be the better time.

It was recognized that the construction of the aqueduct is of such tremendous importance to Southern California that no effort should be made to vote the bonds until the voters in the district are fully informed as to every essential detail of the project and its operation. It was recognized also that considerable educational work will have to be done to accomplish this purpose.

Councilmen Burns and Cook appeared before the board to remind the directors that the city of Los Angeles will have a number of propositions on the ballot in November, covering some $5,000,000 in bonds for such items as supplemental sewers, branch city halls and fire stations.

It also was generally agreed that the full amount of the district bonds — $200,000,000 or more — should be placed on the ballot rather than to split the total.

YOU MUST REGISTER TODAY!

Twelve o'clock tonight is the zero hour!

If you are a voter and have not registered by that time you will not be allowed to vote at the primary election to be held on August 26.

The ultimatum was delivered yesterday by County Registrar Kerr, together with the announcement that deputy registrars will be stationed at convenient spots in the downtown shopping district and, also in Hollywood to accommodate the stragglers. They will remain on duty until midnight.

Those who have not registered since January 1, or who have since changed their place of residence, or who may wish to change their party affiliation, must register again, Kerr said.

Figures compiled yesterday placed the grand total of registered voters to date at 782,446. Of this number, 341,947 represent voters outside the city.

Kerr forecasts a total registration in excess of 800,000.

Synodical Convention Here Passes Resolutions

Educational Board Scored as Weak on Prohibition

London Treaty Praised and Film Censorship Asked

Election of a new Moderator of the United Presbyterian Church Synod meeting at the Beverly Vista Church, Beverly Hills, and adoption of resolutions having to do with international peace and uniform marriage and divorce laws by the California Synod, meeting at Immanuel Church, Wilshire Boulevard, featured the annual gatherings of Presbyterian churchmen here yesterday.

Rev. A. W. Webster of Salinas was named to succeed Dr. W. H. McPeak of Santa Ana as Moderator. Proposed union of the church with the larger Presbyterian body was discussed informally and will probably be put to a vote before adjournment. It was said that wherever a vote has been taken on union it has carried at the ratio of nine to one.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED

Approval of the ratification of the London naval treaty; condemning compulsory military training in tax-supported schools and favoring uniform national marriage and divorce laws were the principal items of the resolutions approved by the 2000 or more in attendance at the Immanuel Church meeting.

Other resolutions adopted included a protest against Sunday Olympic Games, reiteration of loyalty of the Presbyterian Church to prohibition, advocacy of a vigorous campaign against the sale of pornographic literature, condemnation of cigarette smoking, for State and national censorship of motion pictures and one urging pastors to use more caution in remarrying divorced couples.

Still another resolution, adopted, as were the others, at the instigation of the synod's moral welfare committee, called upon all ministers to support the Presbyterian Church's campaign against the "commercialization" of the Sabbath.

REBUKE BOARD

The synodical delegates rebuked the National Board of Christian Education of the Presbyterian Church for its failure to lay more emphasis on prohibition propaganda. Members of the moral welfare committee stated that this resolution was prompted by the fact that there has been a continual decrease in the amount of printed matter devoted to arguments in favor of prohibition.

"Many members of the national board seem to be losing their enthusiasm for prohibition," declared Dr. Ward W. Long, chairman of the committee. "There still is work to be done and it behooves western Presbyterians to keep awake and active in the cause."

A resolution praising "the moral idealism of Gov. Young and Dist.-Atty. Fitts," was passed at the morning session, preceding an address by Mr. Fitts, who discussed "Moral Welfare," declaring that "the first duty of government is the protection of womanhood, the family and property rights of all citizens."

FITTS'S ADDRESS

Mr. Fitts, who was given a rousing ovation when he rose to speak and loudly applauded as he left the platform, told his audience that for more than two years he has been doing his utmost to keep and enforce the laws.

"I have before me a superhuman task," said the speaker. "I have been ridiculed and fought by judges, newspapers and the underworld, and I would have broken down had it not been for the noble support of the church and law-abiding citizens generally."

At the opening of the session Dr. Clarence Spaulding, newly elected moderator of the synod of California, announced the appointment of Dr. Guy Wadsworth as vice-moderator. Other committees appointed by Moderator Spaulding are as follows:

Bills and overtures, Revs. J. E. Stuckell, H. C. Buell and Fred T. Hart, and Ruling Elders William Black and Frank Last; judicial committee, Revs. Josiah Sibley, C. P. Hessel, R. B. McAulay and Ruling Elders J. A. Campbell and S. B. Schauer; finance and mileage, Revs. H. H. Miller, E. P. Cochran and J.

CONTRACT APPROVED FOR CHILD ACTRESS

Anita Louise

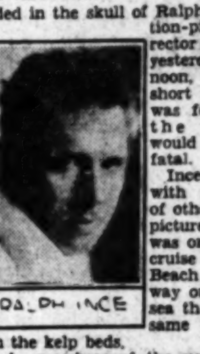
Thirteen-year-old Anita Louise, who plays in motion pictures, came to Superior Judge McComb's court yesterday to play the principal part in a feature showing entitled "Signing the Papers."

The papers were Anita's contract with the Tiffany Productions, Inc., and the legal documents signifying the court's approval of the same. Besides Anita and the judge, Mrs. Ann Fremault, Anita's mother, 1740 North Gramercy Place, signed the documents. Attorney Sam Wolf represented the petitioners.

INCE'S LIFE PERILED ON SEA OUTING

Film Director Seriously Injured When Fish Hook Penetrates His Head

Striking with the speed of a bullet, a three-inch fish hook was embedded in the skull of Ralph Ince, motion-picture director and actor, yesterday afternoon, and for a short time it was feared that the accident would prove fatal.



RALPH INCE

Ince, along with a number of other motion-picture people, was on a fishing cruise off Malibu Beach and on way out to open sea the lines became entangled in the kelp beds.

As members of the party struggled to free their lines, which were weighted with heavy lead, Ince suddenly tore his loose from the slimy weeds. The strain gave the line lightning speed and it lashed over his head, only to flash back. The hook, striking point first, penetrated the back part of his head, almost reaching a vital spot.

Ince fell to the deck of the boat in excruciating pain. He was rushed to land on the motor boat of Al Jolson, which carried a fishing party near by. The wounded director was given first aid as the fast Jolson boat hurried to shore.

An operation was performed at the Hollywood Community Hospital by Dr. S. R. Broadbent at 4:30 p.m., almost five hours after the accident. Last night the surgeon announced that he believed Ince out of danger, after the removal of the hook, and that only an infection can cause further complications.

D'ORR TAKES KEATON CASE

Shuler's Attorney Appears in Court With Flint's Slayer and Gets Trial Date Postponed

Attorney Paul Barksdale D'Orr, former legal representative of Rev. R. P. Shuler, yesterday afternoon in the courtroom of Superior Judge Schauer officially took over the defense of Frank D. Keaton, slayer of Motley H. Flint.

Substitution of D'Orr for Public Defender Vercoe, who has represented Keaton until yesterday, became a matter of public record when Keaton appeared with D'Orr and asked the court to recognize the substitution of attorneys.

D'Orr's first move after his inception in the case was to request a postponement of the trial from August 1 to August 18, on the ground that he needed more time in which to prepare. The motion was granted. D'Orr also asked the court to honor a request that alienists employed by the defense be allowed to examine the defendant and Judge Schauer indicated that he will not oppose this move.

The request was taken as an indication that D'Orr intends to have his own expert witnesses testify as to Keaton's sanity. The prosecution already has two alienists testing the slayer's sanity and three more psychiatrists have been appointed by the court.

D'Orr made no statement as to what his attitude will be toward Shuler's pamphlet, "Julian Thieves," that the police say they found on Keaton but which the minister declares was "planted."

While D'Orr took over the murder defense, Dep. Dist.-Attys. Burgess and Russell continued their examination of a stream of witnesses in the case. They declared that what they learned in no way changed their opinion that Keaton was sane when he killed Flint and should pay the penalty prescribed by law.

COMPLAINT REPORT MADE

City Engineer Jessup reported to the City Council yesterday on a complaint registered against the excavation and pool of water left by the Los Angeles Rock and Gravel Company on the south side of Avenue 36 at Carlotta Boulevard, declaring that the Health Department can proceed on sanitary lines and that a complaint can be filed against a fence obstructing a sidewalk. The matter was referred to the Public Works Committee.

The Lancer

by Harry Carr

COL. LINDBERGH, who has certainly had a tough break from the rubberneck public, will not find any greater peace of mind in Tulsa, Okla.

It will be worse. In New York public attention is occasionally diverted to Jimmy Walker. In Tulsa the colonel will be the come-on for everything that Tulsa has to sell. He will be like the lion in the M.-G.-M. studio advertisements. I can already see, in my mind's eye, the electric signs erected by the Tulsa Chamber of Commerce: "Stop at Tulsa and see Lindy and our new City Hall."

TIP FOR THE COLONEL

When I make my own hop across the Atlantic in a new rotary papier-mache plane that I have invented I have already prepared for the annoyance of the attendant fame.

I am going to buy one of the old ranches in the mountains of California — with a canyon and running water. I am going to raise Angora goats and live in undisturbed peace.

There is one ranch upon which I have had my eye for some time. It stands on the top of a high mesa, approached only by a wriggling mountain road from the floor of the desert. It looks in one direction down the most beautiful desert valley in the world; in the other direction up to the most beautiful snow mountain I have ever seen.

EASY WAY TO FORTUNE

With all these alienation-of-affection suits it looks to me as though the most profitable investment open to the public is a good family row.

BUSINESS OF PLAY ACTING

The terrible and desperate poverty of the show girls of Chicago punctuates a fact that no one will ever persuade young girls to believe; that there is less real happiness in the theatrical business than in any other profession in the world.

There is no such thing as a steady job. As soon as you get one you start furiously looking for the next. The end of every picture means you are out on the pavement again. The chances of success are less than in a lottery. For every Gloria Swanson there are 300 girls just as beautiful and probably just as talented who couldn't get the breaks.

LILLIAN'S WARNING

I once heard Lillian Gish talking to a beautiful little girl who wanted to break into the movie business. "Oh, my dear child," said Miss Gish, really distressed. "Why do you want to sentence yourself to a life of misery and unhappiness? If you have to work take any job on earth from scrubbing floors up — but let this business alone. It is poison."

EARLY-DAY MARY PICKFORD

Just so I once escorted Miss Gish to a stage box in a theater in Boston to see Lotta Crabtree — who had been the Mary Pickford of her day — the heroine of the pioneer days of California — when she used to dance on billiard tables for the forty-niners.

Lotta was a very old woman when I saw her — a very rich old woman.

"My dearest, dearest girl," she said, stroking Miss Gish's slender hands. "Save your money while you still have your fresh young beauty. It goes so terribly soon — so very, very soon."

SEVEN JAILED IN DRY RAIDS

Vice Squads Arrest Six Men and One Woman

Whisky, Alcohol and Home Brew Beer Confiscated

Suspect Found in Motor Car Flashes Badge

Carrying out Chief of Police Steckel's recent order that vice conditions must be reduced to a minimum, vice squads of the various police divisions conducted a series of raids late Thursday and yesterday morning which resulted in the arrest of one woman and six men and confiscation of more than 150 gallons of whisky and a large quantity of bottled alcohol, beer and assorted liquors.

In a dwelling at 1122 Rialto street, Venice, the special vice squad working out of the administration department found seventy-five gallons of whisky and an electric ager. John Galcotti, 40 years of age, and his wife, Rose, 25, were arrested for possession. Galcotti had a five-gallon can of alcohol in his hands when the officers broke in, they said.

WINE DISCOVERED

Search of a house at 148 North Gramercy Place by members of the central vice squad revealed twenty-three pints of wine, sixteen gallons of whisky and fifty-eight bottles of assorted liquors, and resulted in the arrest on the premises of a man who gave his name as John Garden, 49.

When stopped by officers near his home at 720 East Thirty-ninth street James McMillan, 42, a negro, was found to be transporting fifty gallons of whisky in an automobile, according to another report. He was arrested for transportation as well as possession.

BADGE DISPLAYED

Suspicions of an automobile parked at Avenue 34 and Fletcher Drive at an early hour of the morning, Officers Carter and Heibert of the Lincoln Heights division investigated and arrested two men, one of whom attempted to identify himself as a police officer and court clerk. The latter was Robert D. Clarke, 28, who gave his address as Hemet, Cal.

Clarke, the officers said, was in possession of a poice badge No. 1092. He declared, the officers said, that he was a court clerk in Division Twelve, and that "they could do nothing to him." Later the officers found, they said, that the badge was called in a year ago, at which time Clarke is said to have terminated his employment as court clerk. Clarke and his companion, John J. Mulville, 31, of 2318 Victoria avenue, were booked at the City Jail on suspicion of robbery and possession of liquor.

PISTOL IN CAR

The officers said they found an automatic pistol in the driver's seat and a gallon jug part full of whisky in the back seat.

Raiding the home of William L. Douglas, 32, at 300 East Washington street, Police Sergeant Adams and a squad of officers from the University division discovered one gallon of whisky, fourteen pints of the same liquor, thirty gallons and 150 pints of home-brew beer, they reported. Douglas was arrested.

WIFE ASSERTS SPOUSE REFUSED TO KISS HER

Ed Orthman refused to kiss his wife, Myrtle Orthman, after four months of married life, she asserts in her divorce complaint, on file yesterday. She adds he told her he could not kiss a woman he didn't love. Mrs. Orthman claims as community property a share in an apartment she says yields an income of $1000 a month.

FITTS VOTED SUPPORT OF ASSOCIATION

Southland Chiropractors Indorse His Candidacy for Governorship

The southern division of the California Chiropractic Association in executive session here last night unanimously indorsed Buron Fitts for Governor. The territory embraced in the activities of the southern division ranges from San Luis Obispo to San Diego and east to the Arizona and Nevada lines.

Following closely on the expulsion of the California State Board of Chiropractic Examiners from the roster of the International Chiropractic Congress and the scathing rebuke of the Young administration by this national organization for asserted continued abuses in the administration of the chiropractic law, the chiropractors of the south will march in solid phalanx behind the Fitts banner, it was stated.

Dr. C. W. Hoffman, president of the southern division, last night was vehement in his denunciation of the present administration.

GLENDALE W.C.T.U. GIVES FITTS INDORSEMENT

By an overwhelming vote, the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Glendale, meeting in the First Baptist Church there, yesterday indorsed Dist.-Atty. Fitts for Governor.

Interest in the meeting had been intensified by the report that the organization would favor the candidacy of Gov. Young. In consequence when Mrs. Edith Dockeray, president, called the meeting to order virtually every leading member of the union was in her seat.

Mrs. D. D. Haines promptly introduced a resolution declaring Dist.-Atty. Fitts the gubernatorial choice of the organization. It was seconded by Mrs. Hattie Gaylord. Of the more than fifty women present, only two voted against the resolution.

FITTS TAKES OFF FOR EXTENSIVE NORTHERN TOUR

Cheered on his journey by 5000 women representing the membership of the Los Angeles City Federation of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, Buron Fitts, Republican candidate for Governor, left Los Angeles at midnight for an extensive tour of Northern California. The Los Angeles candidate took off by plane from the United Airport at Burbank.

Just an hour before he left the city Fitts received assurance from the W.C.T.U. women that they were whole-heartedly in favor of his candidacy and that they did not regard the indorsement of Gov. Young by the executive board of the State W.C.T.U. as representative of the true sentiments of the rank and file of the union.

Fitts addressed the temperance women at a meeting held at the Trinity Methodist Church, Twelfth and Flower streets.

ROW OVER SPUR TRACK CONCLUDES

Lumber Company Wins; Espee Agrees to Move to New Right of Way

Peace was assured the neighborhood of the 2800 block on Alameda street yesterday when it was learned that the Sudden Lumber Company and the Southern Pacific Railroad have reached an agreement in their row over a spur track on property owned by the lumber company, and at present leased by the Consolidated Rock Company. The railroad has agreed to relinquish its track on the lumber company's land and place it on an adjoining right of way.

The lumber concern maintained that an agreement under which the Espee enjoyed use of the spur track ran out some time ago. When the railroad refused to heed a request to remove the track, a crew of 100 laborers was engaged to do the job.

That was on the 10th inst. On the 14th inst. 200 laborers in the employ of the railroad began to relay the track. Then the lumber company went to work with a steam shovel, undermining the track. Later Federal Judge Norcross in San Francisco granted the lumber company a temporary injunction.

The forced armistice led to negotiations ending in the agreement, which was given official sanction when the lumber company asked Judge Norcross to dismiss the injunction.

Over the veto of Mayor Porter and a majority protest, the City Council yesterday ordered the final ordinance for the improvement of Dundee Drive between Commonwealth avenue and a point 2200 feet northwesterly.

HUNTER BROTHERS IN REFUELING TEST

A demonstration of refueling an airplane was given over Hollywood yesterday by the four Hunter brothers, who several weeks ago established a new endurance flight record of 553 hours at Sky Harbor Airport, Illinois. The performance took place above Grauman's Chinese Theater, where the record-holders and their sister, Irene, are making personal appearances. The record-holding plane, City of Chicago, and the refueling plane, Big Ben, were used in the feat.

Nearly 200 summer session faculty members of the University of Southern California will hold their annual beach party at the Surf and Sand Club at Hermosa Beach this afternoon and evening. Fifty-nine visiting instructors are to be guests of honor at the evening banquet with Dr. Bruce Baxter, Trojan chaplain, acting as toastmaster.

Plea For Probation Made

Everett Ross, known as "Maj. Mite," and Deputy Sheriff Stevens.

EIGHTY-NINE pounds of defendant appeared before Superior Judge Wilson yesterday, pleaded guilty to two charges of forgery and was granted permission to file an application for probation.

The midget is Everett Ross, circus performer, known under the big tops as Maj. Mite.

He was accused of attempting to pass a forged check for $900 in payment for an automobile and another for $50 to a downtown Los Angeles hotel.

Judge Wilson fixed August 11, next, as the date for hearing on Ross's probation plea.

The main business of the afternoon meeting was the reading of the report of the committee on revision of standing rules. Rev. J. C. Reid of San Francisco, chairman of the committee, presented the report, which was of considerable length. Some opposition is expected when it comes up for hearing Monday, according to report. Opposition is based on the portion devoted to the synodical council, several stating that they felt it places too much power in the hands of the few.

Mrs. J. G. Klene, vice-president in charge of the Woman's Synodical Missionary Society, gave her annual report. She criticised mildly the ministers of the synod, who she asserted are not giving proper support to the missionary movement. Rev. F. M. Larkin of Los Angeles, secretary of the State Church Federation, gave a brief address telling of the legislative work accomplished by his organization.

GOV. YOUNG SPEAKS

A musical program was presented last night, which was featured by the appearance of the Wilshire Singers. Gov. Young then gave an address on "What the State of California is Doing in Character Building Work."

The musical program was in charge of Ripley Dorr, organist-conductor. Rev. Ezra Van Nuys, D.D., pastor of the Calvary Presbyterian Church of San Francisco, presided.

Tomorrow morning following reports Rev. J. Ross Stevenson, D.D., LL.D., president of the Princeton Theological Seminary, will give an address. The afternoon will be devoted to sightseeing and recreation and Saturday evening there will be a banquet at Immanuel Church, at which there will be speaking and singing. Women delegates will banquet at the Elite Tea Room on Flower street at the same hour.

Balmy Weather for Week-end

Balmy breezes will temper the sunshine for the week-end vacationists, according to the Weather Bureau forecast yesterday, and some early morning fogs along the coastline may be expected by the sunrise swimmers.

Moderate temperatures, such as have prevailed for the past several days, will continue today and Sunday, the forecast announces. The highest recorded yesterday was 77 deg. and the lowest 58 deg. No immediate change in the almost perfect weather prevailing over California is seen in the observations recorded at the bureau.

FATE CALLS SCION OF OLD CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Maria De Cooper, One of First to be Born Under American Flag Here, Dies

The first white child born under the American flag in Santa Barbara county and believed by members of her family to have been one of the first, if not the first, born in California after this State was ceded to the United States, Mrs. Maria Antonia Foxen De Cooper died Thursday at the home of her daughter, at 3268 Blanchard street, it was announced yesterday.

Mrs. De Cooper, 83 years of age, was the daughter of Benjamin Foxen, to whom Gen. Fremont a granite shaft was unveiled last year on the Foxen Rancho, twenty-five miles southeast of Santa Maria.

Foxen, famous guide and friend of Gen. Fremont, had warned the latter, then a lieutenant-colonel, of an ambush that threatened his expedition from Monterey and also guided him and his men through San Marcos Pass, enabling the Americans to capture Santa Barbara without bloodshed. This was three weeks before California was ceded to the United States on January 13, 1847.

Mrs. Walter Benefield of 2126 Addison Way, another daughter, announced last night her mother's body will be taken to Santa Barbara for burial. Funeral rites will be conducted for her in that city at 2 p.m. Monday.

pounding children bring up an ironic anomaly. No one would give a commercial job of any responsibility to a fool who thinks her child is cursed because it has crossed eyes. Yet she has the undivided responsibility of developing the character of a human being. A responsibility that would make almost any wise, cultured, far-seeing, courageous man or woman grow nervous—wondering whether he is equal to the task.

PLANS NEAR REALITY FOR ROAD DREAM

Colorado Street Will be Extended Into Arcadia; County Funds to Help

After five years of contemplation, plans are about to materialize for extending Colorado street from the east city limits of Pasadena, merging it with Huntington Drive in Arcadia and then, connecting the latter with Foothill Boulevard a little east of Monrovia, it was announced yesterday by Deputy County Road Commissioner Cooley.

Impetus was lent to the plans when the Board of Supervisors voted to appropriate $107,000 to assist the city of Arcadia in paying for its share. The money is to be allocated from the income received by the county from the State from auto license fees.

Colorado street is one of the main east-west thoroughfares through Pasadena. The highway at present is improved to Lamanda Park, the east city limits of Pasadena, where it makes a jog of several blocks before connecting with Foothill Boulevard.

As planned now Colorado street will be extended straight through into Arcadia, where it will be merged with Huntington Drive. In order to eliminate the sharp turn in Huntington Drive to join it with Colorado street in Arcadia, a large curve will be built in it through the old Arcadia Balloon School grounds. The highway then will be carried through to Foothill Boulevard, connecting just east of Monrovia.

When finished the highway will pour the traffic of two great city arterials directly into Foothill Boulevard, one of the main east-and-west State highways.

ACTOR FINED FOR HITTING MISS DUNCAN

Lease Pleads Guilty to Charges of Battery and Then Pays Court $50

The blows which Rex Lease, motion-picture actor, administered to Vivian Duncan, member of the famous sister team, on the 6th inst. cost him $50, for that was the amount of the fine imposed yesterday by Justice of the Peace Webster in the Malibu court when he pleaded guilty to the charge of battery which was preferred by the diminutive actress.

Although Lease had asserted that Miss Duncan had struck the first blow and that he would demand a jury trial on the charge, he did not wait for the 31st inst., the date which had been set for the trial, but appeared before Judge Webster yesterday morning with his attorney, Newton J. Kendall, and said he was ready to plead guilty to the charge, which is a misdemeanor. The judge imposed sentence, Lease quickly paid his fine and left.

The attack which was the basis of the charge took place at the home of John Farrow, screen writer. The actress asserted that Lease became angry when she resisted his advances and punched and kicked her. Several days after the attack, Miss Duncan went to the Hollywood Hospital and submitted to a slight operation on her left eye which she said was made necessary by the bursting of a blood vessel.

JACOB BERMAN FOUND GUILTY

Berman would face a term of from one to fourteen years.

The principal blow to Berman, however, lies in the fact that had he not been convicted of other charges he would have been eligible to parole from McNeil Island after serving one-third of his sentence for using the mails to defraud. Now that he has been convicted of other charges in the California courts, Berman will be faced with a "hold" which automatically bars him from parole until he has served his full seven-year sentence, according to authorities. On his release from the Federal prison, Berman still must serve his sentence in San Quentin prison, unless the higher courts reverse his conviction.

Berman was prosecuted by Dep. Dist.-Atty. McCartney attached to the trial department.

Four Prisoners Caught in Plot to Break Jail

A jail-break plot at Central police station was discovered shortly before midnight last night and four prisoners were found to be in possession of two hack-saw blades with which they had partially severed the bars of their cells.

Those caught are Fred Evans, charged with vagrancy; Tony Leon, suspicion of robbery; Allen T. Johnson, vagrancy, and Robert Holland, a fugitive being held for extradition to Arizona. All have been charged with attempting to break jail, a felony.

Detectives Kramer and Dewey discovered the plot with the aid of information from within the jail, and one of the quartet is said by the officers to have confessed that the break for liberty was planned from the south windows of the jail after lock-up time tonight.

ITALIANS DROP FETE BECAUSE OF DISASTER

Out of respect to victims of the Italian earthquake disaster, plans for the festival announced to be given tomorrow at the Breakfast Club by the Order of the Sons of Italy were canceled yesterday. In announcing the cancellation, officers of the Grand Lodge stated the affair has been postponed indefinitely but probably will be held in the early fall.

THIMBLE GOLF HAS CASUALTY

Chair Tips As Man Waits At First Tee and Fall Brings Cut Head

Probably miniature golf's first casualty, Henry O'Hara, secretary and treasurer of the Eppley Hotels Company of Omaha, was walking about yesterday with a bandaged head.

At the Alexandria O'Hara related that he achieved his unusual distinction without having played a single hole. He was waiting at the first tee, when a chair in which he was sitting tipped over. O'Hara crashed to the bottom of an embankment and suffered a cut head.

The hotel man was taken to the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital, where surgeons took eighteen stitches in his head.

GUNNERY SCHOOLS FINISHED

Warships Tennessee and Oklahoma Preparing for Trip North Monday

The advanced gunnery schools which have been conducted this summer on board the battleships Tennessee and Oklahoma for selected officers from the battle fleet were completed yesterday and the two dreadnaughts began preparations to sail for Puget Sound early Monday to rejoin the fleet in northern waters on summer cruise.

Numerous advances in fire control for battleship five-inch broadside and antiaircraft batteries were secretly perfected during the courses. These new developments will be disseminated throughout the fleet by the student officers for use by all battleships during the coming gunnery year.

The Tennessee probably will make an unexpected visit to the Puget Sound navy yard for repairs to one five-inch antiaircraft gun which suffered an operating casualty during firing.

With the departure of the two ships, the port navy squadron will be reduced for the next few weeks to the aircraft carriers Saratoga and Lexington and necessary auxiliary craft.

PLANE'S CRASH FATAL TO PAIR

of the Curtiss-Wright School and had pilot's license No. 10487.

Ernest R. Van Houten, Burbank mechanic, an eyewitness and the first man to reach the wreckage, said, "I was working on a machine when my attention was called to the plane by hearing a muffled explosion. I looked around and, seeing nothing, glanced up in the air. I then saw a wing of the plane fall off and the rest of the plane spiral dive to the ground. I rushed to the spot.

"I found the bodies of the two men lying about ten feet from the wrecked plane. I raised the head of one of them, but found no signs of life. Both of the men were dead.

"The safety strap in one of the seats was unfastened, but since the men wore no parachutes, any attempt to escape their onrushing death would probably have been futile."

After an independent investigation of the accident Curtiss-Wright officials expressed the belief that what eyewitnesses reported as puffs of smoke was merely gasoline falling from the tanks and that the noise thought to have been an explosion was the snapping of the wing from the plane.

It was believed that the flight was to have been an attempt to cure Gnoepff of deafness. Investigators said that the plane was to have risen to an altitude of 15,000 feet and then go into a power dive. At the time of the accident, however, the plane was flying on a level plane at an altitude of approximately 2500 feet, eyewitnesses attested.

LEAVES YOUNG WIDOW

Morse, besides his parents, leaves his young widow, who was formerly Miss Maude Mueller, daughter of Mrs. Mae C. Mueller of Portland, Or., and a 1-year-old son, John Morse, Jr.; also, a brother, Nathan Morse. Mrs. Lottie Morse, mother of the victim, was in Fullerton, and has been notified. She owns the Altadena home in which Morse, his wife and child and his brother have been living.

Morse was graduated from Oregon State College at Corvallis. He was a member of the Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity. His widow also was graduated from the same college, where she was a member of the Chi Omega Sorority. She fainted when informed of her husband's death and is under the care of a physician.

Nephew Attacks McCarthy Will, Charging Fraud

Attacking the will of Charles McCarthy on the ground that undue influence was used and a later will was fraudulently destroyed, Nathan E. McCarthy, a nephew, cut off with $100, yesterday filed a contest to the division of an estate valued by appraisers at $341,416.

The contestant asserts that Charles I. Gilbert, another nephew of the decedent, who lives at 1954 North Vine street, and who handled his uncle's business, prejudiced the testator against other relatives. Under the will, $25,000 was left in trust to be divided among nine persons; Gilbert was to get $15,000; three other nephews, E. Avery, John D. and E. Berton McCarthy $5000 each, and forty relatives and friends $22,800, with $2800 left to charitable institutions. Gilbert, E. Berton McCarthy and Lena M. Shutt were named residuary legatees.

Suicide Pact Seen in Death of Auto Pair

Bodies of an unidentified man and woman, both shot to death, and apparently victims of a suicide pact, were found last night on the corner of East Ninth street and Bonnie Beach Place, Belvedere. Neighbors reported that the two had been sitting in an automobile parked at this corner for several hours. Four shots were fired and when residents reached the auto the two bodies were sprawled on the grass beside the car.

The man was dead and the woman died on the way to Georgia-street Receiving Hospital. She had been shot through the throat with a small-caliber revolver, while the man was shot through the right temple. The gun was found at his feet when the body was picked up.

Amiel Lamson, 27 years of age, 1003 East Seventh street, according to Lincoln Heights police, shot and killed himself while sitting on a park bench in Lincoln Park last night. A note indicated that he was out of work and discouraged.

LAWSUIT INVOLVES SEASHORE

Long Beach Breakwater Asserted Menace to Home of Pacific Coast Club

In an abatement suit on file in Superior Court yesterday, the Pacific Coast Club asks that the city of Long Beach abandon extensive ocean shore improvements which it is asserted influence sand and tide movements which are endangering the club's home, an investment valued at $1,500,000.

The club asks abatement of the breakwaters and auditorium project, and also asks that the court determine ownership of the beach fronting the Pacific Coast Club. As alternative relief, the suit asks that the city of Long Beach build groins, bulkheads or breakwaters, to prevent further erosion of the beach under the foundations of the clubhouse. It also asks that the city erect works that will insure the restoration of the club beach to the level that existed before the building of the horseshoe pier, the auditorium fill and flood-control breakwater.

The suit was filed by the legal firm of Hunsaker, Britt & Cosgrove, and signed by Frank A. Garbutt, president of the Los Angeles Athletic Club, with which the Pacific Coast Club is affiliated.

Trio in Bank Case Start to Prison Again

For the second time three men started yesterday on their way to McNeil Island Federal prison to serve sentences. They are Frank J. Pritchett, formerly cashier of the First National Bank of Culver City; E. H. Grose, a jeweler, and R. R. Westfall, a broker. Pritchett was convicted of misapplication of bank funds. His activities involved about $138,000, it was charged by the United States Attorney's office. The other two men were accused of aiding him in his operations.

At first Pritchett was sentenced to five months in prison for each of five counts, making twenty-five months. Each of the others was sentenced to three months on each of the five counts, making fifteen months. Because of the rule that they must be sentenced to at least a year and a day on at least one count, they were brought back and resentenced; Pritchett to twenty-three months on each of five counts, to run concurrently, and each of the others to thirteen months on each of five counts, to run concurrently.

Broekman Quits Universal Films

DAVID BROEKMAN.

David Broekman, for the past two years director-general of music for the Universal Pictures Corporation, yesterday severed his connection with that organization. Announcement to this effect was made by Carl Laemmle, Jr., general manager, who expressed regret at Broekman's decision.

Before coming to Hollywood, Broekman was musical conductor for the Roxy Theater in New York. While with Universal, he handled the musical end of talking pictures.

Broekman, it is understood, plans to remain temporarily in Hollywood, having but recently purchased a new home in the film capital.

AVIATION LIGHTS TO BE STANDARDIZED

Aviation green will be the newest and most predominating color in 1931, Uncle Sam has decreed. At least, it will be most prominently displayed in the "dress" of aeronautical lights, according to word received yesterday by officials of Western Air Express from Clarence M. Young, assistant Secretary of Commerce in charge of aeronautics. Mr. Young gave the information that beginning with the first of the year airports will be required to have beacons of aviation green and that a general standardization of aeronautical lights will be started beginning the first of the month. According to local aviation authorities, this is an important step forward in the matter of night air travel.

He admitted that after the war there was a distinct retrogression for a time, which was evidenced in the statistics which showed a great increase in youthful inhabitants of the nation's penal institutions, but the pendulum has now swung the other way, he said.

Some of the credit for the reversal of the pendulum is undoubtedly due, the judge thinks, to agencies connected with the council he heads. This council, he pointed out, is a clearing-house to co-ordinate the activities of about forty different organizations concerned with boys' work. Although it includes such agencies as the Boy Scouts and Y.M.C.A., it was started by Rotary and in the main is the boys' work auxiliary of Rotary and similar business service clubs.

It was through his connection with the International Lions' Club that Judge Jones became interested in the council. He is a past president of the Lions and his present trip to this city is part of a pleasure jaunt following the recent convention in Denver. He is accompanied by Michael C. Richards, a fellow-delegate to the convention from the Newark Lions' Club.

Dawn Men of Aviation in Southland

When They Went Up, They Took a Chance

Walter Brookins, left, and Roy Knabenshue in Wright plane as they appeared in Los Angeles twenty years ago. Inset, Brookins as he appears today.

AIR PIONEER RECALLS START WITH WRIGHTS

"I was born next door to the Wright brothers in Dayton, O., in 1888, and I used to help them build their first planes. Orville and Wilbur used to work day and night for weeks at a time constructing airplanes and I, being a boy, all eyes and ears, naturally went over to see what it was all about. That's how I first got interested in aviation," explained Walter R. Brookins, aviation pioneer, who resides at 107 North Kingsley Drive.

Brookins was one of America's first pilots. In December, 1909, he became actively associated with the Wright brothers, the inventors and builders of the first airplane and the first men in the world to fly a heavier-than-air machine. Brookins was the first man ever taught to fly by the Wrights.

He has the distinction of being the first man to fly to an altitude of more than one mile. He made the first long-distance flight, which was from Chicago to Springfield, Ill., a distance of 187 miles. The first night flight (to which an interesting story is attached,) made in April, 1910, is also accredited to Brookins. In the year of 1910 he held four records, altitude, cross-country, slow flight, and accurate landing.

"The planes we used then were the old twin pushers of the Model B type. They had thirty-five-horsepower engines capable of developing the then enormous speed of forty-five miles an hour. My training for a pilot was five hours of advice given me by Orville Wright back in 1909. I'll never forget my first flight. People told me that the hardest thing I would have to do while in the air would be to turn around. Many believed that the only way that feat could be accomplished was to sort of skid the plane around the corners. But after getting the plane in the air everything seemed to come naturally and the more I flew the more I liked it.

"So I stuck with it. Twenty years ago in December, 1910, I came to Los Angeles in an air carnival. Frank Garbutt and William May Garland were the first Los Angeles air passengers. I took them up in an old twin pusher. When the carnival was over Chief of Police Sebastian appointed me the first "aerial cop." I spent a long time trying to find out just what my duties were to be.

"I guess I'm the only man in the world who has been mistaken for a comet. And this is how it happened.

"In the spring of 1910 I was conducting a pilot's school for the Wright brothers at Montgomery, Ala. We'd been able to fly only in the daytime.

"Up to that time no one had ever flown at night because it was thought that an attempt to land, even with moonlight, would surely result in a crash. Yet I knew that night flying would be better than day flying because the air would be less active.

"There came a night with an enormous full moon—and I determined to try it. As was expected, the flying conditions were perfect and landing in the moonlight was as simple as landing at noon. I made several flights and landed safely after each of them.

"But to return to the comet. It was predicted that the world would pass through the tail of Halley's Comet on a certain night in the spring of 1910. There was a lot of talk about poisonous gases, meteorites and other dangers. Superstitious folk thought that the world would probably burn up. And the colored people of Alabama were sure that the Judgment Day had come.

"Well, the night we passed through the comet's tail was the night I chose to fly. We flew in those days with a ported motor exhaust that shot flaming gas out into the open and left a trail of fire behind. I didn't think of it at the time, but I found later that all the colored folk for miles around had seen us and had figured we were Halley's comet come to burn up all the sinners in the world. They told me the next day that there was a combination panic and revival going on all the time we were up."

In his many years of participation in the airplane industry Brookins made many other notable achievements. He has followed the path of aviation from its infancy to the present and predicts a tremendous increase in its use.

"The next great development will be the building of much larger planes to carry fast freight and mail," Brookins said as he landed back in his chair and perused the pages of an—yes, you guessed it—an aviation magazine.

Suspect Held in Robbery of Artesia Bank

The bandit who "Tom Sawyered" five jobless men into helping him hold up the First National Bank of Artesia on the 8th inst. yesterday was identified as Nealy Griggs, 22 years of age, held in the County Jail on a charge of suspicion of robbery.

He was arrested by police of the Seventy-seventh-street division in a round-up of robbery suspects and was picked out of a show-up group by A. T. Frampton, cashier of the Artesia bank, as the man who took $700 from him at the point of a gun.

The men with him, represented as his cobandits, told deputy sheriffs they were unaware of what was taking place until after Griggs had departed with his loot.

They said he had offered them employment and asked them to accompany him to the bank where he wished to draw some money. Meanwhile the bandit told the cashier they were members of his band and would shoot up the place if he made any outcry.

Pair Booked on Intoxication and Hit-Run Charges

Accused of hit-and-run driving and driving while intoxicated, pretty Fern Martin, 27 years of age, of 3621 South Gramercy Place, yesterday was in the County Jail along with her husband Tony, who is held on similar charges. Neither would admit having been at the wheel.

She was arrested yesterday following investigation of a triple auto collision Thursday night which resulted in fatal injuries to G. A. Fourcade, 22, of 5623 Compton avenue. The wife of Fourcade, badly injured, was reported as improving last night. Police assert reckless driving by Mr. and Mrs. Martin caused the crash. The third car in the smash-up was driven by J. E. Kessler of 1930 Wilshire Boulevard. The Coroner's inquest will be conducted at 9:30 a.m. Monday.

The Martins were captured after a chase of three blocks.

Woodmen Urged to Get Credits

All unexchanged members of the Modern Woodmen of America who are 67 years of age and over and whose present life insurance options and old-age benefits will expire the 31st inst., are urged to get in touch with local offices of the organization, rooms 449 and 432, Subway Terminal Building, or Room 4, 15 North Raymond street, Pasadena, between now and the 31st inst., according to announcement made yesterday by Ned B. Lutz, supervisor of the Service Bureau.

The organization has set aside credits for the benefit of these members and it is important they get in touch with offices of the organization, Lutz stated.

GERSTER APPOINTED TO RADIO SALES POST

B. C. Bowe, radio sales manager of the General Electric Company, yesterday announced the appointment of H. C. Gerster as western sales representative covering ten States of the Pacific and intermountain belt. C. W. Griffin will be district representative in charge of Southern California and Arizona. Both Mr. Griffin and Mr. Gerster have been associated with the radio industry since immediately after the war. The new radio which has been perfected in the General Electric laboratories will be ready for distribution about September 1.

SHIP RACING FOR PACIFIC SPEED MARK

Kinai Maru Scheduled to Reach Port Tomorrow and Hang Up New Record

With her motor turning over at top speed and engineers coaxing forth every ounce of energy possible, the S.S. Kinai Maru was plowing toward Los Angeles Harbor, a scant 800 miles off the port, last night in a determined effort to hang up a new record for the trans-Pacific crossing of freighters.

And while her commander, Capt. Toru Yamaguchi, veteran of a hundred trans-Pacific crossings, radioed to agents of the Osaka Shosen Kaisha Line here that the racing ship is making 18.3 knots and should make this port by 6:30 p.m. tomorrow, coast shipping men from here to Seattle began to sit up yesterday and take notice of the amazing time made since the ship left Yokohama at noon of the 16th inst.

Urging that the achievement of the Kinai Maru should be given full recognition by the city as well as steamship interests, Secretary-Manager Arnoll of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday addressed letters to Mayor Porter and to President Allen of the Board of Harbor Commissioners and suggested that a delegation should welcome the ship on its arrival here. Capt. Paul Chandler, manager of the Marine Exchange, likewise sent letters to all steamship men asking their cooperation in having all vessels in the harbor give appropriate salutes on their fog sirens and whistles when the Kinai Maru reaches quarantine.

Heredity May be Deciding Issue in Trial

Prosecution and defense contentions being equal, the hereditary characteristics of a 2-month-old baby boy may become the deciding issue in a trial now under submission by Superior Judge Hardy.

The defendant is Jack Mabel, grocer, who is accused by 16-year-old Adeline Cordoza of being the father of her child. Mabel denies the charge, asserting that he is of Jewish ancestry and that the child has distinctive Spanish characteristics.

Mabel recently was tried before Superior Judge Hardy, accused of criminally assaulting the girl. At the trial the defendant denied the charge, declaring that Miss Cordoza never worked for him as she contended.

Taking the matter under submission, Judge Hardy decided to view the baby personally at his home, 214 Eastlake avenue, on Monday afternoon.

Blood tests also will be made, Judge Hardy stated, to determine scientifically, if possible, whether or not he is a son of Mabel.

World's Oldest Man Shown in "Times" Reel

Zaro Agha's recent arrival in New York to exhibit himself as the world's oldest living man is one of the features of the latest issue of The Times-Universal Newsreel now being shown at Southern California theaters. Turkey's modern Methusaleh, who insists he is 156 years of age, is shown surrounded by a bevy of stage beauties, to the accompaniment of a description by Graham McNamee, the talking reporter.

Other current events shown include a $1,000,000 fire in Paris, a wedding in the swimming tank at Steeplechase Park, N. Y., the winning of a beauty crown by an Indian princess in South Dakota, a visit by Mrs. Herbert Hoover to a mountain school house in Virginia and the efforts to rescue survivors of a mine disaster in Silesia.

The schedule may be obtained by phoning Newsreel Book at REpublic 3171 and inquiring about Newsreel No. 59.

Woman Found Dead in Bathtub of Apartment

Believed the victim of electrocution, caused when a portable heater toppled into the water, Mrs. Ellen McIntosh Erwin, 52 years of age, was found dead in the bathtub yesterday in her apartment at 1800 North La Brea avenue. The body was discovered by a maid. Detective Lieutenant Prosper, who investigated, reported that although the switch was not turned on he received a shock as he removed the heating apparatus from the tub, indicating there was a short-circuit. An autopsy will be performed today to determine whether the woman died a natural death or was the victim of an accident.

Mrs. Erwin was the widow of Dr. James Erwin, who for twenty-two years held the post of private physician to a Rajah in India. Among her effects officers found numerous valuable articles of hand-wrought metal inscribed with testimonials to her guardianship of an East Indian prince and princess.

Postal Official Voices Praises

Inspection was made yesterday of the Arcade Postoffice by Arch Coleman, first assistant Postmaster-General; V. C. Burke, a postoffice inspector, and Postmaster O'Brien. Coleman said he is pleased with the efficiency of the office, which is the handling center for Los Angeles mail, and stated that it compares favorably with other large mail-handling centers in the United States.

Coleman will leave for Washington tomorrow, by way of Western Air Express via Kansas City.

IRONY OF FATE TRIPS WRITER

Successful Woman Author Asks Divorce From Mate Who Admits His Jealousy of Her Success in Field Where He Has Failed

"You write and click. I write—and don't."

These words, read yesterday in Superior Judge Rector's court, were offered as evidence of why Edmund M. Littell, fiction writer of New York, rejected the proffer of reconciliation made by his wife, Mrs. Jane Littell, successful short-story writer of Hollywood.

Professional jealousy of his successful writing wife and unwillingness to accept her aid were set forth in crisp literary style in this letter which Mrs. Littell testified she received from her husband just before last Christmas. They had parted in Michigan in 1928, he returning to New York while she came to Hollywood. Her stories sold. She received a loving letter from her husband and wrote back, suggesting he join her here.

LETTER FRANK

She received a long letter, thanking her for a Christmas present she had sent him, and which continued:

"You, in your desire to tell me of your situation, told me of all your successes. I immediately began to feel a greatly increased return of the feelings which began to loom so largely in my thoughts about two years ago—that you were the success and that I was the failure. Kept, see? Or put in the bluntest sort of language, jealousy. You write and click. I write and don't."

The writer recalled how self-reliantly the wife went out to work and succeed while he remained home, writing and tending to the house. This arrangement, he complained humorously, was calculated to increase his "housewifely subservience." But, he announced, he was through with accepting favors from his wife.

"I, who have been ridden so long by that Old Man of the Sea—Inferiority," continues the letter, "have to say to you 'Go ahead and buy a divorce. With your own money, because I can't help you.'"

QUIT JOB TO WRITE

The Littells married December 24, 1915, and separated November 19, 1928. Mrs. Littell complained that, against her advice, Littell quit his job with a steel company to write fiction. In New York, said the wife, her husband became increasingly jealous of her success as a writer. In an effort to find quiet for literary work they moved to Traverse City, Mich., where, the wife asserted, on the night of January 15, 1928, Littell announced he was going out to the edge of the lake ice and end it all. Instead, he went to a theater.

Then, continued the wife, her husband became interested in another woman. Mrs. Littell sold a story and used the money to pay her fare to Hollywood. Here she won writing success, and decided to try for a reconciliation. In reply she received the confession of professional jealousy and unwillingness to play literary second fiddle to a writing wife.

Littell lives at 450 West Twenty-second street, New York. Attorney John Munger of Pasadena appeared in court for Mrs. Littell.

Threat to Take Son From State Related by Wife

Threats to take their little son from the State were told yesterday by Mrs. Edna Embrey in obtaining a divorce from Garland M. Embrey, well-to-do dairyman. She also accused Embrey of striking her, cutting her flesh. Superior Judge Guerin granted her a divorce.

"He falsely accused me of unfaithfulness and called me vile names in the presence of my son," testified Mrs. Embrey. "Once he threatened to take the boy and leave the State. I suffered a nervous collapse as a result of his treatment."

The judge awarded her custody of her son Garland, Jr., 11 years of age, and $50 a month for the child's support.

Nine Paralysis Cases Reported

An increase of nine infantile paralysis cases in twenty-four hours, making the total for July to date 138, with seven deaths, was reported to the health department yesterday.

The department reports the average rate of increase for several days has been about seven new cases daily, compared to a total of eighty-four cases and six deaths for the entire month of June.

CITY POWER PLANT PLAN APPROVED

Commissioners Indorse Report of Special Board of Engineers

The report of the special engineering board appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to check the plans submitted to the Board of Water and Power Commissioners, setting forth the financial program of the Bureau of Power and Light, involving the expenditure, over the ensuing three-year period of $31,000,000, was adopted by the commissioners at an adjourned meeting yesterday and transmitted to the Chamber of Commerce for its approval.

The findings of the engineering board were later submitted to John C. Austin, president of the chamber; Maj. Henry O. Wheeler, chairman of the chamber's water and power resources committee, and Harvey S. Mudd, chairman of the special committee appointed by the chamber to advise with the Board of Water and Power Commissioners on the subject.

The report, exhaustive in detail, covers every phase of the program and approves of the plans as sound from both an engineering and financial standpoint.

At 10:30 o'clock this morning the commissioners will meet with Mayor Porter, representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, the Citizens' Water and Power Committee and the editors and publishers of the metropolitan newspapers and discuss various phases of the program, including the advisability of placing the $19,000,000 bond issue which the board will ask for, on the August 26 ballot.

The board also elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Dr. John R. Haynes, president, and O. T. Johnson, Jr., vice-president. No action has been taken as yet by Mayor Porter on the reappointment of Dr. Haynes to the board, his position merely being continued until action is taken by the Mayor.

HER STORY WINS DECREE

Mrs. Pearl E. Pfefferkorn yesterday complained that her husband called her "a disappointed redhead," in seeking a divorce from Carl T. Pfefferkorn. Superior Judge Keetch granted the decree after the wife had added that the husband also struck her. The court also gave the wife custody of her daughter, Betty Mae, 13 years of age, and ordered Pfefferkorn to pay $150 a month for the child's support.

THAT HUGE CENSUS

The rest of the world will be happy to learn that Chicago really has something to brag about.

IN GOOD HANDS

It begins to look as if Hoover's search for the Roosevelt "big stick" in the cellar of the White House had not been in vain.

PURIFIED ATMOSPHERE

New York scientist shows that the best time for humans "to take the air" is 4 o'clock in the morning. Come to think of it, that would be a good time to hold our political meetings.

HUMAN SARDINES

Those who kick about overcrowded cars and busses in Los Angeles will not feel so bad when they learn that in the New York subway coaches seat 160 and stand 258, a total of 418.

BUT THEY CAN TALK

Nicholas Murray Butler says there are few men and women alive in the world, "although there are hundreds of millions of living human beings." Must have attended a session of Congress.

FASTEST HUMANS

It has taken American athletes fifty-two years to reduce the 100-yard-sprint mark three-fifths of a second. The first ten-second man in this country was W. C. Wilmer, who made his mark in 1878. Frank Wykoff, U. S. C. youth, seems the most likely one to further reduce his own mark of 9 2-5 seconds and some predict that he will touch nine seconds before his racing days are over.

KING OF GANGSTERS

Said that Al Capone is building a $375,000 house on a fifty-acre island situated about forty miles north of Miami, Fla. The Floridans have been trying to make it warm for the Chicago gangster, but he can fortify his island, pull up the drawbridge and tell the sheriffs to soak their heads. Possibly the lord of loot figures on doing some liquor business in Florida. Just think, we might have had him for a citizen of Los Angeles!

SPORTING CONFIDENCE

Many reasons have been given from time to time as suggested explanations of the supremacy of American over British players at polo, golf, lawn tennis and other games where important deciding matches are played in front of crowds of spectators.

"I think," says a writer in the London Times, "that after spending some years in America I can give you the basic reason. American children never are suppressed. As soon as they can walk and talk they are encouraged to speak before being spoken to and generally behave with assurance before grown-up people. . . . The result is an adult full of self-confidence in front of any crowd, however imposing."

On the other hand, children in England are expected to behave in the presence of elders with as little insistence as possible upon their own personality. They are kept in the background. On no account are they permitted to precede their parents on entering a room or walking in the street. Americans think nothing of letting children take the lead in this way and many others. Sometimes an American daughter runs the whole house. If entertaining is to be done she attends to it. If walls are to be decorated it is her taste that is consulted. The son drives about in the family car and the father takes the trolley.

Charles W. Paddock, the well-known sportsman, says that the American champion without confidence is a rarity. "Most of the great stars," he says, "find it their best asset." It requires a great deal of nerve for a golf champion to be followed down the course by great crowds of people. It is here that the British player is at a disadvantage, as he is little given to display and would far rather that nobody looked on while he is making a decisive drive. We often have been criticised by European writers for giving our children their heads. Of course it does not improve their manners, but it gives them self-confidence.

THOSE CONGRESS SEATS

The Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce has joined the San Diego Chamber of Commerce and other civic bodies of Southern California in serving notice on tricky northern politicians that this section of the State expects a fair deal in the matter of apportioning Congressional seats. It is expected that when the census tally is completed for all the States, it will be found that California will add nine to her present total of eleven in the national House of Representatives, making twenty in all. The scheme which is reported being hatched up north is to leave the present Congressional districts as they are and elect the nine new Congressmen from the State at large.

Now everybody knows that the present Congressional districts are absurdly inequitable and should have been reframed after the 1920 census, without regard to the failure of Congress to pass a reapportionment bill. As matters now stand, the ten counties of Southern California have but three Congressmen, though they have more than half the population of the State, while the northern counties, with less than half the population, have eight Congressmen. This inequity would not only be perpetuated, under the unfair plan of reapportionment against which the civic bodies protest, but Northern California would claim a share, and perhaps, though political deals, a majority, of the Congressmen to be elected at large.

As President Austin of the Chamber of Commerce says in his announcement of that body's attitude: "Unless Southern California takes a decided stand in this matter and every citizen of Southern California realizes the importance of this situation, we in the south will be deprived of our proper quota of representation in the national Congress."

The apportionment is in the hands of the Legislature, which is to be elected on the old, rotten-borough apportionment of 1910, the new apportionment voted in by initiative not yet being effective, and the northern portion of the State will still have control. Only the election of a Governor and legislators pledged to a square deal, from no matter what part of the State they come, or the sudden and unexpected coming to its senses of the northern-dominated political machine, can prevent the consummation of some such plan.

Another failure of fair apportionment would be the cap-sheaf of the wrongs, the injuries and the inequities which this northern machine has heaped upon the southern counties in the past twenty-five years. This is not the fault of the decent, reputable, fair-minded citizens of the north, except in so far as they have failed to control their politicians. Probably a large majority of the people of Northern California dislike and repudiate such tactics and would if given the opportunity vote to give the southern counties their just deserts.

These ten counties ask no more than is coming to them. They want the State divided into twenty Congressional districts, if the State is to have twenty Congressmen, each district containing as near as may be an equal population as shown by the census just past. They do not want to take a single Congress district from Northern California to which the population of that portion of the State entitles it; nor will they willingly accept a single Congress district less than the proper quota. They want the districts properly laid out, with no trickery and no gerrymandering.

This slick political scheme has, of course, its dangers for the northern machine. If it is put into effect it may make this end of the State mad enough to insist on electing nine Southern Californians to the nine at-large seats, leaving Northern California holding the bag. There are plenty of votes to do this; they but need to be better organized. But even if all nine were elected from Southern California, this portion of the State would not be as much over-represented at Washington as Northern California is now. Twelve Congressmen from Southern California, eight from Northern, is not as disproportionate to the relative populations as the present allotment of three to eight.

The attitude of every gubernatorial candidate, of every State Senate candidate, and of every Assembly candidate, toward this matter of reapportionment should be scrutinized by every Southern California voter, and no man should be supported who does not pledge himself to a square deal. It may be possible, and it may be necessary, to redistrict the State by an initiative measure, but this is slow and uncertain. This section expects a proper apportionment at the hands of the Legislature and should insist on getting it.

A THREAT TO WORKERS

Appearance of a union organizer plentifully supplied with funds, rumored to have been furnished in large part by rival, closed-shop manufacturers, is a threat to the prosperity of Los Angeles women's garment manufacturers and to their employees. There are about 8000 workers in the local industries affected, and if anything is done to take away their employment their situation, in view of the general business situation, will be distressing. Not more than 500 of these 8000 now belong to any union and the efforts likely to be made to force them into a union and to force employers to deal with that union will certainly cause disruption of business at a very poor time both for employers and workers.

The open-shop garment manufacturers of this city have been steadily gaining ground for several years past and in 1929 are believed to have put out $75,000,000 of product, as compared with a third of that amount two years before. They have been meeting New York competition all over the West, a condition made easier for them by the fact that the New Yorkers are weighted down with union regulations. The eastern concerns naturally would not be displeased to see their coast rivals similarly handicapped. Industrial trouble here would be for the advantage also of the New York union members, who expect to get the work thus taken from the hands of the Los Angeles workers.

That the Los Angeles employers should resist to the utmost attempts to make them sign closed-shop contracts, goes without saying. Public sentiment will support them in the protection of their shops and workers from this menace, financed from an alien source, whether that source is the pockets of business competitors or strictly union funds, or both. Unionization implies strikes, picketing, intimidation and violence, in all of which the public has a direct interest and none of which should be tolerated here. Los Angeles has been without a real strike in any major industry for so long that it has almost forgotten what a strike means; but it does not want to relearn.

PLIGHT OF ITALY

Struck by earthquakes, hurricanes and other disastrous occurrences, which have taken a toll of thousands of lives, injured a larger number and rendered a vast population homeless and endangered by famine and pestilence, Italy is entitled to the heartfelt sympathy of the whole world. The Italian government has sent out notice that Italy can take care of her own and that no outside aid will be called for. It is an expression of pluck and self-reliance which does the Italian people credit, but need not be considered a bar to assistance if events prove that the authorities have been overoptimistic.

It is no disgrace to a nation if its relief facilities prove inadequate to cope with a catastrophe of such magnitude, and if other peoples can alleviate in any degree the suffering of the injured and the homeless, they would be glad of the opportunity to prove their good will and humanitarianism. In the present state of human knowledge, it is impossible to predict the occurrence of such disasters, and so far as anyone knows they may happen anywhere and at any time. The best that man can do is to repair the damage as swiftly as may be. In such reparation, many hands make light work and a burden widely distributed is easily borne. Neither racial nor national lines need be regarded at such a time.

DETROIT RECALLS ITS MAYOR

Charles Bowles, elected as a "reform candidate" for Mayor of Detroit last fall and in office six months, has been ousted by the voters of that city. Detroit is the largest city ever to apply the recall to a high official, though in 1921 the Governor of North Dakota, together with the Attorney-General and Commissioner of Agriculture, were voted out.

Bowles's term has been short but stormy, and he was much criticised not only for his appointments, but for the asserted failure of his police to stop liquor selling, vice and gambling. As a mainly open-shop city, Detroit has been much less under the sway of racketeers than Chicago, but it has had its quota of gang murders and assassinations. One such tragedy followed the recall election when a radio speaker who had fought for the recall was shot down in his hotel. It does not follow, of course, that there was any connection between the election and the slaying.

Detroit will now have a new mayoralty election, in which Bowles will contest for his office with other candidates. Since the majority against him at the recall election was only 30,000 in a vote of 210,000, if there is more than one opposition candidate he may easily be reelected. This is not quite as silly as the Los Angeles charter section which permits a man to be recalled and reelected at the same election, but it is a close second. If a recall is to mean anything, it is obvious it ought to bar the recalled official from succeeding himself.

THE SAME OLD BREED

By James J. Montague

I met a man the other day
Who mourned the good old times,
When daring bandits got away
With bold and clever crimes.
"The crooks that we have now," he said,
"Are of a craven breed,
They just blow off a person's head
And take the cash they need.
But history will leave them out;
When all is said and done,
There's nothing picturesque about
A gangster with a gun."

But maybe when young Jesse James
Played wild romantic pranks
Like looting western gambling games
And robbing country banks,
The folks he blackjacked, robbed or shot
To gratify some whim,
Or personal dislike could not
See any charm in him.
For in the West, as in the slums,
When crooks run far and free
You'll find the picturesque becomes Extremely hard to see.

And if the James boys lived today
And plied their deadly trade,
Along the Kaw, or on Broadway
Their fame would swiftly fade,
And everybody would declare
That they were human dregs
And swiftly ought to get the chair
As low-browed, murdering yeggs.
Though history, beyond a doubt
Is filled with false report,
There's nothing picturesque about
A crook of any sort.

The LEE SIDE O' L.A.

BY Lee Shippey

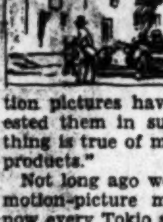
SINCE talking pictures came in, the problem of making pictures for Spanish-speaking countries has grown important. Next to English-speaking people, Spanish-speaking people hold first rank and include many millions of motion-picture patrons. Hollywood Spanish has not fully satisfied those cash customers and efforts at competition have sprung up. Some Spanish pictures are being made in Mexico City, and a Spanish-born actor told us the other day that more Spanish pictures are being made in England than in Hollywood.

But Harold Smith, publisher of Transportation Magazine, returned the other day from several weeks in Spain and says we have nothing to fear from foreign competition.

The World Goal of Romance

"The main reason," says Smith, "is that America is the country in which the people of the whole world take most interest, and Los Angeles is the American city in which they take most interest. The picture fans of Spain or South America, as well as those of other countries, would rather see pictures filmed in Los Angeles than pictures filmed anywhere else. They are more interested in all the little side lights on the life of a people which are shown in these American pictures than they could be in pictures made elsewhere.

"In Madrid and Seville I noticed on the streets a larger percentage of the higher-price American motor cars than one would see here. That is partly because the Spaniard loves to live in the country and American cars stand up under travel over country roads better than other cars do. But it also is because the motion pictures have shown and interested them in such cars. The same thing is true of many other American products."



Not long ago we quoted a Japanese motion-picture man as saying that now every Tokio stenographer tries to look like Norma Shearer, that American clothes have displaced native costume throughout Japan and that such devices as American washing machines are in demand there as result of American pictures. These two statements seem to corroborate each other.

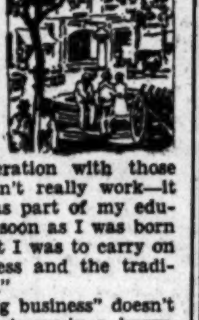
Europe Interested in Olympic Games

Smith also found Spain greatly interested in the coming Olympic Games in Los Angeles and says a representative of the Spanish competitors soon will be here to make arrangements for their transportation and housing.

"There isn't an athlete in Spain who isn't more interested in this event, because it is to be held in Los Angeles," he says. "And the same interest holds throughout Europe. We Americans used to dream of castles in Spain as the pinnacles of romance, but now Spain and all the world are eager to see castles in Southern California."

Competitors Who Don't Blow Up

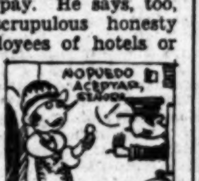
While Spain is copying America in many ways, Smith says, its manufacturing interests cannot comprehend our mass production. In Spain a factory is very much a family affair, descending from father to son. When he told one manufacturer that there should be a good market for his wares in this country, he exclaimed: "But I could not supply such a demand. All of us in this plant have been born and reared to it. We take great pride in our work, and we could not multiply our production without losing that personal interest in everything we turn out. I have been learning this business since I was 7 years old. After school I was brought here each day to stand behind the workmen and so acquire a sense of color, proportion, workmanship. Later I was given very easy tasks to perform in co-operation with those workmen. It wasn't really work—it was school. It was part of my education, because as soon as I was born it was decided that I was to carry on my father's business and the traditions of our house."



That kind of "big business" doesn't produce great fortunes in a hurry, perhaps, but it doesn't produce overproduction, either.

Tip to European Tourists

While all Spain is wanting to see Los Angeles, Smith tells us that Spain is a most interesting place for those Americans who are going abroad. For one thing, all the hotels there are under government supervision and very strictly held down in the matter of rates. That may be due to the fact that most of the hotels are owned by Belgians and Frenchmen, but it works out to the tourist's benefit. Another reason is that Madrid and Seville retain their native interest better than most big cities on the main lines of tourist travel. There are few tourists in Spain, as compared to France, Italy and Germany, and the government does a good deal to protect them. As your taxicab comes to a halt, for instance, a policeman may run up, look at the meter, and tell you just how much you are to pay. He says, too, that there is scrupulous honesty among those employees of hotels or public service organizations who are forbidden to accept tips. Some of the taxicab men are forbidden to accept tips, and it is common to see them chasing tourists into their hotels to insist on giving back to them a few pennies of change which they had hurried off without waiting for.



Can you imagine that?

Get Money to Work

LOS ANGELES, July 22.—[To the Editor of The Times:] "Timidity of borrowers is the only reason for slump in construction," says an article published by The Times. Herbert U. Nelson, ex-secretary of the United States Real Estate Boards, said there was nearly $1,000,000,000 begging for home construction. Each city was apportioned off the amount and Los Angeles had $20,000,000 at hand in the banks for home building. Thursday evening a full-page ad was in one of the evening papers, stating there was $100,000,000 in the banks and building loan associations for that purpose. "Boloney!" Have met several people who have applied for loans and after all the charges are made a possible builder has a loan granted that would build a first-class garage. There are hundreds of families in Los Angeles that are ready to build, but cannot get enough allowed with a clear lot and improvements in to put up a decent home.

If there were 1000 homes under construction it would mean 10,000 men put to work and every line of business would be benefited. New furniture and furnishings would be bought and unemployment helped out. Hoover called big interests in and they promised to help out. Let The Times, which has always been behind anything for the best interests of Los Angeles, call in the president of the Chamber of Commerce and the bankers and the building loan officers and see if they are honest in wanting to help relieve unemployment. This is a dangerous time; unrest, little work and "plenty of money" to relieve unemployment. This is the time to make easy money for building purposes. The man who is a home owner is not a Communist or "Bolshevik." New jobs mean no "brooding" and put the breath of life in business. I hope others will express themselves in this matter in your valuable newspaper.

AN OLD SUBSCRIBER.

Wrong; Souls or No Souls

LOS ANGELES, July 22.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Apropos the woman who wished that certain valuable dogs and cats should die with her, she is not only selfish, but illogical. If, as she alleged, these animals have souls, she has no more right to encompass their death than that of so many school children. If they have no souls, she has no argument and stands condemned of wanton destruction of valuable property. Anyway, she never learned the trick of giving life!

CECIL E. REYNOLDS.

If Rolph Slips In

ESCONDIDO (Cal.) July 23.—[To the Editor of The Times:] If the Republicans of Southern California want to nominate Mayor Rolph of San Francisco they are taking the right plan. Divide the vote of Southern California between two candidates and Rolph will be nominated. Then they will have the Governor, both United States Senators. Then if they get the dirigible base, the battle fleet and Army headquarters—then should war come and the enemy capture Los Angeles our fleet would have to stay at San Francisco. No fuel for the oil-burner ships.

DAVID B. TODD.

He's For Shuler

LOS ANGELES, July 23.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Although I admire your stand on the Eighteenth Amendment and your editorials in general, I deplore the fact that you are among the chief critics of Rev. Bob Shuler.

If you, Prosecutor Nix and numerous other critics would co-operate with Rev. Bob Shuler to clean up conditions in Los Angeles city and county, you could do wonders in a much shorter time than it would take otherwise.

If Rev. Shuler is a "political boss" in Los Angeles, as one Los Angeles man said, then I would rather live in a city that is "bossed" by such a man as Rev. Shuler than to live in a city that is "bossed" by any other type of man.

Mr. Nix should never have his office; and probably because he has practically lost his seat has he become so vicious against Shuler and Mayor Porter. May your tribe decrease forever.

I challenge you to publish above.

CHECK AND DOUBLE-CHECK

Galveston, Tex., because of its location with water on either side of the town, is unusually damp. Cellars and basements are always wet and it is often necessary to maintain a constant pumping in order to keep the water from accumulating in underground places. In the building of an annex to the John Sealy Hospital, which it was desired to have as dry as posible, every known system of waterproofing was resorted to, including membrane water-proofing, marine cement, damp-resisting paint, plastic waterproofing, and a dehydration solution. The membrane waterproofing, consisting of several layers of asphalt - saturated - and - coated felt, has been employed generously from the foundation on up to the first floor. But before this was applied by hand the surfaces so protected were first covered with a cold binder sprayed on with air under pressure. Likewise, it is speeding up the job of covering the masonry walls of the building both inside and outside with the dehydration solution. The outer walls are to be gone over twice with this transparent fluid in order to effectually seal the pores of the stone and the brickwork and thus to prevent moisture from penetrating.

ANTIQUE TREASURES

BY WILLIAM HAMILTON CLINE

Rather surprising but none the less gratifying to the Quester of the New York Sun is a recent discovery by him that this region is rich in antiques—the finding of which seems to be his purpose in life. And "antiques" is here used in the eastern seaboard sense as denoting objects such as came out of England or France in early days, and not at all the Spanish or native creations in which the Southwest would naturally be rich.

A sort of mild astonishment runs through the Quester's story—as if such finds were, indeed, treasure trove in these parts—perhaps because he forgets that largely the American settlement of this coast was by down-easterners, before the middle western influence and influx prevailed. Naturally, these earlier folk brought with them around the Horn their prized lares and penates, which are still regarded as priceless by their descendants and those others who have been fortunate enough to acquire them.

Pasadena houses and the movie "prop" rooms seem to be the depositories of most of the antiques viewed by this Quester, though undoubtedly mansions in Los Angeles have their share—not to mention the newer estates of the cinema stars, who have been avid assemblers of such. Rapturous mention is made of "a couple of Philadelphia walnut chairs, worthy of any collector," while in a Georgian dining-room are enumerated a fine Sheraton table, Hepplewhite sideboard and Chippendale chairs, with hangings quite in the period. Another Pasadena home contains authentic early American pieces, perfectly set. One in Glendale is embellished with rare Elizabethan wood carvings incorporated into its structure, and equally some French Gothic effects, together with furniture of undoubted collective worth.

One Pasadena home is listed as containing an exceedingly fine library of rare volumes—"an event of first importance"—while the house is further ornamented with Italian furniture and fabrics, and even Barberini Palace tapestries and Gothic carvings. A well-known curio shop in that city comes in for special praise.

The studios are given credit not only for their truthful reproductions, but for large assemblages of historically true antiques—not a few from New England towns. Arsenals of old weapons, rooms full of period costumes and warehouses of effects certify as to the studios' efforts toward correct portrayal and please the writer quite highly.

It is most satisfying for this "hinterland" thus to be estimated at its true value, antiquely speaking; too many by far are prone to regard us as merely newly western. Of course we had a fine Spanish-flavored culture before the East was even known, but to have it also certified that we own collections of "antiques" such as are here set out, while a bit surprising to one from the other coast, is not at all displeasing to our pride and thoroughly delightful to our finer feelings, as it were.

HE "FITTS" TO PERFECTION!

Some folks may be for Mister Young,
Whose praises have been softly sung;
Which "Young"? Well, what's the dif'rence, friend?
A Young's a "Young"—there are no end
Of "Youngs"—but voters, sages, wits,
Can only find one fighting "Fitts!"

Some years ago, he set his jaw,
And learned the ins and outs of law,
And then he set his jaw again,
And battled with his brother men,
In mud and stench of bloody trench—
Which gave his jaw a tighter "clench!"

Then he returned—a war-scarred "vet,"
And set his jaw still tighter yet,
And went to Sacramento, then Returned to ol' L. A. again,
And clicked his teeth and warred on crime—
Now scores of crooks are "doing time!"

The chair up there, where one Young sits,
Is large—and needs a man that "Fitts!"

WHERE CAN I LEARN

Cake Decoration?

BY LOUISE L. TEMPLE

[Prepared in co-operation with the Los Angeles evening high schools. Questions concerning free evening classes will be answered if stamped addressed envelope is inclosed. Address Louise L. Temple, care of The Times.]

Enticing confections of multi-hued flowers are constructed in the free class in cake decoration at the Frank Wiggins Trade Evening School, 216 West Venice Boulevard. As the artistic teacher must be in close supervision over each step of the work, only eight students can be taken at a time, but as soon as these are pronounced perfect and placed in positions in various confectioneries of the city, new students are called from the waiting list.

Only men and women in the baking trades are admitted to the class. For these the only expense is $1 enrollment fee. People interested should go in person to apply for admission to the waiting list. The office in the school is open from 1 to 9 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday.

Plans are afoot to commemorate the centenary of Scott's birth, two years from now, when the land o' the heather will unite in paying homage to the famous writer who is known as the Homer of Scotland.

CHEF WYMAN'S RECIPES

Every Tuesday and Friday at 2 o'clock Mrs. A. L. Wyman will conduct a free class and demonstration of good cookery in the lecture room of the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway.

GRAPE JUICE WHIP

One and one-half cupfuls of grape juice, one tablespoonful of gelatine, one-fourth of a cupful of cold water, one-fourth cupful of boiling water. Soak the gelatine in cold water for five minutes, add the boiling water and stir until the gelatine is dissolved, add the grape juice, place in the refrigerator to partly congeal, then remove to a cold bowl, and beat with an egg beater until light and foamy. Return to the refrigerator to harden. Serve with a thin custard sauce.

CRAB AND OKRA IN RICE RING

Place two tablespoonfuls of butter or shortening in a saute pan, add one thinly sliced onion, one thin slice of cold boiled ham chopped fine, and one chopped green pepper, and cook for five minutes. Then add one cupful of thick tomatoes and two cupfuls of boiling water, and simmer slowly for fifteen minutes. Prepare a half-pound of okra, by cutting off the tips and stems and cutting in small pieces (or the canned okra may be used,) add to the tomato mixture, and simmer for ten minutes. Flake one medium-sized can of crab meat, add it to the mixture and simmer just long enough to heat the crab flakes. Season with salt and paprika, mold cooked rice in a ring mold. Turn it onto a serving plate and fill with the crab and okra mixture.

COFFEE SHERBERT

One and one-half cupfuls of strong hot coffee, while hot add to it three-quarters of a cupful of sugar, and a half-cupful of cream. Soften one tablespoonful of gelatine in three tablespoonfuls of cold water, and add to the hot mixture. Beat the yolks of three eggs until light with a half teaspoonful of salt, and fold them into the coffee, add one teaspoonful of vanilla and six stale macaroons that have been crumbled in rather coarse pieces. When the mixture has cooled, fold in the stiffly whipped whites of the three eggs, pour into serving glasses, allow to chill and garnish with spirals of whipped cream.

BRIDGE SALAD

Two packages of lemon-flavored gelatine, one small can of crushed pineapple, two cupfuls of cottage cheese. Drain the juice from the pineapple and add enough water to make one cupful of liquid. Bring to a boil and dissolve in it one package of the gelatine. When cooled add the pineapple that has been mixed with the cottage cheese. Rinse out a mold with cold water, a long square mold would be best for this purpose, and pour the mixture in to the depth of one inch. Place in the ice box and allow to harden. Dissolve the other package of gelatine with one and a half cupfuls of boiling water and allow to cool. Color with a few drops of red color. Pour this carefully onto the first mixture about one-half inch in depth. When cool cut with fancy cutters and serve as individual salads.

Health and Diet ADVICE

by DR. FRANK McCOY
Author of "The Fast Way to Health"

THE VALUABLE GRAPEFRUIT

During the coming year we are facing the problem of a scarcity of oranges. In many cases the prices may be prohibitive to the average person. On the other hand, grapefruit may become more reasonable in price, as there are several thousand new acres coming into bearing this year.

All undoubtedly are familiar with grapefruit, which is closely related to the orange. The grapefruit contains all the medicinal and healthful qualities of the orange, and has the advantage for many of not containing as much sugar.

Those who are reducing, or have liver disorders, catarrhal trouble, diabetes or rheumatism often will find the grapefruit superior. An entire meal of grapefruit may be used at noon in place of luncheon by those who wish to keep cool on hot days, or who wish to reduce or overcome billiousness. When used in this way, the grapefruit acts as a fine liver cleanser and at the same time may be regarded as a good tonic, as it contains many vital organic salts and vitamins necessary to the body.

The citric acid of the grapefruit is readily oxidized, and releases alkaline elements into the blood stream. The one who is suffering from too much acidity need not fear to use the citrus fruits, as they will assist in curing hyperacidity if used properly.

Grapefruit always is helpful to one who is suffering from a cold or an acute fever. In fact, the illness often is overcome quickly if no other food is used for several days, and only the juice of one or two grapefruit taken at intervals of every two hours during the day. If used in this way it can be called a medicinal fruit, as its effect is very beneficial. To obtain the greatest value from this fruit it should not be eaten at the same time as cereals, as the acid does not combine well with any starch, and may cause the starch to ferment.

It is best to use the grapefruit either as a meal by itself, or one hour before breakfast, or before retiring. A good plan is to take a glassful of grapefruit juice and place it near your bed so you can drink it as soon as you are awake in the morning. Taken in this way the juice passes through your stomach quickly, and you obtain the greatest tonic and medicinal effect.

The bitter principal in the skin is produced by an organic glucocide, naringin, which is not harmful and even seems to stimulate the formation of bile and is therefore helpful in liver complaints.

A good medicinal drink can be made by cutting up the entire grapefruit, skin and all, and pouring over it one quart of boiling water. Use an enamel or granite pan, as the acid of the grapefruit attacks the metal of an ordinary pan. Permit the mixture to steep for thirty minutes. It is ready then to drink. The liquid will be found to have a bitter flavor. However, it is not unpleasant to take an entire diet for a day or two.

Grapefruit is most wholesome when eaten without sugar, and varieties are being grown with enough natural sugar that no other sugar need be added to make them palatable. So soon as you become accustomed to the natural flavor of the grapefruit you will enjoy them every day of the year.

If you use the grapefruit properly, I am sure that you will enjoy its tonic properties and will feel a greater zest at your meals and reap the benefit of healthful minerals and vitamins.

WHEN THE SANDMAN COMES

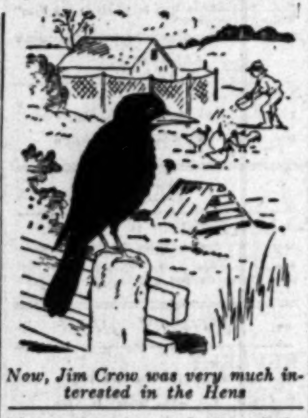
by THORNTON W. BURGESS

JIM CROW PLAYS A LITTLE JOKE

What is life that knows no fun?
Better it had not begun.
—Jim Crow.



Now, Jim Crow was very much interested in the Hens

It didn't take Jim Crow very long to make himself very much at home at Farmer Brown's. Farmer Brown's Boy had planned to clip one of Jim Crow's wings, so that he wouldn't be able to fly away; but he didn't have to do that. Jim Crow didn't want to fly away. He was quite satisfied not to fly away. In other words, Jim Crow was smart enough to know when he was well off. Farmer Brown's Boy made a place for him in the barn, and every night when it began to get dark Jim Crow would go there of his own accord. Like his father and mother, he had no desire to be roaming around after dark. He might be very bold and grave in daylight, but as soon as it got dark Jim Crow was afraid, and he didn't care who knew it.

Now, Jim Crow was very much interested in the hens. Every morning he would go out to the henyard with Farmer Brown's Boy and watch the latter feed the hens. He would sit on one of the posts of the henyard and, with his head cocked on one side, he would watch everything that Farmer Brown's Boy did. Then he would ride back on the shoulder or head of Farmer Brown's Boy. He dearly loved to see the hens all come running when Farmer Brown's Boy wasn't around and he was sure that no one else was listening. Jim Crow would try imitating Farmer Brown's Boy when he called the hens to be fed. Over and over he would try it, until at last he was satisfied that he could do it pretty well.

Then one morning Jim Crow wasn't to be found when it came time to feed the hens. "I wonder where the rascal is," said Farmer Brown's Boy. "It isn't like him not to be on hand to help feed the hens." He called Jim, but got no answer. He looked around the barn for him; he looked in all of Jim Crow's favorite places. He didn't see so much as a single black feather of Jim Crow.

"Well, I can't wait for him," said Farmer Brown's Boy. "The hens must be fed." He started for the henhouse. Perhaps you can imagine his surprise when as he turned the corner of the barn he heard some one calling those hens. He looked up to see the hens all racing across the henyard, and there was Jim Crow, poking sticks through the chicken wire. He was pretending to feed those hens, and all the time he was calling them. Then he flew up on the nearest post, and Farmer Brown's Boy was sure that Jim Crow was laughing, even if he made no sound.

"I wouldn't have believed it, if I hadn't seen it myself," said Farmer Brown's Boy, as he told Mother Brown about it afterward. "There were those hens, walking around with the most surprised and disappointed looks, and there was Jim Crow, enjoying his little joke. There isn't any doubt about it—he was enjoying his little joke. You should have seen his eyes twinkle when I went over to him and spoke to him."

After that Jim Crow played that joke often. Whenever he could think of nothing else to do he would go over and call the hens, and then offer them little sticks or pebbles. He would do it several times a day.

Now, hens are not such stupid creatures as some people think. After a while they refused to come to Jim Crow's call. They were no longer fooled. And finally Jim Crow gave up his little joke in disgust. But while it lasted it was a very funny preformance to watch.

NORMAL PROCESS OF LEARNING HAS UPS AND DOWNS

When young son learns a poem we are well aware that if he doesn't recite it for a week or more he may forget it. Usually some prompting on the part of the mother will result in bringing it back to mind. Repeated often enough it will stick in his mind sometimes for years. Most of the poems learned in early childhood can be recited more glibly than any learned in later years.

With this type of learning almost everyone is familiar, and we take it for granted that there will be lapses of memory and need for more practice before the learning is complete.

All types of learning go through this same irregular process. No matter how hard the student crams for his examinations, if he asks himself the questions immediately following the cramming period he may find that they have entirely flown out of his mind. A rest period, several hours or overnight, with not a thought of the questions, will result in a complete return of them to memory.

Lapses Are Expected

The small child has a hundred lessons to learn. He has new habits, which are all learning processes and he may seem to have the learning complete and then have a lapse of memory when it seems to his distracted mother that he knows less than he did in the beginning.

He may be trained to the toilet and have a period when he reverts to all his baby habits. He may be adept at handling a spoon and then go back to piling it full and dumping it en route to his mouth, as if he had never used a spoon before.

Just because we know that it takes constant practice to set a habit so that it remains at a satisfactory level of performance, we ought to have lots of patience with small children.

Patient Repetition Essential

We may crow over the fact that Jack learns so quickly. Then we should be slow to irritation if he forgets his new learning quite as easily as he acquired it. We have to go over the same ground, teach him as efficiently as he was taught at first. Make the new learnings as pleasant and interesting as we made it the first time we set out to teach the child. Don't say crossly: "Why can't you remember that? I told you again and again." One has to keep on telling, for many of the habits that we think most admirable are not interesting enough to the child to stimulate him to remember them.

Picking up clothes, staying clean and dry, washing before he comes to the table, and putting his toys in order are admirable habits for which the child has no natural taste. We have to keep repeating the good habit until the child finds himself really uncomfortable unless he continues it. Learning goes by leaps, like the frog in the well, up three and back two steps, another leap, another fall, until the top is reached.

Clifford M. Cole Involved in Two Divorce Actions

Two divorce suits involving Clifford M. Cole, mining man and song writer, and his wife, Zida Cole, were on file yesterday, Mrs. Cole having filed hers a few minutes after her husband's reached the County Clerk's office.

The couple was married in 1913, divorced in 1915, and remarried in 1919, according to the complaint. All their four children are twins, George H. and Verna, 16 years of age; Clifford C. and Oliver, 10.

According to Mrs. Cole's petition, her husband associated with a Miss C. M. Johnson of New York, named co-respondent, and criticised his wife's cooking, telling her she ought to make biscuits like Miss Johnson used to make.

In Cole's petition, he asserted that his wife threw dirty water on him, slapped him and tore his shirt and his hair.

Heart Action of Babies Described in Damage Suit

Technical testimony mostly regarding the heart action of new-born babies, occupied the attention of the jury in Superior Judge Thompson's court, during the trial of Mrs. Louise Kierns's $25,000 damage suit against the California Lutheran Hospital yesterday.

Mrs. Kierns and her husband, John T. Kierns, testified their infant was burned to death when placed on a heating table after a Caesarean operation.

Dr. George H. Ernsberger, Dr. Edward S. Ruth, Bess Wayne, nurse, and County Autopsy Surgeon Wagner testified for the defense yesterday, all stating that it would be impossible for a child to be fatally burned as contended by the plaintiff. They said the child died of a congenitally weak heart.

Street Project Pact Proposed

Recommendations that the city and county sign a joint contract for the removal of the buildings and doing the grading work in connection with the extension of Spring street to Sunset Boulevard, were filed yesterday with the Board of Supervisors by County Architect Muck.

The county official's plan is to have the county and the city act jointly in the preliminary work in order to save time and money in making the improvement.

It is expected to have the job completed not later than this coming Thanksgiving Day.

POLICE SEEKING GIRL ATTACKER

Detective Squads to Patrol Residential District

Reports Declare Children Being Molested

Junk Peddler's Act Causes Action by Officers

Report of the brutal attack upon Miss Ina Murray, 15 years of age, by a junk peddler in her home at 211 Chestnut avenue late Thursday, coupled with numerous complaints of citizens of the neighborhood of peddlers molesting children, was the incentive yesterday of action on the part of police in every division. At the order of Acting Chief of Detectives Slaten special squads of detectives were formed and ordered to patrol the residential districts and investigate any suspicious characters found.

The attack upon Miss Murray occured late Thursday afternoon. She was visiting the home of her sister, Mrs. Clyde Gillis at 228 Chestnut avenue, when she saw a middle-aged junk peddler drive by. Remembering that her family had a quantity of old papers to sell she ran out and directed him to her home.

The peddler, leaving his wagon in front, followed the girl through the rear door of the house. After making certain no one else was in the house he grabbed her, forced her into a bedroom and there attacked her, according to the report.

Mrs. Gillis, returning to her home and finding the girl gone, appeared at the Murray residence just as the peddler was leaving. Her arrival frightened him away. Then, discovering her sister's predicament, she notified police.

OPINIONS BAR JUDGE IN LAWSUIT

Court of Appeals Holds Tappaan Disqualified to Hear McLeod Cases

Opinions expressed by Superior Judge Tappaan as to the veracity and character of the defendants in one of a number of cases pending before the Superior Court were found yesterday by the District Court of Appeal to constitute sufficient grounds for a writ of prohibition to restrain the jurist from hearing pending actions against the same defendants.

Superior Judge Tappaan's comments were uttered in the delivering of a judgment for Stewart McLeod in an action against John A. Evans, John A. Evans Corporation and E. D. Evans. Thirteen cases still are pending against the Evanses and the Evans Corporation, and the petitioners asked that Judge Tappaan and Judge Doran be restrained from sitting in twelve of them.

It was set forth by the petitioners that Judge Tappaan, in announcing his decision in the McLeod case, disclosed he did not believe their testimony, and they declared that he would not believe their statements in the other cases.

The Appellate Court held that even "assuming that the trial judge was correct in his fierce discommendation of the petitioners, they nevertheless are entitled to go before a judge of another court; one who will assume that they are telling the truth until the contrary is shown and where no taint of perjury will follow them."

Plaintiffs seek $260,000 in damages in the twelve actions in which the restraining order was sought. The opinion was written by Justice Gates, pro tem. Justices Craig and Thompson concurred.

DEPUTIES SEEK ALEX GRANT

Deputy sheriffs yesterday began a search for Alex Grant, 60 years of age, of 1202 West Thirty-sixth Place, who has been missing since the 15th inst., according to members of the family. A reward of $100 was offered by a nephew, William Carter, for information concerning his whereabouts. The missing man is declared to be mentally incompetent.

Doctor Would Shame Councilmen

Health Officer Demonstrates "Economy"

PARRISH THINKS CITY TIGHT

Health Officer Plans to Sue if Council Committee Slashes $7 From Expense Account

Declaring that his account of expenses to a convention in Salt Lake City of the western branch of the American Public Health Authorities, of which he is vice-president, was no "swindle sheet," but was below his actual outlay, Dr. George Parrish, city health officer, yesterday threatened to sue the city for the return of $7 the City Council Finance Committee plans to cut from the account.

"There were 135 representatives of eleven western States and Canada at the convention," he said, "and they ate at a hotel which charged $2 for luncheon. I could have excused myself and gone to a cafeteria, explaining that I would join them later, but it would have looked queer for the representative of a large city absenting himself while hunting for cheap meals.

APPLES AND WATER

"I might have gotten by with a few green apples and some water, as they swell up and make you think you've had two meals."

The Council appropriated $120 for the doctor's expenses to the convention and he spent all except $9, according to his expense account. The Council provided that meals should not cost more than $3.75 a day and the Finance Committee thought the doctor's paying $5 for attending the luncheon for the president of the association too high. The committee proposed to cut the cost of handling the doctor's trunk to $2 instead of $5.

By close trimming the committee figured it could trim the account by $7, making the total cost $104, thereby saving the city $16 out of the $120 appropriation.

PLANS TO SUE

"The president's luncheon cost $10," said Parrish, "and I paid $5 out of my own pocket. I made no allowance for tips, which I paid. It cost me $5 to have my trunk moved twice at both ends of the journey. Of course, I could have gone along in one suit and carried a toothbrush and a change of linen in a parcel."

Information of the proposed cut was conveyed to the doctor by the Bureau of Budget and Efficiency, but Parrish blames the plan on the Finance Committee. He said he has posted $100 with an attorney to bring suit if the cut is made on the ground that the municipality has no legal right to extract $7 from his pocket.

Federal Grand Jury Accuses Thirty-seven

Thirty-seven persons were named in fourteen indictments returned yesterday by the Federal grand jury. Of these eighteen persons were indicted in one secret true bill and six other persons in four other secret indictments.

Three indictments were returned, involving four persons, and various other indictments were returned, involving violations of the Tariff Act, the Immigration Act, the Dyer Act and the Harrison Narcotic Act.

FOREIGN FILM PLAYERS SIGNED

German, French and Spanish Actors on Way Here

Rod La Rocque Slated to Play in "Boudoir Diplomat"

Donald Crisp Signs for Role in "Scotland Yard"

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

That First National is going in most seriously for the production of foreign-language films is evidenced by the fact that the organization is importing a number of noted players from the other side.

Henry Blanke is at the head of the foreign-language production department, and it was announced yesterday that he will produce Spanish, French and German films to the number of six each, with the imported foreign players in the casts.

The French and German actors who are being brought here will arrive in New York today on the steamer New York, and will be in Hollywood around August 1. The German players are Lissi Arna, Carla Dartheel, Anton Pointner and Wilhelm Dieterle. All are famous in their own country, both on stage and screen, and most of them are known also to other continental countries, including Hungary and Italy.

The French players coming to Hollywood are Rolla Norman, Suzy Vernon, Jeanne Helbling and Daniel Mendaille. These likewise are names to conjure with in their native land and in Italy, Switzerland and other countries of the continent.

The Spanish players are those already known to American theatergoers, including Antonio Moreno, Maria Alba and Alvarez Rubio. Still another Spanish actor as yet not engaged will fill out the Spanish quota.

Naturally other foreign actors now in Hollywood will be engaged for parts from time to time, but those named will be signed for the term of the six pictures, and will probably appear in other foreign versions as well.

The first picture to be made in all three foreign languages will be "Those Who Dance," and another will be "Moby Dick," which John Barrymore has already completed in the English version.

Directors for the foreign versions have already been selected by First National and Blanke. They include John Daunery, who will direct the French versions; Francis McGann, who is to guide the Spanish versions, and Wilhelm Dieterle, who will not only act, but will also direct the German versions.

ROD LA ROCQUE TO BE UNIVERSAL LEAD

ROD LA ROCQUE

Prophesying anything about pictures is, of course, a daring thing to do; but we are taking a chance in prophesying that Rod La Rocque will play the leading male role in Universal's talking version of "The Command to Love," renamed, for heaven knows what reason, "The Boudoir Diplomat."

It is known that La Rocque has been the favorite with Universal officials for this most exacting part during the past several days. However, it appears that Universal also wanted him to play in "The Lady Surrenders," and that he did not altogether wish to play the role, considering himself not the type.

However, it looks as though that difficulty is about to be ironed out, and that it is quite likely that Ivan Lebedeff, the Russian actor, will be engaged for "The Lady Surrenders."

Lasky Players Chosen

LILLIAN ROTH

When Jack Oakie begins work on his next picture, which is as yet untitled, he will have as his leading lady that very charming young actress, Lillian Roth.

Harry Green will have a featured comedy role and other members of the cast are being selected.

While the yarn is a story of a navy, it is a sort of mythical navy, maybe in order to give the authors greater latitude in telling the somewhat fantastic tale.

Crisp Wins Role

That most accomplished sneerer among screen villains, Donald Crisp, has just been signed by Fox.

He will play the featured role of the Fox in "Scotland Yard," which William K. Howard is directing, with Edmund Lowe and Joan Bennett costarred.

Crisp has a long line of successes to his credit, both as director and actor, including his direction of Douglas Fairbanks in several films and his playing of the villain in Griffith's "Broken Blossoms."

Halliwell Hobbes, well-known English player, has been signed for another important role.

Warners Cast New Picture

BERYL MERCER

The character types in Warners' "Bad Women," their story of life in a woman's prison, being quite as important as the so-called principals, due to the nature of the story, we are pleased to have to announce that two highly skilled actresses are to play featured character roles. Beryl Mercer, who made such a big success in Paramount's version of Barrie's "The Old Lady Shows Her Medals," is engaged for an important role, while Vera Gordon likewise is to be featured.

Whispers in the Wings

BY MURIEL BABCOCK

Lillian Albertson and Louis Macloon will produce a new Viennese operetta in Los Angeles this fall, taking the show from here to New York if successful. Perry Askam and Josephine Houston, the pair who starred in the romantic singing leads in "The New Moon," will head the cast. Word of this forthcoming event — production is now set for October—came yesterday in the form of a wire from the Macloons on the eve of their departure for Paris on the French Line.

JOSEPHINE HOUSTON

They will return, according to present plans, to Los Angeles about September 4 to start the production wheels in motion. At the moment, they have two Viennese operettas under option and plan to purchase the one that looks best.

Glenn Tryon in New Play

There is talk that Glenn Tryon, motion-picture star, may appear in the cast of the new Lynn Starling play, "A Cup of Sugar," opposite Dorothy Mackaye.

GLENN TRYON

Tryon, who just wound up a three-year contract with Universal, has been approached on the subject. He isn't sure yet that he will do it.

It seems that although a lot of people have lost sight of this, remembering his favorite pictures, "Skinner Steps Out," "Painting the Town," and "Lonesome," he used to do pretty well on the stage. He played in "Maytime" on the road for two years, was in stock in Baltimore and various places in the East, and coming west eventually joined the Wilkes stock company in San Francisco. He acted in "Six Cylinder Love" and then went promptly to work in pictures.

It is very possible that "A Cup of Sugar" may open in San Francisco, coming to Los Angeles in the early fall.

Gladys George Chosen

Gladys George was yesterday chosen for the third starring role in "Tea for Three," the Roi Cooper Megrue society comedy which follows "To the Ladies" into El Capitan Theater in a week.

This now makes Miss George, Tom Moore and Ernest Glendenning members of the trio which sustain the action of the play. Miss George has the role of the wife. She comes to Los Angeles from work as leading woman in Salt Lake, Denver and Kansas City productions.

Moore, of course, is a picture star back on the stage. He was last seen here in "The Boomerang." Glendenning came to Hollywood for "Nancy's Private Affair."

"Our Blushing Brides" Scheduled

Postponed in order to permit "Romance" with Greta Garbo a short run in the Criterion, "Our Blushing Brides," the new Joan Crawford picture, is now set to go into that downtown theater next Friday, August 1, it was told last night.

JOAN CRAWFORD

Norma Shearer in "Let Us Be Gay" will follow. This has been a tremendous hit in New York, where it opened recently. And after that, it seems that "All Quiet on the Western Front" may start its first downtown engagement.

These three ace pictures comprise the line-up which the Criterion is putting on the map to celebrate Greater Talkie Season.

De Mille Daughter, Understudy

Katherine De Mille, daughter of Cecil B. De Mille, motion-picture director, is acting as understudy for one of the roles in support of Ina Claire in "Rebound" at the Belasco Theater, it was learned yesterday.

Miss De Mille, according to the report, has been with the company since its first rehearsal, accompanied it to San Francisco for the engagement there and has been on duty here. As yet, she hasn't had a chance to appear on the stage, and probably won't unless some one is taken ill.

In addition to Miss De Mille, there is what is known as a "general understudy" for the production, Miss Zolla Conan. Miss Conan gets a break in that she actually plays the role of Marta in the comedy.

From the Eastern Front

Two revues and a comedy were scheduled to withdraw from Broadway theaters tonight. They are "Who Cares," "Artists and Models" and "Lost Sheep." To the eleven continuing attractions, one new show will be added on Monday—that the Walter Wolf-Violet Heming vehicle, "Ladies All."

The cast of Marya Eannes's play, "Cafe," now in rehearsal, includes Rollo Peters, George Caine, Philip Leigh, Frances Fuller, King Calder, Jeanne Shelby and Jeanette Delys. The Brady office will give the play a tryout in Asbury Park on August 11.

Charles Hopkins now plans to open Benn W. Levy's play, "Mrs. Moonlight," with Edith Barrett, Guy Standing and Saidee Wright heading the cast at his theater on September 29.

TIERNEY COMPOSES

Harry Tierney, R.-K.-O. composer, is busy at his Beverly Hills home, creating the music for "Heart of the Rockies."

Local Girl Supports Star in Play

Corinne Ross

Daughter of Mrs. Gertrude Ross, Hollywood musician, is portraying an important role in "Rebound," the Donald Ogden Stewart comedy starring Ina Claire, now playing at the Belasco Theater.

CALIFORNIA POLICY TO BE CHANGED

Fred Miller Announces Plan for International Picture House

Fred Miller, veteran showman, has announced that the California Theater is to be transformed into the world's first international showhouse. After several months of study of the subject, Miller came to the conclusion that Los Angeles has a large enough foreign population to ably support a high-class motion-picture theater devoted to the showing of the best of locally made and imported films in foreign languages, he says.

Plans are being made to establish similar houses in other cities boasting large foreign colonies, in accordance with Miller's idea, it is reported. In order to prepare for this radical change in policy it will be necessary to close the theater after the final performances of Vilma Banky in "A Lady to Love." Extensive changes will be made, it is said. It is planned to reopen the theater on or about September 5.

Miller is enthusiastic over his new plan and believes that the foreign-language films will not only appeal to the large number of natives from other lands, but that they will also prove of interest to the many students of foreign languages in local schools and colleges.

MELODRAMA FROM U.F.A. SCREENED

"Asphalt" Relates Series of Meandering Incidents at Filmarte

BY ELENA BOLAND

"Asphalt" deals not with the rise and fall of cement, as anyone might suppose. Rather, it is a melodrama of Berlin's sidewalk shadows, forever lurking just around the corner, one might say.

The actual facts of the story are simplicity itself, but through treatment they become a ponderous succession of incidents which wander so far into bypaths that they eventually lose track of the main trend. In fact, the story at the end is so many climaxes away from that of the beginning that it is almost forgotten.

Interest to be gained from this UFA film, as it has been directed by Joe May under the supervision of Eric Pommer, is only as it is symbolic of the German attitude of mind. Although it is evident that a direct attempt has been made to satisfy less European tastes, the result remains as neither typical of Germany nor America.

What, because of timing, demands an hour and forty-five minutes to relate, might be told in a few well-chosen "shots." A girl robs a jewelry store. She is caught and intrusted to the care of a young policeman. Somehow or other, they never do show up in jail and evidently no one cares, for no questions are asked. Regenerated by a policeman's love, the girl reaches such heights of nobility that she, in turn, saves him when he is condemned for the killing of her lover by a simple statement that the deceased was a robber.

For performance may be cited two minor bits, those of the boy's father and mother, although the latter's emotions are apt to run away with her in the grand finale. These parts are taken by Albert Steinrueck and Else Heller and maintain for the most part the simplicity so desired of the whole.

There are moments when Gustav Froelich gives glimpses of an unsatisfied promise in his characterization of the boy. In line with the general tenor, he is too often immobile and phlegmatic.

No doubt Betty Amann is called the Clara Bow of Germany, and as her bit she runs the gamut of emotions. Her talent is real but misapplied.

"Dwellers of the Deep" takes life, undersea life, as it sees it and affords several minutes of amazement and real pleasure.

GATHERS DATA

While making a tour of Canada, Bradley King, prominent scenarist, is collecting historical data which she intends to use as the background for a film story she plans on writing on her return.

'Manslaughter' Scheduled for Paramount Run

"Queen High," the screen farce-romance now at the Paramount Theater, will be followed Thursday by "Manslaughter," the second feature attraction released under the Paramount Greater Show World Season for 1931 schedule.

The film version of Alice Duer Miller's novel, "Manslaughter," brings to the screen a cast composed, with one exception, of players experienced on both stage and in talking films. Claudette Colbert and Fredric March play the featured roles. Miss Colbert portrays the beautiful and wealthy girl who thinks herself above the law. March is the young district attorney who sends her to prison, even though he loves her.

Emma Dunn, noted for her stage mother roles, portrays Miss Colbert's aunt. She was last seen as Gary Cooper's mother in "The Texan." Others in the cast include Natalie Moorhead, Hilda Vaughn, Stanley Fields and Richard Tucker. George Abbott, playwright, screen author and stage producer, directed "Manslaughter" for Paramount.

MME. ALSEN TRIUMPHS AT BOWL

Wagnerian Soprano Sings to Enthusiastic Audience; Molinari Also Lauded

BY ISABEL MORSE JONES

A program, precisely divided between the classic and the romantic composers, was conducted by Molinari at the Bowl last night and, with Elsa Alsen as soloist, drew the largest and most enthusiastic crowd on record this season. Molinari conducted an altogether charming performance of the Haydn G minor symphony and Mme. Alsen sang the "Love Death" from "Tristan and Isolde," which is her invariably successful vehicle, and the less familiar Immolation scene from "Die Gotterdammerung." She was recalled times without number and her bouquets formed a beautiful floral exhibition.

An andante cantabile for strings and harp by the ancient classicist, Geminiani, opened the program. It is of the type of the old Corelli and Vivaldi numbers which Molinari does so exquisitely. The Haydn symphony was played spiritedly, phrased with taste and the string tone was surpassingly fine.

Molinari's Wagner is a full realization of the master but rather more Latin than Teutonic. He relies comparatively little on the brasses but depends on string tone for quality and clear enunciation. His Wagnerian offerings were Prelude and Love Death from "Tristan and Isolde" and the finale of the "Tannhauser" overture.

Mme. Alsen was in excellent voice and her acting and stage deportment were truly expressive of the emotions she portrayed. She is the heroic Valkyrie type and the nobility of her Wagner interpretations is an inspiration to all who hear her. Seldom does a singer excite a crowd with Wagnerian singing as she did last night.

Tonight Molinari will conduct the "Egmont" overture, Beethoven's "Symphony No. 5," Mendelssohn's Flute Scherzo and "Till Eulenspiegel" by Richard Strauss.

Dancers to be Guests of Honor

Charles and Louis Mosconi, former Ziegfeld dancers and recently featured in Sid Grauman's "Hell's Angels" prologue, will be guests of honor at the midnight matinee of "Oh, Judge," new musical farce, at the Vine-Street Theater tonight.

Vaudeville headliners, stage and screen players and other notables will attend the midnight performance, it is reported.

Bernard Granville, Marie Wells, Mary Hutchinson, Rodney McLennen, Nenette Vallon, Mildred Costello and others are in the cast of the musical show.

REPORT DENIED

Constance Bennett denies that she is leaving the screen. Where the report originated is not known, but she intends to complete her contract with Pathe before making any other plans.

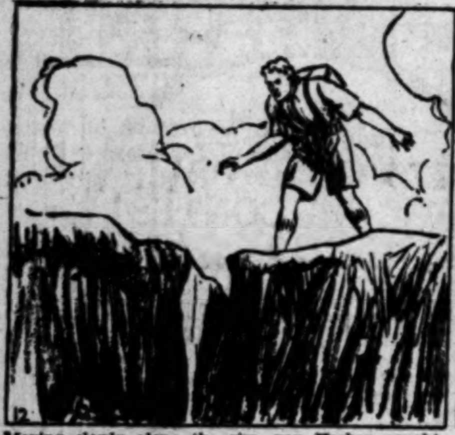
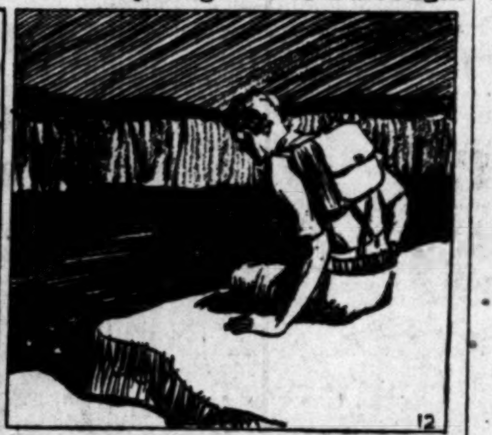
TARZAN AND THE LOST EMPIRE

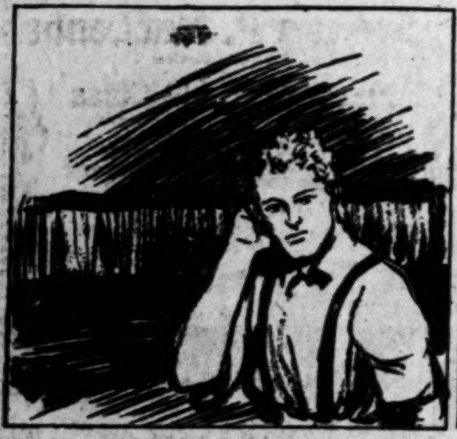
By Edgar Rice Burroughs



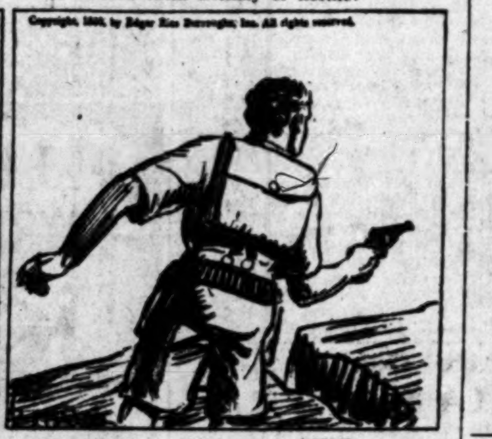
Moving slowly along the rim, von Harben sought some foothold, however slight, where nature had lowered her guard, but it was almost night when he discovered a narrow fissure in the granite wall. He could see that below him the cliffs rose in terraced battlements to within a thousand feet of where he stood, and if the narrow fissure extended to the next terrace below him, he had a chance.



Hungry and cold he sat beneath the descending night, gazing slowly into the blackening void below. Presently as the darkness deepened, he saw a light twinkling far below and then another and another and with each his excitement rose, for he knew that they marked the presence of man. What sort of men were they who tended these fires? Would he find them friendly or hostile?



What was that? Von Harben strained his ears to catch the faint suggestion of a sound that arose out of the shadowy abyss below—a faint, thin sound that barely reached his ears, but he was sure that he could not be mistaken—the sound was the voices of men. And now from out of the valley came a roar that rumbled upward like distant thunder.



Copyright, 1930, by Edgar Rice Burroughs, Inc. All rights reserved.

The next morning he was ready for an attempt that seemed little better than suicidal. Young, self-confident and enthusiastic, he rejoiced in the test of nerve, but just as he was about to lower himself over the edge of the fissure to face the unknown peril of the towering cliffs he heard the sound of footsteps behind him. Wheeling quickly, he drew his pistol.

Lack of Babies Irks Policeman

Babies of his own, to greet him when he went home from arresting murderers and robbers, are what Police Sergeant Cyrus Johnson, poet of the force, testified yesterday that he wanted. So the police bard asked an annulment of his marriage with Leona Johnson, pistol markswoman. Superior Judge Guerin granted the annulment after hearing Johnson's assertions that, following his marriage, he was informed there would be no little Johnsons.

Sergt. Johnson won his wife following a pistol competition, in which he outshot her, using a tin can as target. They married November 18, 1926, and separated February 22, 1930. Attorney S. S. Hahn represented the police sergeant in court.

A Wretched Place

Sandy MacClinchy had visited the second-hand book store every day for nearly two weeks, each time spending an hour or so in it, but he bought nothing and the storekeeper naturally grew anxious about making a sale to him. One morning, however, Sandy appeared as usual, and in a moment rushed over to the storekeeper with a book in his hand.

"At last!" thought the proprietor, "he's going to buy a book."

"Say, mon," was Sandy's greeting. "What kind o' bookstore is this, anyway? Somebody has come in here and taken my book mark out of its place." —[Pathfinder.

THE TERSE AGE

It happened in Denver, says the Omaha World-Herald. A couple stood in front of a bishop. They joined hands. The bishop said, "Married"—and nothing more. Denver attorneys say the marriage was legal. Possibly, after some time, this same couple will stand before a judge seeking a separation, and possibly the judge will merely look at them and say, "Divorced." Then may come a time when one or both of the interested parties will die, and the officiating personage may merely remark, "Dead," and the earth will begin to fall upon their resting place. We are reaching quite a terse age, [illegible] we?
